   (b) the person is not a body corporate; and
   (c) there is no determination in force under section 11 that this subsection does not apply to the person.

   Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

   Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

(2) An offence against subsection (1) is an indictable offence.

(3) If a person carries on banking business in circumstances that give rise to the person committing an offence against subsection (1), the person is guilty of an offence against that subsection in respect of:
   (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
   (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the person committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

(a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and

(b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the body corporate committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

9 Authority to carry on banking business

(2) A body corporate which desires authority to carry on banking business in Australia may apply in writing to APRA for authority accordingly.

Note: The body corporate may also need to consider the implications of the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 and the Financial Sector (Shareholdings) Act 1998.

(3) If an application has been made, APRA may grant the body corporate an authority to carry on banking business in Australia. The authority must be in writing, and APRA must give the body corporate written notice of the granting of the authority.

Note 1: The fact that a body corporate is granted an authority to carry on banking business in Australia does not mean it is entitled to call itself a bank. To do this, the body corporate will need to have a consent under section 66.

Note 2: For APRA’s power to revoke an authority, see section 9A.
(3A) Without limiting the circumstances in which APRA may refuse an application by a body corporate for authority to carry on banking business in Australia, APRA may refuse such an application if the body corporate is a subsidiary of a NOHC that does not hold a NOHC authority.

(4) APRA may, at any time, by notice in writing served on the body corporate concerned:
   (a) impose conditions, or additional conditions, on an authority;
or
   (b) vary or revoke conditions imposed on an authority.
The conditions must relate to prudential matters.

(4A) Without limiting the conditions that APRA may impose under subsection (4) on an ADI’s authority, APRA may make the authority conditional on a body corporate of which the ADI is a subsidiary being an authorised NOHC.

(5) A condition may be expressed to have effect notwithstanding anything in the prudential standards or the regulations.

(6) An ADI is guilty of an offence if:
   (a) it does, or fails to do, an act; and
   (b) doing, or failing to do, the act results in a contravention of a condition of the ADI’s authority; and
   (c) there is no determination in force under section 11 that this subsection does not apply to the ADI.

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

(6A) An offence against subsection (6) is an indictable offence.

(6B) If an ADI does or fails to do an act in circumstances that give rise to the ADI committing an offence against subsection (6), the ADI is guilty of an offence against that subsection in respect of:
   (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
   (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the ADI committing the offence continue.
Section 9A

(including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

(7) If APRA:

(a) grants an authority under subsection (3); or

(b) imposes, varies or revokes conditions under subsection (4);

APRA must cause notice of that action to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of that action to be published in any other way it considers appropriate.

(8) A failure to comply with subsection (7) does not affect the validity of the action concerned.

(9) Part VI applies to the following decisions under this section:

(a) a decision to refuse an application under this section;

(b) a decision to impose conditions, or additional conditions, on an authority;

(c) a decision to vary conditions imposed on an authority.

9A Revocation of authority

(1) APRA must revoke a body corporate’s section 9 authority if:

(a) the body corporate, by notice in writing to APRA, requests the revocation of the authority; and

(b) APRA is satisfied that the revocation of the authority:

(i) would not be contrary to the national interest; and

(ii) would not be contrary to the interests of depositors of the body corporate.

(2) APRA may revoke a body corporate’s section 9 authority if APRA is satisfied that:

(aa) the body corporate has, whether before or after the commencement of this paragraph, provided, in connection with its application for the authority, information that was false or misleading in a material particular; or

(a) the body corporate has failed to comply with:

(i) a requirement of this Act or the regulations or the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001; or

Authority to carry on banking business

Part II

Division 1

Section 9A

(iii) a condition of its section 9 authority; or
(b) it would be contrary to the national interest for the authority to remain in force; or
(ba) it would be contrary to financial system stability in Australia for the authority to remain in force; or
(c) it would be contrary to the interests of depositors of the body corporate for the authority to remain in force; or
(d) the body corporate has failed to pay:
   (i) an amount of levy or late penalty to which the Financial Institutions Supervisory Levies Collection Act 1998 applies; or
   (ii) an amount of charge fixed under section 51 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998; or
(e) the body corporate is insolvent and is unlikely to return to solvency within a reasonable period of time; or
(f) the body corporate has ceased to carry on banking business in Australia.

The procedures to be undergone before a revocation under this subsection are set out in subsection (3). Those procedures apply unless APRA determines under subsection (4) that they are not to apply.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), APRA must not, under subsection (2), revoke a body corporate’s section 9 authority unless:
   (a) APRA has given the body corporate a notice in writing advising the body corporate:
       (i) that APRA is considering revoking the authority for the reasons specified in the notice; and
       (ii) that the body corporate may make submissions to APRA, in accordance with the notice, about the possible revocation; and
       (iii) of the date by which any submissions must be made (being a date at least 90 days after the giving of the notice); and
   (b) APRA has considered any submissions that were made by the body corporate by the specified date.

(4) APRA may determine that the procedures in subsection (3) do not apply if APRA is satisfied that following those procedures could result in a delay in revocation that would be:

Banking Act 1959 13
(a) contrary to the national interest; or
(b) contrary to the interests of depositors with the body corporate.

(5) A revocation of a body corporate’s section 9 authority under subsection (1) or (2) must be in writing, and APRA must give the body corporate written notice of the revocation of the authority.

(6) If APRA revokes a body corporate’s section 9 authority under subsection (1) or (2), APRA must cause notice of the revocation to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of the revocation to be published in any other way it considers appropriate.

(7) A failure to comply with subsection (5) (so far as it requires a body corporate to be given written notice of a revocation) or with subsection (6) does not affect the validity of a revocation.

(8) Part VI applies to the following decisions under this section:
(a) a decision to refuse to revoke a body corporate’s section 9 authority;
(b) a decision to revoke a body corporate’s section 9 authority, unless APRA has determined, under subsection (4), that the procedures in subsection (3) do not apply.

9B Bodies that cease to exist or change their names

(1) If APRA is satisfied that a body corporate that has been granted a section 9 authority:
(a) has ceased to exist; or
(b) has changed its name;
APRA must cause notice of that fact to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of that fact to be published in any other way it thinks appropriate.

(2) If the body corporate has ceased to exist, its section 9 authority is taken to be revoked on publication of the notice in the Gazette.

(3) If the body corporate has changed its name, its section 9 authority has effect after the publication of the notice in the Gazette as if it had been granted to the body under its changed name.
9C Publication of list of ADIs

APRA may, from time to time, publish a list of ADIs:
(a) in the Gazette; or
(b) in such other manner as APRA determines.

10 APRA to be supplied with certain documents

(2) Every copy of an Act, charter, deed of settlement, memorandum of association, articles of association or other document furnished to APRA under subsection (1) shall be verified by a statutory declaration made by a senior officer of the body corporate concerned.

(3) An ADI is guilty of an offence if:
(a) an alteration is made to the Act, charter, deed of settlement, memorandum of association, articles of association, constitution or other document by which the ADI was constituted as a body corporate; and
(b) the ADI does not, within 3 months of the making of the alteration, give to APRA a written statement:
   (i) that sets out particulars of the alteration; and
   (ii) that is verified by a statutory declaration made by a senior officer of the ADI; and
(c) there is no determination in force under section 11 that this subsection does not apply to the ADI.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

(2A) If APRA makes a determination that applies to a particular person, APRA must also give the person written notice of the determination.

(3) A person is guilty of an offence if:

(a) the person does, or fails to do, an act; and
(b) doing, or failing to do, the act results in a contravention of a condition to which a determination under this section is subject (being a determination that is in force and that applies to the person).

Maximum penalty:  200 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

(3A) An offence against subsection (3) is an indictable offence.

(3B) If a person does or fails to do an act in circumstances that give rise to the person committing an offence against subsection (3), the person is guilty of an offence against that subsection in respect of:

Division 1AA—Authority to be a NOHC of an ADI

11AA Authority to be a NOHC

(1) A body corporate may apply in writing to APRA for an authority under this section. The authority operates as an authority in relation to the body corporate and any ADIs that are subsidiaries of the body corporate from time to time.

Note 1: The body corporate may want the authority:
(a) because APRA refuses or may refuse to grant a subsidiary of the body corporate a section 9 authority unless the body corporate holds a NOHC authority (see subsection 9(3A)); or
(b) for a purpose connected with the Financial Sector (Shareholdings) Act 1998.

Note 2: The body corporate may also need to consider the implications of the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 and the Financial Sector (Shareholdings) Act 1998.

(2) APRA may grant the authority if it considers it is appropriate to do so.

Note: For APRA’s power to revoke the authority, see section 11AB.

(3) APRA may, at any time, by notice in writing given to the body corporate:
(a) impose conditions, or additional conditions, on the authority; and

(b) doing, or failing to do, the act results in a contravention of a condition of the authority; and
(c) there is no determination in force under section 11 that this subsection does not apply to the body corporate.

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

(5A) An offence against subsection (5) is an indictable offence.

(5B) If the body corporate does or fails to do an act in circumstances that give rise to the body corporate committing an offence against subsection (5), the body corporate is guilty of an offence against that subsection in respect of:

(a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
(b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the body corporate committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

(6) If APRA:

(a) grants an authority under subsection (2); or
(b) imposes, varies or revokes conditions under subsection (3);

APRA must cause notice of that action to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of that action to be published in any other way that it considers appropriate.

(7) A failure to comply with subsection (6) does not affect the validity of the action concerned.

(8) Part VI applies to the following decisions under this section:

11AB Revocation of authority

(1) APRA must revoke a NOHC authority granted to a body corporate if:

(a) the body corporate, by notice in writing to APRA, requests the revocation of the authority; and
(2) APRA may revoke a NOHC authority granted to a body corporate if APRA is satisfied that:

(a) the body corporate has failed to comply with:
   (i) a requirement of this Act or the regulations or the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001; or
   (ii) a direction under Division 1BA; or
   (iii) a condition of its NOHC authority; or

(b) the body corporate has ceased to be a NOHC of any ADI or ADIs; or

(c) it would be contrary to the national interest for the authority to remain in force; or

(ca) it would be contrary to financial system stability in Australia for the authority to remain in force; or

(d) it would be contrary to the interests of depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the body corporate for the authority to remain in force; or

(e) the body corporate has failed to pay:
   (i) an amount of levy or late penalty to which the Financial Institutions Supervisory Levies Collection Act 1998 applies; or
   (ii) an amount of charge fixed under section 51 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.

