No one can be admitted to the Freshman Class, till he has completed his fourteenth year, nor to an advanced standing without a proportional increase of age.

Testimonials of good moral character are in all cases required; and those who are admitted from other colleges must produce certificates of dismission in good standing. The students are not considered as regular members of the College, till, after a residence of at least six months, they have been admitted to matriculation, on satisfactory evidence of an unblemished moral character. Before this they are only students on probation.

Course of Instruction.

The Faculty, to whom is committed the government and instruction of the students, consists of a President; a Professor of Chimistry, Mineralogy and Geology; a Professor of the Latin Language and Literature; a Professor of Mathematics, Natural Philosophy and Astronomy; a Professor of Divinity; a Professor of Rhetoric and Oratory; a Professor of the Greek Language and Literature; and eight Tutors.

The whole course of instruction occupies four years. In each year there are three terms or sessions.

The three younger classes are divided, each into two or three parts. These are instructed by the Tutors of the class, in rotation, with the assistance of the Professors. The Senior Class is instructed by the President and Professors. Each of the four classes attends three recitations or lectures in a day; except on Wednesdays and Saturdays, when they have only two. The following scheme gives a general view of the authors recited each term:—

FRESHMAN CLASS.

I. Folsom's Livy, from one half to two thirds.
Adam's Roman Antiquities.
Day's Algebra, begun.
Xenophon's Anabasis, begun.

II. Folsom's Livy, finished.
Xenophon's Anabasis, finished.
Day's Algebra, finished.

III. Horace, begun.
Homer's Iliad, begun.
Playfair's Euclid, five books.

SOPHOMORE CLASS.

I.
- Horace, continued.
- Homer's Iliad, continued through twelve books.
- Euclid, reviewed and finished.

II.
- Horace, finished and reviewed.
- Cicero's Brutus.
- Select Orations of Demosthenes, begun.
- Day's Mathematics; Plane Trigonometry, Nature and Use of Logarithms, Mensuration of Superficies and Solids, and Isoperimetry; Mensuration of Heights and Distances, and Navigation.

III.
- Select Orations of Demosthenes, finished.
- Cicero de Oratore, begun.
- Day's Mathematics; Surveying.
- Bridge's Conic Sections.
- Spherical Geometry and Trigonometry.
- Jamieson's Rhetoric.

JUNIOR CLASS.

I.
- Cicero de Oratore, finished.
- Tacitus, begun.
- Select Tragedies, viz. the Prometheus of Aeschylus; Antigone and Electra of Sophocles; Alcestis of Euripides.
- Olmsted's Natural Philosophy.

II.
- Tacitus; the History; Manners of the Germans; and Agricola.
- Select Tragedies, finished.
- Natural Philosophy, finished and reviewed.

III.
- Astronomy.
- Tytler's History.

- Hebrew, French, or Spanish,

At the option of the student.

SENIOR CLASS.

I.
- Hedge's Logic.
- Blair's Rhetoric.
- Stewart's Philosophy of the Mind.
- Paley's Moral Philosophy.
- Kent's Commentaries on American Law, Vol. I.
- Greek and Latin.

II.
- Kent's Commentaries, Vol. I. continued.
- Paley's Natural Theology.
- Evidences of Christianity.
- Greek and Latin.

III. Say's Political Economy.

In addition to the recitations in the books here specified, the classes receive lectures and occasional instruction from the Professors of the Greek and Latin Languages; the Junior Class attends a course of experimental lectures on Natural Philosophy; and the Senior Class, the course on Chimistry, Mineralogy, Geology, and select subjects of Natural Philosophy and Astronomy. The members of the several classes attend also the private exercises and lectures of the Professor of Rhetoric and Oratory. A course of

to the students, who are required to present them to their parents, guardians or patrons. If any student fails to comply with this requisition, he is not permitted to recite till the bills are paid.

