A Guide to the Jesse Holman Jones Papers, 1880-1965

Descriptive Summary

Creator:	Jones, Jesse H. (Jesse Holman), 1874-1956.
Title	Jones (Jesse Holman) Papers
Dates:	1880-1965
Abstract	Jesse H. Jones was a prominent Houston businessman, builder, and publisher of the Houston Chronicle , and held positions with the American Red Cross during World War I and in the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration. He was involved with real estate development and building construction in Texas and elsewhere.
OCLC Record No.	23285513
Extent	41 ft., 8 in.
Language	English.
Repository	Center for American History, The University of Texas at Austin

Scope and Contents

Papers concern the career of Jones (1874-1956), builder, financier, statesman, and publisher of the Houston Chronicle, and relate to the construction of buildings in Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas, and San Antonio; real estate holdings in Dallas, Houston Memphis, and New York City; the Democratic National Convention of 1928 in Houston; the development of the San Jacinto Monument, battleground, and battleship; the creation of the Houston Endowment, Inc.; Jones's service as director general of the Department of Military Relief of the American Red Cross and member of the Red Cross War Council during World War I, as federal loan administrator of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and secretary of commerce under Franklin D. Roosevelt, and as director general of the Texas Centennial Celebration; his activities as the chairman of the Houston Harbor Board, as a member of St. Paul's Methodist Church and chairman of its building committee, and in development, finance, and banking operations, particularly in Houston; and his collaboration with Edward Angley in writing 50 Million Dollars. A gap exists in the collection from 1930-1950 representing Jones's active service in the federal government. Most of the Jones material for those years is located in the Library of Congress. Collection contains correspondence, business and financial records, book manuscripts and research notes, speeches, certificates, address and appointment books, scrapbooks, magazine and newspaper clippings, annotated copies of the Congressional Record, blueprints, charts, photographs, films, cartoons, pamphlets, painting, drawings, posters, and phonograph records. There is some photocopied material.

JONES (JESSE HOLMAN) PHOTOGRAPHS, ca. 1880-1965
ca. 700 photographs (mostly B & W prints).
ca. 150 cartoons and other art works.
ca. 75 framed pictorial items.

Scope and Contents

Images of Jones (1874-1956), his family, friends, and business colleagues document his career as a builder, financier, statesman, and publisher of the Houston Chronicle. Many photographs concern the history, architecture, and development of Houston. The cartoons are originals, mostly political in nature, commenting on Jones's role in the Roosevelt Administration as administrator of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and secretary of commerce. Many of the framed items are inscribed by the subjects. Items are arranged by format: Photographs, framed items, and cartoons and art work, and include black and white prints, tintypes, cartoons, sketches, paintings, and photostats. An item by item description is included in the inventory.