The procedures to be undergone before a revocation under this subsection are set out in subsection (3). Those procedures apply unless APRA determines under subsection (4) that they are not to apply.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), APRA must not, under subsection (2), revoke a body corporate’s NOHC authority unless:

(a) APRA has given the body corporate a notice in writing advising the body corporate:

(b) APRA is satisfied that revocation of the authority:
   (i) would not be contrary to the national interest; and
   (ii) would not be contrary to the interests of depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the body corporate.
(i) that APRA is considering revoking the authority for the reasons specified in the notice; and
(ii) that the body corporate may make submissions to APRA, in accordance with the notice, about the possible revocation; and
(iii) of the date by which any submissions must be made (being a date at least 90 days after the giving of the notice); and
(b) APRA has considered any submissions that were made by the body corporate by the specified date.

(4) APRA may determine that the procedures in subsection (3) do not apply if APRA is satisfied that following those procedures could result in a delay in revocation that would be:
(a) contrary to the national interest; or
(b) contrary to the interests of depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the body corporate.

(5) A revocation of a body corporate’s NOHC authority under subsection (1) or (2) must be in writing, and APRA must give the body corporate written notice of the revocation of the authority.

(6) If APRA revokes a body corporate’s NOHC authority under subsection (1) or (2), APRA must cause notice of the revocation to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of the revocation to be published in any other way it considers appropriate.

(7) A failure to comply with subsection (5) (so far as it requires a body corporate to be given written notice of a revocation) or with subsection (6) does not affect the validity of a revocation.

(8) Part VI applies to the following decisions under this section:
(a) a decision to refuse to revoke a NOHC authority granted to a body corporate;
(b) a decision to revoke a NOHC authority granted to a body corporate, unless APRA has determined, under subsection (4), that the procedures in subsection (3) do not apply.

11AC  Bodies that cease to exist or change their names

(1) If APRA is satisfied that a body corporate that has been granted a NOHC authority:
   (a) has ceased to exist; or
   (b) has changed its name;
   APRA must cause notice of that fact to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of that fact to be published in any other way it thinks appropriate.

(2) If the body corporate has ceased to exist, any NOHC authority granted to the body corporate that is still in force is taken to be revoked on publication of the notice in the Gazette.

11AD  Publication of list of NOHCs

APRA may, from time to time, publish a list of authorised NOHCs:
   (a) in the Gazette; or
   (b) in such other manner as APRA determines.
Division 1A—Prudential supervision and monitoring of ADIs and authorised NOHCs

11AF  APRA may make prudential standards for ADIs and authorised NOHCs

   (1) APRA may, in writing, determine standards in relation to prudential matters to be complied with by:
       (a) all ADIs; or
       (b) all authorised NOHCs; or
       (c) a specified class of ADIs or authorised NOHCs; or
       (d) one or more specified ADIs or authorised NOHCs.

   (1A) A standard may impose different requirements to be complied with in different situations or in respect of different activities.

   (1AA) Without limiting the prudential matters in relation to which APRA may determine a standard, a standard may require:
       (a) each ADI or authorised NOHC; or
       (b) each ADI or authorised NOHC included in a specified class of ADIs or authorised NOHCs; or
       (c) a specified ADI or authorised NOHC; or
       (d) each of 2 or more specified ADIs or authorised NOHCs; to ensure that its subsidiaries (or particular subsidiaries), or it and its subsidiaries (or particular subsidiaries), collectively satisfy particular requirements in relation to prudential matters.

   (2) A standard may provide for APRA to exercise powers and discretions under the standard, including (but not limited to) discretions to approve, impose, adjust or exclude specific prudential requirements in relation to one or more specified ADIs or authorised NOHCs.

   (3) APRA may, in writing, vary or revoke a standard.

   (3A) A standard referred to in paragraph (1)(d), or an instrument varying or revoking such a standard, has effect:
       (a) from the day on which the standard, variation or revocation is made; or
(b) if the standard, variation or revocation specifies a later day—from that later day.

(4A) If APRA determines or varies a standard referred to in paragraph (1)(d) it must, as soon as practicable, give a copy of the standard, or of the variation, to the ADI or authorised NOHC, or to each ADI or authorised NOHC, to which the standard applies.
Whenever APRA gives a copy of a standard, or of a variation, to an ADI or authorised NOHC, it must also provide a copy to the Treasurer.

(5A) If APRA revokes a standard referred to in paragraph (1)(d) it must, as soon as practicable, give notice of the revocation to the ADI or authorised NOHC, or to each ADI or authorised NOHC, to which the standard applied. Whenever APRA gives a notice of revocation to an ADI or authorised NOHC, it must also provide a copy to the Treasurer.

(7) A failure to comply with subsection (4A) or (5A) does not affect the validity of the action concerned.

(7A) The following instruments made under this section are not legislative instruments:
(a) a standard referred to in paragraph (1)(d);
(b) an instrument varying or revoking a standard referred to in paragraph (1)(d).

(7B) Otherwise, an instrument made under this section is a legislative instrument.

(7C) Part VI applies to the following decisions under this section:
(a) a decision to determine a standard referred to in paragraph (1)(d);
(b) a decision to vary such a standard.

(8) In this section:

Territory means a territory to which this Act extends.

ADIs and authorised NOHCs to observe such requirements in relation to prudential matters as are specified in, or ascertained in accordance with, the regulations.

11B APRA to monitor prudential matters

The functions of APRA include:

(a) the collection and analysis of information in respect of prudential matters relating to ADIs and authorised NOHCs;
(b) the encouragement and promotion of the carrying out by ADIs and authorised NOHCs of sound practices in relation to prudential matters; and
(c) the evaluation of the effectiveness and carrying out of those practices.

Division 1BA—APRA’s power to issue directions

Subdivision A—Directions other than to enforce certified industry support contracts

11CA APRA may give directions in certain circumstances

(1) APRA may give a body corporate that is an ADI or an authorised NOHC a direction of a kind specified in subsection (2) if APRA has reason to believe that:

(a) the body corporate has contravened a provision of:
   (i) this Act; or
   (ii) the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001; or
   (iii) the First Home Saver Accounts Act 2008; or

(b) the body corporate has contravened a prudential requirement regulation or a prudential standard; or

(c) the body corporate is likely to contravene this Act, a prudential requirement regulation, a prudential standard, the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 or the First Home Saver Accounts Act 2008, and such a contravention is likely to give rise to a prudential risk; or

(d) the body corporate has contravened a condition or direction under this Act or the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001; or

(e) the direction is necessary in the interests of:
   (i) if the body corporate is an ADI—depositors of the ADI; or
   (ii) if the body corporate is an authorised NOHC—depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the NOHC; or

(f) the body corporate is, or is about to become, unable to meet its liabilities; or

(g) there is, or there might be, a material risk to the security of the body corporate’s assets; or

(h) there has been, or there might be, a sudden material deterioration in the body corporate’s financial condition; or

(i) the body corporate is conducting its affairs in an improper or financially unsound way; or
(j) the failure to issue a direction would materially prejudice the interests of:

(i) if the body corporate is an ADI—depositors of the ADI; or

(ii) if the body corporate is an authorised NOHC—depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the NOHC; or

(k) the body corporate is conducting its affairs in a way that may cause or promote instability in the Australian financial system.

(1A) The direction must:

(a) be given by notice in writing to the body corporate; and

(b) specify the ground referred to in subsection (1) as a result of which the direction is given.

(2) The kinds of direction that the body corporate may be given are directions to do, or to cause a body corporate that is its subsidiary to do, any one or more of the following:

(a) to comply with the whole or a part of:

(i) this Act; or

(ii) the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001; or

(d) to ensure a director or senior manager of the body corporate does not take part in the management or conduct of the business of the body corporate except as permitted by APRA;

(e) to appoint a person or persons as a director or senior manager of the body corporate for such term as APRA directs;

(f) to remove any auditor of the body corporate from office and appoint another auditor to hold office for such term as APRA directs;
Section 11CA

(g) not to give any financial accommodation to any person;
(h) not to accept the deposit of any amount;
(i) not to borrow any amount;
(j) not to accept any payment on account of share capital, except payments in respect of calls that fell due before the direction was given;
(k) not to repay any amount paid on shares;
(l) not to pay a dividend on any shares;
(m) not to repay any money on deposit or advance;
(n) not to pay or transfer any amount to any person, or create an obligation (contingent or otherwise) to do so;
(o) not to undertake any financial obligation (contingent or otherwise) on behalf of any other person;
(p) anything else as to the way in which the affairs of the body corporate are to be conducted or not conducted.

A direction under paragraph (n) not to pay or transfer any amount does not apply to the payment or transfer of money pursuant to an order of a court or a process of execution.

(2A) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), a direction referred to in a paragraph of that subsection may:

(a) deal with some only of the matters referred to in that paragraph; or
(b) deal with a particular class or particular classes of those matters; or
(c) make different provision with respect to different matters or different classes of matters.

(3) The direction may deal with the time by which, or period during which, it is to be complied with.

(4) The body corporate has power to comply with the direction despite anything in its constitution or any contract or arrangement to which it is a party.

(4A) If the direction requires the body corporate to cause a subsidiary to do, or to refrain from doing, an act or thing:

(a) the body corporate has power to cause the subsidiary to do, or to refrain from doing, the act or thing; and
(b) the subsidiary has power to do, or to refrain from doing, the act or thing;

despite anything in the subsidiary’s constitution or any contract or arrangement to which the subsidiary is a party.

(4B) APRA may, by notice in writing to the body corporate, vary the direction if, at the time of the variation, it considers that the variation is necessary and appropriate.

(5) The direction has effect until APRA revokes it by notice in writing to the body corporate. APRA may revoke the direction if, at the time of revocation, it considers that the direction is no longer necessary or appropriate.

(5A) Part VI applies to a decision to give a direction under subsection (1) as a result of the ground referred to in paragraph (1)(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e).

(6) In this section, director has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001, and the affairs of a body corporate include those set out in section 53 of that Act.

Note 1:  Senior manager is defined in section 5 of this Act.
Note 2:  For further information about directions, see Subdivision C.

Subdivision B—Directions to enforce certified industry support contracts

11CB  APRA may certify an industry support contract

(1) APRA may certify an industry support contract if all of the parties to the contract make a written request to APRA that the contract be certified and APRA considers it appropriate to certify the contract.
The certification must be by notice in writing to the parties to the contract.