The annual charges in the Treasurer's bill are,

For instruction, - - - - - -	$33 00
For rent of chamber in college, 9 to 15 dollars—average, - - - - -	12 00
For ordinary repairs and contingencies, -	2 40
For general damages, sweeping, &c. about -	3 60
For expenses of recitation rooms, - - -	1 00
	$52 00

Besides this, the student may be charged for damages done by himself, and a small sum for printing catalogues, and other occasional expenses.

Board is furnished in commons by the Steward, at cost, about $1,87 a week; or $75 a year, not including vacations. It varies, however, with the price of provisions. Wood is procured by the Corporation, and distributed to those students who apply for it, at cost and charges.

The students provide for themselves bed and bedding, furniture for their rooms, candles, books, stationary, and washing. There are also, in the several classes, taxes of a small amount, for the fuel in the recitation rooms, catalogues, &c. If books and furniture are sold, when the student has no further necessity for them, the expenses incurred by their use will not be great.

The following may be considered as a near estimate of the necessary expenses, without including apparel, pocket money, travelling, and board in vacations:

Treasurer's bill as above, - -	$52	$52
Board in common, 40 weeks, -	from 70 to	80
Fuel and light, - - - - -	" 6 "	15
Use of books recited, and stationery,	" 5 "	15
Use of furniture, bed and bedding, -	" 5 "	15
Washing, - - - - - -	" 7 "	16
Taxes in the classes, &c. - - -	" 5 "	7
TOTAL,	$150 to	$200

No students are permitted to take lodgings in town, except when the rooms in College are not sufficient to accomodate all.

Students who wait in the hall, are allowed their board; and those who occupy the recitation rooms, save their room rent and fuel in winter, and receive a small compensation in summer. A cheap boarding house is opened under the direction of the Steward, for those students who wish board at a lower rate than it is furnished in commons. The price of board here, is about half a dollar less than in the principal hall.

By a resolve of the Corporation, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars a year, is appropriated to the relief of indigent students, and the encouragement of merit.

Notes of the several incorporated banks in this State, and such other notes as are taken by the banks in the city of New Haven, are received in payment of the bills. Drafts on New York, Philadelphia and Boston, are received without discount. Money or drafts to pay the Treasurer's and Steward's bills, may be transmitted directly to the Treasurer or Steward.

With regard to apparel, and what is called pocket money, no general estimate can be made. These are the articles in which the expenses of individuals differ most; and in which some are unwarrantably extravagant. There is nothing by which the character and scholarship of the students of this College are more endangered, than by a free indulgence in the use of money. Great caution with regard to this, is requisite on the part of parents. What is more than sufficient to defray the ordinary expenses, will expose the student to numerous temptations; and will not contribute either to his respectability or happiness.

As a precaution against extravagance, parents at a distance frequently deposit funds with some one of the faculty; who, in that case, pays a particular attention to the pecuniary concerns of the student, settles his bills, corresponds with the parent, transmits an account of the expenditures, &c., for which he charges a commission.

A person admitted to an advanced standing, unless coming from another college, pays a sum to the Treasurer, equal to half the tuition money, which has been paid by others of the class which he enters.

The Theological Department.

The Instructors in the Theological Department, are a Professor of Didactic Theology, a Professor of Sacred Literature, and the Professors of Divinity and of Rhetoric in the classical department of the College.

The whole course of instruction occupies three years; and the students are divided into Junior, Middle and Senior classes.

The time of admission is at the commencement of the first collegiate term. It is desirable that those who join the school, should commence at the beginning of the collegiate year; and those admitted to an advanced standing will be expected to have previously gone over the studies pursued by their respective classes. The terms and vacations are the same with those in the College. The conditions for entrance, are hopeful piety, and a liberal education at some college, unless the candidate has otherwise qualified himself for pursuing advantageously the prescribed course of studies.

No charges are made for tuition or lectures.

No funds have as yet been granted to this department for defraying the expenses of indigent students.