(2) Part VI applies to a refusal under this section to certify an industry support contract.

11CC  APRA may direct parties to an industry support contract to comply with the contract

(1) APRA may direct any ADI that is a party to an industry support contract that is certified under section 11CB to carry out, or cease to carry out, specified acts if APRA considers:
Section 11CD

(a) that carrying out, or ceasing to carry out, those acts, is necessary in order for the terms of the contract to be fulfilled; and

(b) that the direction is in the interests of the depositors of one or more of the ADIs that are parties to the contract.

The direction must be by notice in writing to the ADI.

(2) The direction may deal with the time by which, or period during which, it is to be complied with.

(3) The ADI has power to comply with the direction despite anything in its constitution or any contract or arrangement to which it is a party.

(3A) APRA may vary the direction if, at the time of the variation, it considers that the variation is necessary and appropriate.

(4) The direction has effect until:

(a) APRA revokes the direction by notice in writing to the ADI (see subsection (5)); or

(b) APRA revokes the certification of the industry support contract by notice in writing to the ADIs that are parties to it (see subsection (6)).

(5) APRA may revoke the direction if, at the time of the revocation, it considers that the direction is no longer necessary or appropriate.

(6) APRA may revoke the certification of the industry support contract if it considers that it is appropriate to do so for any reason.

(7) Part VI applies to the following decisions made under this section:

(a) a decision to give a direction;

(b) a decision to vary a direction;

(c) a revocation of the certification of an industry support contract.

Subdivision C—General provisions relating to all directions

11CD  Direction not grounds for denial of obligations

(1) This section applies if an ADI, authorised NOHC or subsidiary of an ADI or authorised NOHC is party to a contract, whether the proper law of the contract is Australian law (including the law of a State or Territory) or law of a foreign country (including the law of part of a foreign country).

(1A) The fact that the ADI or authorised NOHC is subject to a direction by APRA under Subdivision A or B does not allow the contract, or a party to the contract, other than the ADI, NOHC or subsidiary, to do any of the following:
(a) deny any obligations under that contract;
(b) accelerate any debt under that contract;
(c) close out any transaction relating to that contract.
This subsection has effect subject to subsections (2) and (3).

(2) If the ADI, NOHC or subsidiary is prevented from fulfilling its obligations under the contract because of a direction under Subdivision A, other than a direction under paragraph 11CA(2)(m), the other party or parties to the contract are, subject to any orders made under subsection (3), relieved from obligations owed to the ADI or authorised NOHC under the contract.

(3) A party to a contract to which subsection (2) applies may apply to the Federal Court of Australia for an order relating to the effect on the contract of a direction under Subdivision A. The order may deal with matters including (but not limited to):
(a) requiring a party to the contract to fulfil an obligation under the contract despite subsection (2);
(b) obliging a party to the contract to take some other action (for example, paying money or transferring property) in view of obligations that were fulfilled under the contract before the direction was made.

The order must not require a person to take action that would contravene the direction, or any other direction under Subdivision A.

11CE Supply of information about issue and revocation of directions

Power to publish notice of directions in Gazette

(3) If the Treasurer or the Reserve Bank requests APRA to provide information about:
   (a) any directions under Subdivision A or B in respect of a particular ADI or authorised NOHC; or

Division 2—Protection of depositors

Subdivision A—General provisions relating to depositor protection

12 APRA to protect depositors

(1) It is the duty of APRA to exercise its powers and functions under this Division for the protection of the depositors of the several ADIs and for the promotion of financial system stability in Australia.

(2) To avoid doubt, section 8A of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 (which deals with trans-Tasman cooperation) applies to the performance of functions and the exercise of powers by APRA under this Division.

13 ADI to supply information to APRA

(a) the ADI considers that it is likely to become unable to meet its obligations, or that it is about to suspend payment; and
Section 13A

(b) the ADI does not immediately inform APRA of the situation.

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

APRA’s power to investigate or appoint an investigator if information etc. not provided

(4) APRA may investigate the affairs of an ADI, or appoint a person to do so, if the ADI fails to comply with a requirement to provide information, books, accounts or documents under this section.

Interpretation

(5) In this section:

officer, in relation to an ADI, has the same meaning as in section 11CG.

13A Consequences of inability or failure of ADI to meet obligations

Appointment of investigator or administrator, or investigation or control by APRA

(1) APRA may investigate the affairs of an ADI, appoint a person to investigate the affairs of an ADI, take control of the ADI’s business or appoint an administrator to take control of the ADI’s business if:

(a) the ADI informs APRA that the ADI considers that it is likely to become unable to meet its obligations or that it is about to suspend payment; or

(b) APRA considers that, in the absence of external support:

(i) the ADI may become unable to meet its obligations; or

(ii) the ADI may suspend payment; or

(iii) it is likely that the ADI will be unable to carry on banking business in Australia consistently with the Part II  Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business
Division 2  Protection of depositors

Section 13A

interests of its depositors and financial system stability in Australia; or
(c) the ADI becomes unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment.

Note: For information about another circumstance in which APRA may take control of the business of an ADI, see section 65.

(1A) The regulations may specify that a particular form of support for an ADI is not to be considered external support for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b).

(2) Throughout this Subdivision and Subdivision B, the term ADI statutory manager is used. It refers to the entity in control of an ADI’s business under this Subdivision. That entity will be either APRA or an administrator of an ADI’s business appointed by APRA.

Priorities for application of assets of ADI in Australia

(3) If an ADI becomes unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment, the assets of the ADI in Australia are to be available to meet the ADI’s liabilities in the following order:

(a) first, the ADI’s liabilities (if any) to APRA because of the rights APRA has against the ADI because of section 16AI;
(b) second, the ADI’s debts (if any) to APRA under section 16AO;
(c) third, the ADI’s deposit liabilities in Australia (other than any such liabilities covered under paragraph (a));
(d) fourth, the ADI’s other liabilities (in the order of their priority apart from this subsection).

Note: Subsection (3) applies whatever other consequences flow from the ADI becoming unable to meet its liabilities or suspending payment (such as investigation of the ADI’s affairs, or control of its business, under this Division, or winding up of the ADI).

ADI’s assets must at least equal its deposit liabilities

(4) An ADI is guilty of an offence if:

(a) it does not hold assets (excluding goodwill) in Australia of a value that is equal to or greater than the total amount of its deposit liabilities in Australia; and
(b) APRA has not authorised the ADI to hold assets of a lesser value.

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

(5) An offence against subsection (4) is an indictable offence.

(6) If the circumstances relating to the asset holdings of an ADI are such that give rise to the ADI committing an offence against subsection (4), the ADI is guilty of an offence against that subsection in respect of:

(a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and

(b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the ADI committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

13B Investigators—ADI must provide information and facilities

(1) An investigator of the affairs of an ADI under section 13 or 13A is entitled to have access to the books, accounts and documents of the ADI, and to require the ADI to give the investigator information or facilities to conduct the investigation.

(1A) An ADI commits an offence if:

(a) the ADI does not give the investigator access to its books, accounts and documents; or

(b) the ADI fails to comply with a requirement made under subsection (1) for the provision of information or facilities.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

Section 13BA

(1B) If the ADI does or fails to do an act in circumstances that give rise to the ADI committing an offence against subsection (1A), the ADI is guilty of an offence against that subsection in respect of:
   (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
   (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the ADI committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

(2) Part 6 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 prohibits certain disclosures of information received by investigators under this Act.

13BA Start of control of ADI’s business by ADI statutory manager

(1) After the decision that an ADI statutory manager will take control of an ADI’s business is made, APRA must give the ADI written notice that the ADI statutory manager will take, or is taking, control of the business.

Note: Subsections 15A(4) and 16A(3) also require APRA to give notice of the taking of control.

(2) An ADI statutory manager takes control of an ADI’s business:
   (a) at the time specified in a notice under this section as the time when the ADI statutory manager takes control of the business (which must not be earlier than the notice is given); or
   (b) if a notice under this section does not specify a time as the time when the ADI statutory manager takes control of the business—at the time the notice is given.

(3) A notice under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

13C ADI statutory managers—termination of control

Conditions necessary for termination of control

(1) If APRA assumes control of an ADI’s business or appoints an administrator of an ADI’s business, APRA must ensure that either it or an administrator of the ADI’s business has control of the ADI’s business until:
Section 13C

(a) the following conditions are satisfied:
   (i) the ADI’s deposit liabilities in Australia have been repaid or APRA is satisfied that suitable provision has been made for their repayment; and
   (ii) APRA considers that it is no longer necessary for it or an administrator to remain in control of the ADI’s business; or

(b) APRA considers that the ADI is insolvent and is unlikely to be returned to solvency within a reasonable time, and APRA has applied for the ADI to be wound up under the Corporations Act 2001 (see section 14F).

A termination of control that is permitted under this section is called an ultimate termination of control.

Note: This provision does not prevent a change, or changes, between control of an ADI’s business by APRA and an administrator or between administrators.

Events to precede termination

(2) Before making an ultimate termination of control by an ADI statutory manager of an ADI’s business, APRA must:
   (a) ensure that directors of the ADI have been appointed or elected under the ADI’s constitution at a meeting called by the ADI statutory manager in accordance with the ADI’s constitution; or
   (b) appoint directors of the ADI by instrument in writing; or
   (c) ensure that a liquidator for the ADI has been appointed.

Power to terminate control

(3) If the requirements in subsections (1) and (2) are satisfied, APRA may by instrument in writing make an ultimate termination of control of an ADI’s business by an ADI statutory manager.

(4) If the ADI statutory manager at the time of the termination is an administrator, the instrument of termination also operates as a termination of the appointment of the administrator. A copy of the instrument must be given to the administrator. However, mere failure to give the copy to the administrator does not affect the termination of the appointment.
Part II   Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business
Division 2   Protection of depositors

Section 14A

Period of director’s appointment

(5) If a director is elected or appointed under subsection (2), the director takes office on the termination of the ADI statutory manager’s control of the ADI’s business. If the director was appointed by APRA, the director holds office until the ADI’s next annual general meeting, subject to any terms and conditions imposed by APRA on the director’s appointment. If the director was appointed or elected under the ADI’s constitution, the constitution governs the appointment.

Note: For further information about what happens when an ADI statutory manager is in control of an ADI’s business, see Subdivision B.

Subdivision B—Provisions dealing with control of an ADI’s business by an ADI statutory manager

14A  ADI statutory manager’s powers and functions

ADI statutory manager’s powers and functions include powers and functions of board

(1) An ADI statutory manager has the powers and functions of the members of the board of directors of the ADI (collectively and individually), including the board’s powers of delegation.

Note: When an ADI statutory manager takes control of the business of an ADI, the directors of the ADI cease to hold office (see section 15).

ADI statutory manager’s power to obtain information

(2) An ADI statutory manager may, for the purposes of this Division, require a person who has, at any time, been an officer of the ADI to give the ADI statutory manager any information relating to the business of the ADI that the ADI statutory manager requires. A requirement to give information may include a requirement to produce books, accounts or documents.

(2A) A person who is or has been an officer of an ADI is guilty of an offence if:

(a) there is an ADI statutory manager in relation to the ADI; and

(b) under subsection (2), the ADI statutory manager requires the person to give information or to produce books, accounts or documents; and
(c) the person fails to comply with the requirement.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: Subsection 4B(2) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine instead of, or in addition to, a term of imprisonment. The maximum fine a court may impose is worked out as provided in that subsection.

Note 3: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the maximum fine worked out as mentioned in Note 2.

(3) An individual is not excused from complying with a requirement under subsection (2) to give information on the ground that doing so would tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty.

(4) If:

(a) before giving information in compliance with a requirement under subsection (2), an individual claims that giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty; and

(b) giving the information might in fact tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual so liable;

the information given in compliance with the requirement is not admissible in evidence against the individual in a criminal proceeding or a proceeding for the imposition of a penalty, other than a proceeding in respect of the falsity of the information.

(4A) Subsections (3) and (4) apply to the production of books, accounts or documents in a corresponding way to the way in which they apply to the giving of information.

ADI statutory manager’s power to sell whole or part of ADI’s business

(5) An ADI statutory manager may sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the ADI’s business. The sale or disposal may occur on any terms and conditions that the ADI statutory manager considers appropriate.

Section 14AA

ADI statutory manager’s powers to alter ADI’s constitution etc.

(5A) An ADI statutory manager may, if the ADI concerned is registered under the Corporations Act 2001, alter the ADI’s constitution, rules or other arrangements for governance if the alteration:

(a) is necessary or convenient for enabling or facilitating the performance of the ADI statutory manager’s functions and duties, or the exercise of the ADI statutory manager’s other powers, under this Division in relation to the ADI; and

(b) promotes:

(i) the protection of depositors of the ADI; and

(ii) financial system stability in Australia.

(5B) An ADI statutory manager may do an act under subsection (5A) despite:

(a) the Corporations Act 2001; and

(b) the ADI’s constitution; and

(c) any contract or arrangement to which the ADI is party; and

(d) any listing rules (as defined in section 761A of the Corporations Act 2001) of a financial market (as defined in that section) in whose official list the ADI is included.

Interpretation

(6) In this section:

officer, in relation to an ADI, has the same meaning as in section 11CG.

14AA ADI statutory manager’s additional powers to facilitate recapitalisation

Powers

(1) An ADI statutory manager of an ADI that is a company that has a share capital and is registered under the Corporations Act 2001 may do one or more of the following acts on terms determined by the ADI statutory manager:

(a) issue shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the company;

(b) cancel shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the company;
Section 14AB

(c) reduce the company’s share capital by cancelling any paid-up share capital that is not represented by available assets;
(d) sell shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the company;
(e) vary or cancel rights or restrictions attached to shares in a class of shares in the company.

Note: Before doing such an act, the ADI statutory manager will usually need to get and consider a report on the fair value of each share or right concerned: see section 14AB.

Giving company members notice of exercise of powers

(2) As soon as practicable after doing an act described in paragraph (1)(a), (b), (c) or (e) or subsection (3), the ADI statutory manager must give written notice to the persons who were members (under section 231 of the Corporations Act 2001) of the company just before the act, identifying the act and explaining its effect on their interests as members.

(3) One of the acts to which subsection (2) relates is the offering of shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the company for sale under paragraph (1)(d).

Exercise of powers despite other laws etc.

(4) An ADI statutory manager may do an act under subsection (1) despite:
   (a) the Corporations Act 2001; and
   (b) the company’s constitution; and
   (c) any contract or arrangement to which the company is party; and
   (d) any listing rules (as defined in section 761A of the Corporations Act 2001) of a financial market (as defined in that section) in whose official list the company is included.

14AB Considering report before acting under section 14AA

Getting and considering report on fair value of shares or rights

(1) Before determining terms for an act under subsection 14AA(1), the ADI statutory manager must:
   (a) obtain a report meeting the requirements in subsection (2) of this section on the fair value of the shares or rights concerned from an expert who is not an associate of the ADI statutory manager, or of the company, under Division 2 of Part 1.2 of the Corporations Act 2001; and
(b) consider the report;
unless APRA determines under subsection (8) that this subsection does not apply in relation to that act relating to those shares or rights.

Content of report

(2) The report must set out:
(a) the amount that is, in the expert’s opinion, the fair value for each share or right concerned; and
(b) the reasons for forming the opinion; and
(c) any relationship between the expert and any of the following persons:
   (i) the ADI statutory manager;
   (ii) a person who is an associate of the ADI statutory manager under Division 2 of Part 1.2 of the Corporations Act 2001;
   (iii) the ADI;
   (iv) a person who is an associate of the ADI under Division 2 of Part 1.2 of the Corporations Act 2001;
including any circumstances in which the expert gives them advice, or acts on their behalf, in the proper performance of the functions attaching to the expert’s professional capacity or business relationship with them; and
(d) any financial or other interest of the expert that could reasonably be regarded as being capable of affecting the expert’s ability to give an unbiased opinion in relation to the matter being reported on.

Determining fair value of shares

(3) In determining for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a) the amount that is, in the expert’s opinion, the fair value for each share concerned, the expert must:
   (a) first, assess the value of the company as a whole, in accordance with the assumptions (if any) notified to the expert by the Minister for the valuation of the company; and
(b) then allocate that value among the classes of shares in the company that either have been issued or that the ADI statutory manager proposes to issue (taking into account the relative financial risk, and voting and distribution rights, of the classes); and
(c) then allocate the value of each class pro rata among the shares in that class that either have been issued or that the ADI statutory manager proposes to issue (without allowing a premium or applying a discount for particular shares in that class).

Assumptions for valuation of company

(4) The Minister may give the expert written notice of assumptions for the valuation of the company. The Minister may, by further written notice given to the expert, revoke, but not vary, notice of the assumptions. A notice under this subsection is not a legislative instrument.

Determining fair value of rights

(5) In determining for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a) the amount that is, in the expert’s opinion, the fair value for each right concerned, the expert must act in accordance with the assumptions (if any) notified to the expert by the Minister for the valuation of the right.

Assumptions for valuation of rights

(6) The Minister may give the expert written notice of assumptions for the valuation of the rights concerned. The Minister may, by further written notice given to the expert, revoke, but not vary, notice of the assumptions. A notice under this subsection is not a legislative instrument.

Contravention does not invalidate act

(7) A contravention of subsection (1), (2), (3), (5) or (9) does not affect the validity of anything done under section 14AA.

Exemption from subsection (1)

(8) APRA may determine in writing that subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an act relating to shares or rights if APRA is satisfied
Part II  Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business

Division 2  Protection of depositors

Section 14AC

that delaying the act to enable compliance with that subsection in relation to the act would detrimentally affect:
(a) depositors with the ADI concerned; and
(b) financial system stability in Australia.

(9) APRA must:
(a) publish a copy of a determination under subsection (8) in the Gazette; and
(b) give a copy of a determination under subsection (8) to the ADI statutory manager concerned (unless that manager is APRA).

(10) A determination made under subsection (8) is not a legislative instrument.

14AC  Act under section 14AA not ground for denying obligation

(1) This section applies if an ADI is party to a contract, whether the proper law of the contract is Australian law (including the law of a State or Territory) or law of a foreign country (including the law of part of a foreign country).

(2) The fact that an ADI statutory manager does an act under subsection 14AA(1) relating to the ADI does not allow the contract, or any other party to the contract, to do any of the following:
(a) deny any obligations under that contract;
(b) accelerate any debt under that contract;
(c) close out any transaction relating to that contract.

14B  Administrator in control—additional powers to recommend action by APRA

Types of recommendation

(1) An administrator of an ADI’s business may make any of the following recommendations to APRA, by instrument in writing given to APRA:
(a) that APRA make a particular direction under Division 1BA in respect of the ADI;
(b) if the administrator considers that the ADI is insolvent and could not be restored to solvency within a reasonable period:
Section 14C

(i) that APRA apply under section 14F to the Federal Court of Australia for an order that the ADI be wound up; or
(ii) that APRA revoke the ADI’s section 9 authority.

Effect of recommendation

(2) If an administrator of an ADI’s business makes a recommendation under this section, APRA must consider the recommendation but is not required to act on it.

14C ADI statutory manager’s liabilities and duties

Liability for loss due to fraud etc.

(1) If an ADI incurs any loss because of any fraud, dishonesty, negligence or wilful failure to comply with this Act by the ADI statutory manager, the ADI statutory manager is liable for the loss.

Other losses

(2) An ADI statutory manager is not liable for a loss that is not a loss incurred because of fraud, dishonesty, negligence or wilful failure to comply with this Act. If the ADI statutory manager is an administrator of the ADI’s business, the administrator must provide details of the loss in a written report to APRA. However, failure to do so does not make the administrator liable for the loss.

Subsections (1) and (2) apply instead of general indemnity provisions

(3) The question whether an ADI statutory manager is liable for a loss is to be determined in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), rather than in accordance with section 70A of this Act or section 58 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.

ADI statutory manager not liable under section 588G of the Corporations Act 2001

(4) An ADI statutory manager is not to be taken to be a director for the purposes of section 588G of the Corporations Act 2001.
Part II  Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business
Division 2  Protection of depositors

Section 14D

(5) Part 6 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 prohibits certain disclosures of information received by ADI statutory managers under this Act.

14D Administrator in control—additional duties

Duty to report to APRA on request

(1) A person who is an administrator of an ADI’s business must give to APRA a written report showing how the control of the ADI’s business is being carried out if APRA requests that such a report be provided to it. The report must be given to APRA within a reasonable time after the request.