Board may be obtained in private families at from $1 25 to $1 75 per week.

The Law School.

The Law School is under the direction of the Hon. David Daggett, LL. D., late Chief Judge of the Supreme Court in Connecticut, and Professor of Law; and Samuel J. Hitchcock, Esq., Attorney and Counselor at Law.

The students are required to peruse the most important elementary treatises, and are daily examined on the author they are reading, and receive at the same time explanations and illustrations of the subjects they are studying.

A course of lectures is delivered by the Professor of Law, on all the titles and subjects of Common and Statute Law.

A moot court is held once a week or oftener, which employs the students in drawing pleadings, and investigating and arguing questions of Law.

The students are called upon from time to time, to draw declarations, pleadings, contracts and other instruments connected with the practice of law, and to do the most important duties of an attorney's clerk.

They are occasionally required to write disquisitions on some topic of law, and collect the authorities to support their opinions.

Arrangements are making and nearly completed, by which the students can at all times examine the Statute Laws of each State in the Union, and all the reported cases which have been published in this country.

The students are furnished with the use of the elementary books, and have access at all times, to the College libraries, and to a law library, comprising every important work, both ancient and modern.

The terms for tuition are $75,00 for one year; for six months $50,00; for any term exceeding one year, at the rate of $75,00 per annum. The entrance fee is $5,00; and for the ordinary use of the library, and the constant use of the text books, $5,00. All payable in advance. The course of study occupies two years, allowing eight weeks vacation each year. Students are, however, received for a shorter period.

The Professor of Law delivers Lectures to the Senior Class in College, and hears recitations in Kent's Commentaries during the first and second terms, once in each week.

The Medical Institution.

The Instructors in the Medical Institution, are a Professor of Surgery, a Professor of Chimistry and Pharmacy, a Professor of the Theory and Practice of Physic, a Professor of Materia Medica and Therapeutics, a Professor of Anatomy and Physiology, and a Professor of Obstetrics.

The annual course of Lectures, commences at the expiration of eleven weeks from the third Wednesday of August, which will usually be the first Thursday of November, and continues seventeen weeks. There are, at least, five daily lectures throughout the term, and a part of the time, six.

The fees, which are required in advance, are $12,50 for each course, except that on Obstetrics, which is $6. The Matriculation fee is $5, and there is a contingent bill of $2,50. Those who have attended two courses of Lectures in this institution, are entitled to admission to future courses, on the payment of the Matriculation fee and the contingent bill.

The ordinary price of board, room, &c. in New Haven, is from $2 to $3 per week, according to the accommodations required.

The Students are entitled to gratuitous admission to the Medical and Academical Libraries, to the Anatomical Museum, and to the Cabinet of Minerals; and also to the Lectures on Natural Philosophy, on paying the fee of the course.

During the past summer, the College building has been enlarged, and that part of it especially devoted to Anatomical pursuits, rendered more commodious. Every facility will be afforded to those students who wish to attend to practical Anatomy.

By the Statutes of the State, the requirements for graduation are, three years' study for those who are not Bachelors of Arts, and two years for those who are; attendance upon two full courses of Lectures, either in this institution or some other, of a similar character; the attainment of twenty one years of age, and a good moral character; together with a satisfactory examination before the board of examiners for the State, at which he must present a dissertation upon some subject connected with the Medical sciences. This board consists of the Medical professors of the College, ex officio, and an equal number of persons chosen by the fellows of the Medical Society of the State. Licences to practice are granted by the president of the Society, upon the recommendation of the board of examiners, and candidates for a licence, must possess the same qualifications as those for a degree, except that attendance upon one course of Lectures only is required. The graduation fee is $15. The examination is held immediately at the close of the Lectures, when the licences are granted and the degrees conferred.

A short course of Anatomy and Physiology, consisting of about fifteen lectures, is given, in the summer season, to the Senior class, and to others who may choose to attend, which are illustrated by natural and artificial preparations.