Duty to report to APRA on termination of appointment

(2) A person who was an administrator of an ADI’s business must give to APRA a written report showing how the control of the ADI’s business was carried out over the period of the administrator’s appointment if the administrator’s appointment has been terminated. The report must be given to APRA within a reasonable time of the termination.

Duty to follow directions by APRA

(3) APRA may give an administrator of an ADI’s business a direction relating to the control of the ADI’s business, and may alter such a direction. If a direction (including an altered direction) is given to an administrator by APRA, the administrator must:

(a) act in accordance with the direction; or
(b) immediately provide to APRA information relating to the control of the ADI’s business and request APRA to alter the direction.

(4) If an administrator of an ADI’s business requests APRA to alter a direction and APRA considers the request then confirms the direction, the administrator must act in accordance with the direction.
14DAA Administrator in control—additional duties where action may affect financial system stability in Australia

(1) If an administrator of an ADI’s business has reasonable cause to believe that an action that the administrator proposes to take is an action that is likely to have a detrimental effect on financial system stability in Australia, the administrator must:
   (a) notify APRA as soon as practicable; and
   (b) obtain APRA’s written consent before taking the action.

(2) The administrator is not required to comply with subsection (1) if the administrator is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to do so, having regard to urgency or other similar constraint.

(3) The performance of a function or the exercise of a power by an administrator is not invalid merely because of a failure by the administrator to comply with this section.

14DA Administrator in control—additional duties where action may affect financial system stability in New Zealand

(1) If an administrator of an ADI’s business has reasonable cause to believe that an action that the administrator proposes to take is an action that is likely to have a detrimental effect on financial system stability in New Zealand, the administrator must:
   (a) notify APRA as soon as practicable; and
   (b) obtain APRA’s written consent before taking the action.

(2) The administrator is not required to comply with subsection (1) if the administrator is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to do so, having regard to urgency or other similar constraint.

(3) The performance of a function or the exercise of a power by an administrator is not invalid merely because of a failure by the administrator to comply with this section.

(4) If APRA receives a notice under paragraph (1)(a), it must provide details of the notice to every prescribed New Zealand authority that APRA considers to be relevant in the circumstances before granting written consent to the administrator.
Section 14E

(5) APRA is not required to comply with subsection (4) if APRA is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to do so, having regard to urgency or other similar constraint.

(6) The performance of a function or the exercise of a power by APRA is not invalid merely because of a failure by APRA to comply with this section.

(7) An administrator of an ADI’s business may consult a prescribed New Zealand authority about whether an action the administrator proposes to take is likely to have a detrimental effect on financial system stability in New Zealand.

14E Termination of administrator’s appointment

(1) If an administrator of an ADI’s business contravenes a requirement of this Division, APRA may terminate the administrator’s appointment.

(2) The terms and conditions of the administrator’s appointment may provide for termination in circumstances in addition to those mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) This section has effect subject to section 13C.

14F APRA’s powers to apply for ADI to be wound up

Power to apply for ADI to be wound up

(1) APRA may apply to the Federal Court of Australia for an order that an ADI be wound up if:
   (a) an ADI statutory manager is in control of the ADI’s business; and
   (b) APRA considers that the ADI is insolvent and could not be restored to solvency within a reasonable period.

(2) The winding up of the ADI is to be conducted in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 under which the ADI is incorporated or is taken to be incorporated.

Notifying Minister of application

(3) If APRA makes an application under subsection (1), APRA must inform the Minister of the application as soon as possible.
Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business  Part II
Protection of depositors  Division 2

Section 15

Note: Once informed, the Minister may choose to apply Subdivision C of Division 2AA in relation to the ADI so some depositors can receive payments earlier than they would in the winding up of the ADI.

15 Effect on directors of ADI statutory manager taking control of an ADI’s business

(1) The directors of an ADI cease to hold office when an ADI statutory manager takes control of the ADI’s business.

Note: For the definition of director, see subsection (4).

(2) A director of an ADI must not be appointed or elected while an ADI statutory manager is in control of the ADI’s business unless the appointment is made under subsection 13C(2).

(3) If a person who ceased to hold office under subsection (1), or a purported director of the ADI appointed or elected in contravention of subsection (2), purports to act in relation to the ADI’s business while an ADI statutory manager has control of the ADI’s business, those acts are invalid and of no effect.

(4) For the purposes of this section, director has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

15A Effect on external administrator of ADI statutory manager taking control of an ADI’s business

(1) The appointment of an external administrator of an ADI is terminated when an ADI statutory manager takes control of the ADI’s business.

Note: For the definition of external administrator, see subsection (5).

(2) An external administrator of an ADI must not be appointed while an ADI statutory manager is in control of the ADI’s business unless APRA approves the appointment.

(3) If a person who ceased to be the external administrator of an ADI under subsection (1), or a purported external administrator of the ADI appointed in contravention of subsection (2), purports to act in relation to the ADI’s business while an ADI statutory manager has control of the ADI’s business, those acts are invalid and of no effect.
Part II  Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business
Division 2  Protection of depositors

Section 15B

(4) APRA must inform the external administrator of an ADI that an ADI statutory manager will take control of the ADI’s business as soon as possible after the decision that an ADI statutory manager will take control of the ADI’s business is made. However, failure to inform the external administrator does not affect the operation of this section.

15B  Effect on legal proceedings of ADI statutory manager taking control of an ADI’s business

(1) A person cannot begin or continue a proceeding in a court against an ADI while an ADI statutory manager is in control of the ADI’s business unless:
   (a) the court grants leave on the ground that the person would be caused hardship if leave were not granted; or
   (b) APRA consents to the proceedings beginning or continuing.

(1A) Subsection (1) does not apply to a proceeding in respect of an offence or a contravention of a provision of a law for which a pecuniary penalty (however described) may be imposed.

(2) A person intending to apply for leave of the court under paragraph (1)(a) must give APRA at least 10 days notice of the intention to apply. APRA may apply to the court to be joined as a party to the proceedings for leave.

(3) In this section, a reference to a proceeding against an ADI includes a reference to a cross-claim or third party claim against an ADI.

15C  ADI statutory manager being in control not grounds for denial of obligations

(1) This section applies if an ADI is party to a contract, whether the proper law of the contract is Australian law (including the law of a State or Territory) or law of a foreign country (including the law of part of a foreign country).

(2) The fact that an ADI statutory manager is in control of the ADI’s business does not allow the contract, or a party to the contract, to do any of the following:
   (a) deny any obligations under that contract;
   (b) accelerate any debt under that contract;

54  Banking Act 1959
Section 15D

(c) close out any transaction relating to that contract.

15D Continued application of other provisions

Neither the appointment of an administrator of an ADI’s business under this Division nor the fact that an ADI statutory manager is in control of an ADI’s business under this Division affects:

(a) the continued operation of other provisions of this Act or the operation of the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 in relation to the ADI; or

(b) the obligation of the ADI to comply with those other provisions and that Act.

16 Costs of statutory management

(1) APRA’s costs (including costs in the nature of remuneration and expenses) of being in control of an ADI’s business, or of having an administrator in control of an ADI’s business, are payable from the ADI’s funds and are a debt due to APRA.

(2) Despite anything contained in any law relating to the winding-up of companies, but subject to subsection 13A(3), debts due to APRA by an ADI under subsection (1) have priority in a winding-up of the ADI over all other unsecured debts.

16A APRA must report to Treasurer and publish information about statutory management

Reports to the Treasurer

(1) If the Treasurer requests APRA to give him or her a written report concerning the activities of ADI statutory managers in respect of specified ADIs or in respect of a specified period, APRA must give the Treasurer such a written report within a reasonable time after the Treasurer requests it.

(2) If an ADI statutory manager takes control of an ADI’s business during a financial year, or if there is an ultimate termination of control during a financial year, APRA must give the Treasurer a written report within a reasonable time after the end of the financial year concerning activities of all ADI statutory managers.
Part II  Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business
Division 2  Protection of depositors

Section 16AA

and each ultimate termination of control that occurred during that financial year.

Requirement to publish notices in Gazette

(3) If APRA:
(a) takes control of an ADI’s business; or
(b) appoints an administrator of an ADI’s business; or
(c) makes an ultimate termination of control in respect of an ADI’s business;

APRA must publish notice of that fact in the Gazette. However, mere failure to publish such a notice does not affect the validity of the act.

16AA  Exceptions to Part IV of the Trade Practices Act 1974

For the purposes of subsection 51(1) of the Trade Practices Act 1974, the following things are specified and specifically authorised:

(a) the acquisition of assets in a sale or disposal of the whole or part of the business of an ADI under this Division by an ADI statutory manager in control of the ADI’s business (whether the assets are shares in another body corporate or other assets);
(b) the acquisition of shares in an ADI as a direct result of:
   (i) the issue or sale of the shares under this Division by an ADI statutory manager in control of the ADI’s business; or
   (ii) the exercise of a right to acquire shares that was issued or sold under this Division by an ADI statutory manager in control of the ADI’s business.
Division 2AA—Financial claims scheme for account-holders with insolvent ADIs

Subdivision A—Preliminary

16AB  Purpose of this Division

The main purpose of this Division is to provide for a scheme that:

(a) allows the Minister to make a declaration about an ADI that APRA has sought to have wound up for insolvency; and

(b) entitles account-holders who have certain protected accounts with a declared ADI to be paid certain amounts to maintain the account-holders’ liquidity before they would receive payment in a winding up of the ADI; and

(c) substitutes APRA for those account-holders as a creditor of the declared ADI to the extent of the entitlements.

16AC  APRA’s functions relating to this Division

APRA’s functions include:

(a) meeting entitlements under Subdivision C; and

(b) preparing, and assisting the Minister to prepare, for the application of that Subdivision in relation to ADIs; and

(c) meeting APRA’s other obligations under this Division and the regulations made for the purposes of this Division.

Subdivision B—Declaration of ADI

16AD  Declaration that Subdivision C applies in relation to ADI

(1) The Minister may declare that Subdivision C applies in relation to a specified ADI if APRA has applied under section 14F for the ADI to be wound up.

Note: The Minister cannot make a declaration relating to a foreign ADI because APRA cannot apply for a foreign ADI to be wound up: see section 11E.
Declaration to specify amount for meeting entitlements

(2) The declaration must also specify the amount (if any) that is to be credited to the Financial Claims Scheme Special Account in connection with the application of Subdivision C in relation to the declared ADI. If APRA’s application under section 14F was made on or after 12 October 2011, the amount must not be more than $20,000,000,000.

Declaration to specify amount for administration

(3) The declaration must also specify the amount (if any) that is to be credited to the APRA Special Account in connection with the administration of this Division in relation to the declared ADI. The amount must not be more than $100,000,000.

Amendment of specification of amounts

(4) The Minister may amend a declaration made under subsection (1), but only to change the specification of an amount under subsection (2) or (3), within the limit set in that subsection.

Declaration cannot be revoked

(5) The Minister cannot revoke a declaration made under subsection (1).

Declaration or amendment not disallowable or subject to expiry

(6) A declaration made under subsection (1), or an amendment of the declaration, is a legislative instrument, but neither section 42 (disallowance) nor Part 6 (sunsetting) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 applies to the declaration or amendment.

Effect of declaration or amendment

(7) The declaration or amendment:
   (a) takes effect from the time it is made, despite subsections 12(1) and (2) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003; and
   (b) has effect according to its terms.
Declaration not to specify ADI by reference to class

(8) Subsection 13(3) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 does not apply to a declaration under subsection (1) specifying an ADI.

Note: This ensures that a declaration must specify an ADI individually, and cannot specify it by reference to a class of ADIs.

16AE Advice and information for decision on making declaration

(1) The Minister may give APRA, ASIC or the Reserve Bank a written request for advice or information about a matter relevant to making a decision about making a declaration under section 16AD (including a matter relating to the affairs of an ADI).

(2) As soon as reasonably practicable after being given the request, APRA, ASIC or the Reserve Bank must give the Minister the advice or information about the matter.

(3) In making the decision, the Minister must take into account the advice and information (if any) that he or she has been given before making the decision. This does not limit what the Minister may take into account in making the decision.

Subdivision C—Payment of account-holders with declared ADI

16AF Payment of account-holders with declared ADI

(1) An account-holder who has a protected account with a net credit balance with a declared ADI at the declaration time is entitled to be paid by APRA an amount equal to the sum of:

(a) that balance; and

(b) the interest (if any) accrued by, but not credited to, the account-holder in connection with the protected account before the declaration time; increased or decreased in accordance with the regulations to take account of clearance, within the period prescribed by the regulations, of transactions connected with the protected account and entered into before the declaration time.

Joint protected accounts

(2) If the account mentioned in subsection (1) is held jointly by 2 or more account-holders with the declared ADI, that subsection entitles each of the account-holders to an equal share of the amount to which one of those account-holders would be entitled if it alone had the account with the declared ADI.

16AG Limit on payments to account-holder with declared ADI

(1) Despite section 16AF, an account-holder is not entitled under that section to be paid, in connection with the protected account or protected accounts the account-holder has with a particular declared ADI at a particular time, one or more amounts totalling more than the limit prescribed by, or worked out under, the regulations.

(2) The regulations may prescribe, or provide for working out, different limits for the purposes of subsection (1) relating to account-holders in different classes.

(3) Despite section 16AF, if:
   (a) the account-holder has 2 or more protected accounts with the declared ADI at that time; and
   (b) subsection (1) of this section reduces the total amount to which the account-holder would otherwise be entitled under section 16AF in connection with those protected accounts;

   APRA may determine in writing, for each of the protected accounts, the amount (if any) of the entitlement under that section connected with the protected account (so that the total of the entitlements equals the limit prescribed by, or worked out under, the regulations for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section).

Note: Amounts may be determined by reference to a class, or more than one class, of accounts: see subsection 46(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

(4) In making the determination, the desirability of the account-holder receiving its entitlements as early as possible is to be taken into account. This does not limit the matters that may be taken into account in making a determination.

16AH Payment

Various ways of meeting entitlement

(1) An account-holder’s entitlement under this Subdivision to be paid an amount may be met:
(a) by paying the amount to the account-holder as a single amount or in instalments determined by APRA; or
(b) by applying the amount, as a single amount or in instalments determined by APRA, for the account-holder’s benefit, by establishing an account with an ADI on behalf of the account-holder or in another way; or
(c) by paying part of the amount to the account-holder and applying the rest of the amount for the account-holder’s benefit.

(2) The regulations may make provision for or in relation to the ways in which account-holders’ entitlements under this Subdivision to be paid amounts may be met.

Establishment of account by APRA for meeting entitlement

(3) APRA may establish, on behalf of an account-holder who has an entitlement under this Subdivision, an account with an ADI (except a declared ADI) for the purposes of wholly or partly meeting the entitlement.

(4) Subsection (3) has effect:
(a) whether or not the account-holder consents to the establishment of the account; and
(b) despite any other law of the Commonwealth relating to the establishment of such an account.

(5) If an account-holder has an entitlement under this Subdivision connected with a protected account of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection, APRA must establish an account of the same kind on behalf of the account-holder for the purposes of wholly or partly meeting the entitlement.

Act to meet entitlement is not provision of designated service

(6) An act done by any of the following persons for the purposes of meeting an account-holder’s entitlement under this Subdivision is taken, for the purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006, not to be the provision of a designated service by the person:
(a) APRA;
(b) the Reserve Bank.
Part II  Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business
Division 2AA  Financial claims scheme for account-holders with insolvent ADIs

Section 16AI

Note: One effect of subsection (6) is that the person’s act does not make the person a reporting entity for the purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006.

Exemption from section 32 of Anti-Money Laundering Act

(7) Section 32 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 does not apply to a designated service described in item 1 of the table in subsection 6(2) of that Act provided by an ADI as a result of the exercise of APRA’s power under subsection (3) of this section (whether or not subsection (5) required APRA to exercise that power).

16AI  Substitution of APRA for account-holder as ADI’s creditor

(1) When an ADI becomes a declared ADI, then, by force of this subsection, the right of an account-holder who has a protected account with the ADI to be paid an amount by the ADI in connection with the account:
   (a) is reduced to the extent of the account-holder’s entitlement under this Subdivision connected with the account; and
   (b) to the extent of the reduction, becomes a right of APRA.

(2) APRA may exercise or assign a right it has under paragraph (1)(b).

Note: Under section 11 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998, APRA’s property is generally held on behalf of the Commonwealth.

Subdivision D—Administration

16AJ  Requiring assistance

APRA may, by written notice given to any of the following persons, require the person to give APRA such reasonable assistance in the performance of its functions, and the exercise of its powers, under this Division as is specified:
   (a) an ADI (whether or not it is a declared ADI);
   (b) an administrator appointed under subsection 13A(1) to take control of an ADI’s business;
   (c) a liquidator (including a provisional liquidator) appointed in connection with the winding up, or proposed winding up, of an ADI.
Note: APRA may amend or vary the requirement in writing: see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

16AK Obtaining information relevant to determining and paying entitlements

(1) APRA may, by written notice given to:
   (a) an ADI (whether or not it is a declared ADI); or
   (b) an administrator appointed under subsection 13A(1) to take control of an ADI’s business; or
   (c) a liquidator (including a provisional liquidator) appointed in connection with the winding up, or proposed winding up, of an ADI;
require the ADI, administrator or liquidator to give a specified person specified information about an account-holder relevant to one or more of the actions described in subsection (4) in a specified way within a reasonable specified time for the person to use in taking one or more of those actions.

Note: APRA may amend or vary the requirement in writing: see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

(2) The person specified in the requirement must be one of the following:
   (a) APRA;
   (b) an APRA member whose duties relate to an action described in subsection (4);
   (c) an APRA staff member whose duties relate to an action described in subsection (4);
   (d) a person to whom APRA has delegated a power or function under this Division that relates to an action described in subsection (4);
   (e) a person who is an officer or employee of a person described in paragraph (d) and whose duties relate to an action described in subsection (4).

(3) The information specified in the requirement may be or include either or both of the following:
   (a) personal information about the account-holder (if he or she is an individual);
   (b) the tax file number (as defined in section 202A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) of the account-holder.
Part II Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business

Division 2AA Financial claims scheme for account-holders with insolvent ADIs

Section 16AL

This does not limit the information that may be specified in the requirement.

(4) The actions are as follows:
   (a) identifying an account-holder who may have an entitlement under Subdivision C;
   (b) determining whether an account-holder has an entitlement under Subdivision C;
   (c) determining the amount of an entitlement under Subdivision C;
   (d) meeting an entitlement under Subdivision C;
   (e) establishing an account under section 16AH on behalf of an account-holder with an entitlement under Subdivision C;
   (f) making a disclosure required by section 16AT in connection with the establishment of an account under section 16AH by APRA on behalf of an account-holder with an entitlement under Subdivision C;
   (g) assessing whether and how information could be provided by an ADI (or a liquidator of the ADI, if one is appointed) to enable the actions described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) to be taken if the ADI were to become a declared ADI.

(5) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a foreign ADI.

(6) This section does not limit section 16AJ.

16AL Enforcing requirement for assistance or information

Requirement made of ADI—civil penalty

(1) An ADI must comply with a requirement made of it under section 16AJ or subsection 16AK(1).

Civil penalty: 10,000 penalty units.

Requirement made of ADI—offence

(2) An ADI commits an offence if:
   (a) it does, or fails to do, an act; and
(b) the doing of the act, or the failure to do the act, results in a contravention of a requirement made of the ADI under section 16AJ or subsection 16AK(1).

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

(3) An offence against subsection (2) is an indictable offence.

Note: Section 4K (Continuing and multiple offences) of the Crimes Act 1914 applies to an offence against subsection (2) relating to subsection 16AK(1), so an ADI commits an offence for each day it does not comply with a requirement under that subsection (to give information within a particular time).

Requirement made of ADI—offence by officer

(4) An officer (as defined in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001) of an ADI commits an offence if:

(a) the officer fails to take reasonable steps to ensure that the ADI complies with a requirement made of it under section 16AJ or subsection 16AK(1); and

(b) the officer’s duties include ensuring that the ADI complies with the requirement.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to an officer who is a liquidator (including a provisional liquidator) of the ADI.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (5): see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

(6) If an officer of an ADI fails to take reasonable steps to ensure that the ADI complies with a requirement made of it under subsection 16AK(1) in circumstances that give rise to the officer committing an offence against subsection (4) of this section, the officer commits an offence against that subsection in respect of:

(a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and

(b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the officer committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection does not affect the application of section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 to other offences against this Act (including subsection (2)) or the regulations.

Section 16AM

Liquidator to comply with requirement made of liquidator

(7) A liquidator (including a provisional liquidator) must comply with a requirement made of the liquidator under section 16AJ or subsection 16AK(1).

Note: Action may be taken under the Corporations Act 2001 against a liquidator who does not comply with such a requirement.

16AM Recovery of overpayments

The regulations may make provision for and in relation to the recovery by APRA of the excess of an amount paid to, or applied for the benefit of, an account-holder purportedly to meet an entitlement of the account-holder under Subdivision C over the account-holder’s entitlement (if any) under that Subdivision.

16AN APRA may delegate functions and powers under this Division

(1) APRA may, by writing under its seal, delegate any or all of APRA’s functions and powers under this Division to a person.

(2) In performing or exercising functions or powers delegated under subsection (1), the delegate must comply with any directions given by APRA.

(3) This section does not limit section 15 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.

Note: Section 15 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998:

(a) makes the agreement of the Chair of ASIC a condition for a delegation to an ASIC member or an ASIC staff member; and

(b) makes the agreement of the Governor of the Reserve Bank a condition for a delegation to the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Reserve Bank or to an officer of the Reserve Bank Service.

16AO APRA’s costs of administration

(1) The costs incurred by APRA in relation to the exercise of its powers and the performance of its functions under this Division (whether by APRA or by a delegate) relating to a declared ADI are a debt due by the declared ADI to APRA.

66  Banking Act 1959
Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business  Part II
Financial claims scheme for account-holders with insolvent ADIs  Division 2AA

Section 16AP

(2) The debt is admissible to proof against the declared ADI in the winding up of the ADI.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the amounts of entitlements under Subdivision C.

Note: APRA may be able to recover those amounts through the rights it acquires under section 16AI from the account-holder.

Subdivision E—Account-holder’s claims against ADI remaining after entitlement

16AP When this Subdivision applies

This Subdivision applies if:

(a) a court orders the winding up of an ADI that becomes a declared ADI before, on or after the order is made; and
(b) on making the order, the court appoints a liquidator of the ADI; and
(c) an account-holder has an entitlement under Subdivision C connected with a protected account the account-holder has with the ADI; and
(d) after the operation of section 16AI of this Act, section 553C of the Corporations Act 2001 and, if relevant, section 554B of that Act, there is still a debt payable by the ADI to the account-holder, or a claim of the account-holder against the ADI, based on a right to be paid an amount by the ADI in connection with the protected account.

16AQ Liquidator may admit debt or claim without normal proof

(1) The liquidator may admit the debt or claim even if it has not been proved by the account-holder in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 and regulations made under that Act.

(2) However, the liquidator must act in accordance with the regulations (if any) made for the purposes of this subsection in deciding whether to admit or reject the debt or claim, and the extent to which to admit or reject the debt or claim.

Note: This section overrides any requirements imposed on the liquidator by the Corporations Act 2001 and regulations under that Act in relation to proof of the debt or claim and a decision whether to admit or reject the debt or claim: see section 70B of this Act.

Banking Act 1959  67

Part II Provisions relating to the carrying on of banking business
Division 2AA Financial claims scheme for account-holders with insolvent ADIs

Section 16AR

16AR How liquidator must pay distributions to account-holder

(1) This section applies if, in the winding up of the ADI, a distribution attributable to the protected account is payable to the account-holder and the protected account was of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

(2) The liquidator must pay the distribution (so far as it is attributable to the account) into an account of the same kind that is held by the account-holder with an ADI (except a declared ADI).

(3) If the account-holder does not hold an account of that kind, the liquidator must establish, on behalf of the account-holder, an account of that kind with an ADI (except a declared ADI) for the payment of the distribution in accordance with subsection (2).

(4) Subsection (3) empowers the liquidator to establish the account:
   (a) whether or not the account-holder consents to the establishment of the account; and
   (b) despite any other law of the Commonwealth relating to the establishment of such an account.

16AS APRA may disclose relevant personal information to liquidator

Information about account-holder’s entitlement

(1) APRA may disclose to the liquidator personal information about the fact that the account-holder has an entitlement under Subdivision C, and the amount of that entitlement, for the purpose of enabling the liquidator to decide whether to admit or reject the debt or claim in whole or in part.

Information relevant to section 16AR

(2) APRA may disclose to the liquidator personal information about the account-holder for the purpose of enabling the liquidator to determine whether subsection 16AR(2) or (3) applies and, if it does, for complying with it.

68 Banking Act 1959
Subdivision F—Disclosure of information relating to new accounts

16AT  APRA or liquidator to disclose information to ADI

(1) This section applies if, on behalf of an account-holder with an entitlement under Subdivision C:
   (a) APRA establishes an account with an ADI under section 16AH; or
   (b) a liquidator establishes an account with an ADI under section 16AR.

(2) In the circumstances prescribed by the regulations, whichever of APRA and the liquidator established the account must disclose to the ADI the information (if any) that:
   (a) is connected with the establishment of the account; and
   (b) is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

(3) The regulations may prescribe different information in relation to different circumstances for disclosure.

(4) The information prescribed by the regulations may be personal information about the account-holder (if he or she is an individual). This does not limit the information that may be prescribed by the regulations.

17  APRA may remove an auditor of an ADI

(1) This section applies to a person who is an auditor of an ADI.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the operation of Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914 (which includes provisions that, in certain circumstances, relieve persons from the requirement to disclose spent convictions and require persons aware of such convictions to disregard them).

21 Court power of disqualification

   (b) otherwise—an order that the person is not a disqualified person.

(2) If the Court revokes an order under paragraph (1)(a) or makes an order under paragraph (1)(b), then, despite section 20, the person is not a disqualified person.

(3) At least 21 days before commencing the proceedings, written notice of the application must be lodged:

   (b) does not meet one or more of the criteria for fitness and propriety set out in the prudential standards.

(3) Before directing an ADI or authorised NOHC to remove a person, APRA must give written notice to:
   (a) the person; and
   (b) the ADI or NOHC;
   giving each of them a reasonable opportunity to make submissions on the matter.

(4) If a submission is made to APRA in response to the notice, APRA must have regard to the submission and may discuss any matter contained in the submission with such persons as it considers appropriate for the purpose of assessing the truth of the matter.

(5) A notice given under subsection (3) to a person, an ADI or an authorised NOHC must state that any submissions made in response to the notice may be discussed by APRA with other persons as mentioned in subsection (4).

(6) A direction takes effect on the day specified in it, which must be not earlier than 7 days after it is signed.

Division 4—Mobilization of foreign currency

32 Interpretation

In this Division:

excess receipts of foreign currency, in relation to an ADI as at a date, means the amount by which the amount of that ADI’s surplus foreign currency as at that date exceeds the amount (if any) of its surplus foreign currency as at the commencement of this Part.

sterling means currency that is legal tender in the United Kingdom.

surplus foreign currency, in relation to an ADI, means the amount by which the amount of that ADI’s assets outside Australia attributable to, or acquired by virtue of, its Australian business exceeds the amount of its liabilities outside Australia attributable to, or incurred by virtue of, its Australian business.

33 Transfer of foreign currency to Reserve Bank

(1) The Reserve Bank may, from time to time, by notice in writing, require each ADI to transfer to the Reserve Bank an amount of sterling equivalent to such proportion as is specified in the notice of that ADI’s excess receipts of foreign currency as at the close of business on a date specified in the notice, not being more than 21 days before the date on which the notice is given.

(2) The proportion specified in a notice under subsection (1) shall be the same in respect of each ADI.

(3) Where, as at the close of business on a date specified in a notice under subsection (1), an ADI has not transferred an amount of sterling that it has been required to transfer in pursuance of any previous notice under that subsection, the excess receipts of foreign currency to which that amount of sterling is equivalent shall not, for the purpose of calculating the amount of sterling required to be transferred in pursuance of the first-mentioned notice, be taken into account as part of the excess receipts of foreign currency of that ADI.

(b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the body corporate committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

(6) Nothing in this section is intended to limit the operation of any other provision of this Act.

62 Supply of information

(8) The Treasurer may, by legislative instrument, determine guidelines as to acceptable standards of disclosure of information by an ADI (other than a foreign ADI) to its members in respect of a proposed demutualisation of the ADI.

(9) The Treasurer must consider whether an ADI has complied with the guidelines (if any) in deciding whether to give a consent, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), to the ADI effecting a demutualisation.

(10) In making a determination under subsection (8), the Treasurer must consult with APRA and ASIC.

(12) Subsections (6) to (11) do not limit the generality of the rest of this section. In particular, those subsections do not limit the matters that the Treasurer may take into account in deciding whether to give a consent, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), to an ADI effecting a demutualisation.

64 Conditions on consent to restructure an ADI

(2) In default of compliance by the ADI or NOHC within the specified period with a direction given in pursuance of subsection (1), the Federal Court of Australia may authorize APRA to assume control of, and to carry on, the business of the ADI or NOHC.

(3) The provisions of Subdivision B of Division 2 of Part II have effect, so far as they are applicable, as if they also extended to APRA being in control of the business of the ADI or NOHC under subsection (2) of this section, and as if they covered authorised NOHCs in the same way as they cover ADIs.

(4) Where APRA has assumed control of the business of the ADI or NOHC under subsection (2), APRA shall remain in control of, and shall continue to carry on, the business of the ADI or NOHC until such time as the Federal Court of Australia is satisfied that it is no longer necessary for APRA to remain in control of the business of the ADI or NOHC and authorizes APRA to cease to control the business of the ADI or NOHC.

The Court may grant the injunction on such terms as it thinks appropriate.

(3) The power of the Court to grant an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct may be exercised:
   (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind; and

(5) The power of the Court to grant an injunction requiring a person to do an act or thing may be exercised:

(a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to refuse or fail again, or to continue to refuse or fail, to do that act or thing; and
(b) whether or not the person has previously refused or failed to do that act or thing; and
(c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the person refuses or fails to do that act or thing.

Who may apply for an injunction

(6) The Court may only grant an injunction on the application of:

(a) APRA—in all cases; or
(b) the Treasurer—in the case of a contravention of a condition imposed under section 64; or
(c) ASIC or a member of the ADI—in the case of a contravention of a condition imposed under section 64 that has been imposed in relation to a demutualisation of an ADI.

In this subsection, demutualisation has the same meaning as in section 63.

Consent injunctions

(7) If an application for an injunction under subsection (1) or (4) has been made, the Court may, if the Court thinks it appropriate, grant an injunction by consent of all the parties to the proceedings, whether or not the Court is satisfied that the subsection applies.

Interim injunctions

(8) The Court may grant an interim injunction pending determination of an application under subsection (1).

Variation or discharge of injunctions

(b) protecting financial system stability in Australia.
Section 70C

Specifying amounts to be credited to Special Account

(2) The authorisation must specify the amount (if any) to be credited to the Financial System Stability Special Account, so that the total described in subsection (3) does not exceed by more than $20,000,000,000 the total described in subsection (4).

Note: This ensures that the balance of the Special Account directly attributable to authorisations under this section cannot exceed $20,000,000,000 at any time.

(3) The total described in this subsection is the total of all the amounts specified under subsection (2) in authorisations made under this section (taking account of any amendments of those authorisations).

(4) The total described in this subsection is the total of all the amounts taken under subsection 21(2) of the Financial Management and Accountability Act 1997 to be debited from the Financial System Stability Special Account for expenditure for the purpose described in paragraph 70G(a) of this Act.

Note: That purpose is making a payment under a contract or arrangement whose making was authorised under this section.

Amending specification of amount to be credited

(5) The Minister may amend an authorisation made under this section, but only to change the specification of an amount under subsection (2), within the limit set out in that subsection.

Authorisation cannot be revoked

(6) The Minister cannot revoke an authorisation made under this section.

Authorisation or amendment not disallowable or subject to expiry

(7) An authorisation or amendment made under this section is a legislative instrument, but neither section 42 (disallowance) nor Part 6 (sunsetting) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 applies to the authorisation or amendment.
Part VII  Miscellaneous

(1) Subsection (2) applies if the Minister has determined under section 70C an amount to be credited to the Financial System Stability Special Account.

(2) To avoid doubt, if:
   (a) the amount specified in an authorisation described in paragraph (1)(a) is credited to the Account; and
   (b) the authorisation is later amended so as to increase the amount;
only the increase, and not the whole of the increased amount, is to be credited to the Account as a result of the amendment.

Note: Crediting the whole of the increased amount to the Account would lead to double-counting of the amount specified in the authorisation before the amendment.

70G Purposes of the Account

The purposes of the Account are as follows:
(a) making a payment under a contract or arrangement whose making was authorised under section 70C;
(b) making a payment under a contract or arrangement whose making was authorised under section 131A of the Insurance Act 1973;

Schedule 2—Civil penalties

Note: See section 65B.

Part 1—Contravention of a civil penalty provision

1 Federal Court may order person to pay pecuniary penalty for contravening civil penalty provision

Application for order
(1) Within 6 years of a person contravening a civil penalty provision, APRA may apply, on behalf of the Commonwealth, to the Federal Court of Australia for an order that the person pay the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty.

Court may order person to pay pecuniary penalty
(2) If the Court is satisfied that the person has contravened a civil penalty provision, the Court may order the person to pay to the Commonwealth for each contravention the pecuniary penalty that the Court determines is appropriate (but not more than the relevant amount specified for the provision).

Determining amount of pecuniary penalty
(3) In determining the pecuniary penalty, the Court must have regard to all relevant matters, including:
   (a) the nature and extent of the contravention; and
   (b) the nature and extent of any loss or damage suffered as a result of the contravention; and
   (c) the circumstances in which the contravention took place; and
   (d) whether the person has previously been found by the Court in proceedings under this Act to have engaged in any similar conduct.

Conduct contravening more than one civil penalty provision
(4) If conduct constitutes a contravention of 2 or more civil penalty provisions, proceedings may be instituted under this Act against a person in relation to the contravention of any one or more of those provisions. However, the person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this clause in respect of the same conduct.

2 Contravening a civil penalty provision is not an offence

A contravention of a civil penalty provision is not an offence.

3 Persons involved in contravening civil penalty provision

(1) A person must not:
   (a) aid, abet, counsel or procure a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (b) induce (by threats, promises or otherwise) a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (c) be in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (d) conspire to contravene a civil penalty provision.

(2) This Schedule applies to a person who contravenes subclause (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision as if the person had contravened the provision.

(3) However, if an individual contravenes subclause (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision that can be contravened only by a body corporate, subclause 1(2) applies as if the reference in that subclause to the relevant amount specified for the provision were a reference to \( \frac{1}{5} \) of the relevant amount specified for the provision.

4 Recovery of a pecuniary penalty

If the Federal Court of Australia orders a person to pay a pecuniary penalty:
   (a) the penalty is payable to the Commonwealth; and
   (b) the Commonwealth may enforce the order as if it were a judgment of the Court.

5 Civil evidence and procedure rules for pecuniary penalty orders

The Federal Court of Australia must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order.
Part 2—Civil penalty proceedings and criminal proceedings

6 Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

The Federal Court of Australia must not make a pecuniary penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

7 Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

(1) Proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision are stayed if:
   (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence; and
   (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings for the order are dismissed.

8 Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be started against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a pecuniary penalty order has been made against the person.

9 Evidence given in proceedings for penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

Evidence of information given or evidence of production of documents by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:
   (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order.
Clause 9

against the individual for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and

(b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the contravention.

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order.

Application, saving or transitional provisions

(No. 54, 1998)

Schedule 19

1 Interpretation

In this Part:

amended Act means the Banking Act 1959 as in force immediately after the APRA commencement.

APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority.

APRA commencement means the commencement of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.

old Act means the Banking Act 1959 as in force immediately before the APRA commencement.

2 Treatment of section 9 authorities

(1) This item applies to an authority that, immediately before the APRA commencement, was:
   (a) in force under section 9 of the old Act; or
   (b) deemed by subsection 9(1) of the old Act to be an authority under section 9 of that Act.

(2) The authority is to be taken, after that commencement, to be an authority under subsection 9(3) of the amended Act.

(3) Any conditions to which the authority was subject immediately before the APRA commencement are to be taken, after that commencement, to be conditions imposed under subsection 9(4) of the amended Act.
3 Treatment of undetermined applications for section 9 authorities

An application for an authority under section 9 of the old Act made, but not determined, before the APRA commencement is to be treated, after that commencement, as if it were an application for an authority under subsection 9(3) of the amended Act.

4 Treatment of obligations to publish notices in relation to section 9 authorities

An obligation under section 9 of the old Act to publish notice of a matter in relation to, or to the holder of, an authority, being an obligation that is undischarged as at the APRA commencement, becomes, on that commencement, an obligation that APRA is to discharge.

5 Treatment of bodies covered by State and Territory Financial Institutions Codes

(1) Subject to subitem (2), APRA may, in writing, determine that a specified FIC body, or each body in a specified class of FIC bodies, is taken to be granted an authority under subsection 9(3) of the amended Act on a specified date.

(2) APRA’s power to make a determination under subitem (1) that covers a particular FIC body (whether individually or as a member of a class of bodies) is subject to the following qualifications:

   (a) APRA must not make a determination covering the FIC body unless the Treasurer and the relevant State or Territory Minister have agreed that the body, or a class of bodies that includes the body, should be covered by the amended Act from a specified date; and

   (b) the date specified in the determination as mentioned in subitem (1) must be the specified date referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) The determination may specify conditions to which an authority that is taken to have been granted because of subitem (1) is subject.

(4) The determination has effect accordingly.

(5) The determination is a disallowable instrument for the purposes of section 46A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.
(6) Subsection 9(7) of the amended Act does not apply to:
(a) a grant of an authority that is taken to have occurred under subitem (1); or
(b) the imposition of conditions on an authority under subitem (3).

(7) In this item:

FIC body means a body that is a financial institution for the purposes of any of the Financial Institutions Codes.

Financial Institutions Code means any of the following Codes of a State or Territory:
(a) the Financial Institutions (NSW) Code of New South Wales;
(b) the Financial Institutions (Victoria) Code of Victoria;
(c) the Financial Institutions (Queensland) Code of Queensland;
(d) the Financial Institutions (Western Australia) Code of Western Australia;
(e) the Financial Institutions (South Australia) Code of South Australia;
(f) the Financial Institutions (Tasmania) Code of Tasmania;
(g) the Financial Institutions (ACT) Code of the Australian Capital Territory;
(h) the Financial Institutions (NT) Code of the Northern Territory.

relevant State or Territory Minister, in relation to a body that is a financial institution under the Financial Institutions Code of a particular State or Territory, means the State or Territory Minister with responsibility for the administration of that Financial Institutions Code.

6 Treatment of exemptions under section 11

(1) An order in force immediately before the APRA commencement under section 11 of the old Act continues to have effect after that commencement as if it were an order under subsection 11(1) of the amended Act.

(2) Any conditions to which the order was subject immediately before the APRA commencement are to be taken, after that commencement, to be conditions applying under subsection 11(2) of the amended Act.
Table A

7 Treatment of subsection 11E(2) approvals

An approval by the Governor of the Reserve Bank in force under subsection 11E(2) of the old Act immediately before the APRA commencement is to be taken, after that commencement, to be an approval by APRA under subsection 11E(2) of the amended Act.

8 Treatment of matters under depositor protection provisions

(1) The following provisions apply in relation to matters under provisions of Division 2 of Part II of the old Act (including matters under those provisions as applying for the purpose of subsection 65(3) of the old Act):

(a) an obligation to provide information to the Reserve Bank, or to inform the Reserve Bank of a matter, under a provision of the Division, being an obligation that is undischarged as at the APRA commencement, becomes, on the APRA commencement, an obligation to provide the information to APRA, or to inform APRA of the matter;

(b) an appointment of an investigator under a provision of the Division, being an appointment that is still in force immediately before the APRA commencement, has effect after that commencement as if it were an appointment by APRA under section 13 or 13A of the amended Act;

(c) if the Reserve Bank is, immediately before the APRA commencement, in control of an institution’s business under a provision of the Division, the Reserve Bank is to transfer the control of the institution’s business to APRA, and the provisions of Division 2 of Part II of the amended Act apply in relation to APRA being in control of the institution’s business;

(d) proceedings under subsection 14(6) of the old Act that have not been completed by the APRA commencement lapse;

(e) an obligation on the Reserve Bank under a provision of the Division to publish notice of a matter, being an obligation that is undischarged as at the APRA commencement, becomes, on that commencement, an obligation that APRA is to discharge;
