  (in the wording of Federal Law No. 251-FZ, dated July 23, 2013)
Article 34. The principal objective of the Bank of Russia's monetary policy shall be to protect and ensure stability of the rouble by way of maintaining price stability, including for the creation of conditions for balanced and sustainable economic development.
(Article 34 was introduced by Federal law No. 251-FZ, dated July 23, 2013)

Chapter VII. Monetary Policy

Article 35. The principal tools and methods of the Bank of Russia monetary policy shall be as follows:
1) interest rates on Bank of Russia operations;
2) required reserves;
(point 2 in the wording of Federal Law No. 218-FZ, dated July 21, 2014)
3) open-market operations;
4) refinancing credit institutions;
5) currency interventions;
6) setting targets for money supply growth;
7) direct quantitative restrictions;
8) the issue of bonds on its own behalf;
9) other instruments specified by the Bank of Russia.
(point 9 was introduced by Federal Law No. 251-FZ, dated July 23, 2013)

Article 36. The Bank of Russia shall regulate the total amount of the loans it extends in line with the approved targets for the single state monetary policy.

Article 37. The Bank of Russia may set one or several interest rates on different kinds of operations or pursue an interest rate policy without fixing an interest rate.
The Bank of Russia shall use the interest rate policy to influence market interest rates.

Article 38. The amount of required reserves (the required reserve ratios, the required reserve averaging ratio) and the procedure for credit institutions to comply with rules on required reserves, including the procedure for depositing the required reserves with the Bank of Russia shall be established by the Board of Directors.
The required reserve ratios shall determine the amount of required reserves as a percentage of a credit institution's obligations.

The required reserve ratios may not exceed 20 per cent of a credit institution’s liabilities and may be different for banks with universal licences, banks with basic licences, and non-bank credit institutions. In this case, the required reserve ratios established for banks with universal licences shall be uniform for all banks with universal licences, those established for banks with basic licences shall be uniform for all banks with basic licences, and those established for non-bank credit institutions shall be uniform for all non-bank credit institutions. The required reserve ratios established for banks with basic licences shall not exceed the required reserve ratios established for banks with universal licences.

(part three in the wording of Federal Law No.92-FZ, dated May 21, 2017)

The required reserve ratios may not be changed by more than five points at a time.

The required reserve averaging ratio is a numerical multiplier ranging from 0 to 1 and used to calculate the averaged amount of required reserves. The required reserve averaging ratio may be different for banks with universal licences, banks with basic licences, and non-bank credit institutions. In this case, the ceiling for required reserve averaging ratio established for banks with universal licences shall be uniform for all banks with universal licences, the ceiling for required reserve averaging ratio established for banks with basic licences shall be uniform for all banks with basic licences, and the ceiling for required reserve averaging ratio established for non-bank credit institutions shall be uniform for all non-bank credit institutions.

(part 5 in the wording of Federal Law No.92-FZ, dated May 21, 2017)

The Bank of Russia shall have the right to set the procedure for credit institutions to deposit required reserves with the Bank of Russia and (or) use a correspondent account with the Bank to maintain averaged required reserves calculated on the basis of the required reserve averaging ratio.

Should a credit institution violate a required reserve ratio, the Bank of Russia shall have the right to incontestably write down the amount of underpaid required reserves deposited with the Bank of Russia (underpayments into required reserves) from the credit institution's correspondent account in the Bank of Russia and, should a credit institution fail to comply with required reserve averaging, the amount calculated on the basis of the extent of a failure to comply with required reserve averaging determined as the difference between the required reserve averaging ratios set for a credit institution and actually maintained by it, in an amount and in accordance with a procedure established by the Bank of Russia.

The Bank of Russia shall also have the right to charge the credit institution a penalty by a legal procedure for the non-observance of required reserve in an amount established by the Bank of Russia. This penalty may not exceed a sum calculated on the basis of the Bank of Russia refinancing rate effective on the day of a court ruling, multiplied by two.

No penalty shall be imposed on the required reserves deposited by a credit institution with the Bank of Russia.

After the revocation of a credit institution's banking licence, the required reserves deposited by the credit institution with the Bank of Russia shall be transferred to the credit institution's account and used in accordance with the procedure established by federal laws and Bank of Russia normative acts issued in pursuance of these laws.

When a credit institution is reorganized, the procedure for the conversion of its required reserves that were previously deposited with the Bank of Russia shall be established pursuant to Bank of Russia normative acts.

(Article 38 in the wording of Federal Law No. 218-FZ, dated July 21, 2014)

Article 39. The Bank of Russia open market operations shall signify:

1) the purchase and sale of Treasury bills, government bonds, other government securities, Bank of Russia bonds, as well as the conclusion of repo agreements with these securities;

2) purchase and sale of other securities specified by the Board of Directors, provided that they are listed for organised trades, as well as the conclusion of repo agreements with these securities.

(point 2 in the wording of Federal Law No. 327-FZ, dated November 21, 2011)

When conducting operations with shares on the open market, the Bank of Russia may only conclude repo agreements and sell shares if a counterparty defaults on repo obligations.

(Article 39 in the wording of Federal Law No. 281-FZ, dated November 25, 2009)

The Bank of Russia shall provide the central bank and (or) another supervisory authority of a foreign state with the functions of banking supervision with the said information and (or) documents on condition that the legislation of a foreign state stipulates the level of security (confidentiality) for the Bank of Russia's information and (or) documents at least matching the level of security (confidentiality) for the provision of information and (or) documents envisaged by Russian Federation legislation and, in the event that the relationships for the exchange of information and
(or) documents are regulated by international treaties, the Bank of Russia shall provide such information and (or) documents in compliance with the terms and conditions of these treaties and on condition that the central bank or another supervisory authority of a foreign state with the functions of banking supervision shall not disclose such information and (or) documents to third parties, including law-enforcement agencies, without the Bank of Russia's prior written consent, except for the cases of providing such information to a court of law in criminal case proceedings.
(part three was introduced by Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013, in the wording of Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to provide the central bank and (or) another authority of a foreign state with the functions of resolving the insolvency of parent credit institutions of a banking group (bank holding company) and other associations with the participation of credit institutions with information contained in financial stability recovery plans of credit institutions participating in such banking groups (bank holding companies) and other associations with the participation of credit institutions, except for the data constituting state secrecy.
(part four was introduced by Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)

The Bank of Russia shall provide the information (data) and (or) documents mentioned in this Article to the central bank and (or) another supervisory authority of a foreign state with the functions of banking supervision and (or) another authority of a foreign state with the functions of resolving the insolvency of organisations, on condition that the legislation of a foreign state stipulates the level of security (confidentiality) for the Bank of Russia’s information and (or) documents at least matching the level of security (confidentiality) for the provision of information and
(or) documents envisaged by Russian Federation legislation, and, in the event that the relationships for the exchange of information and (or) documents are regulated by international treaties the Bank of Russia shall provide such information and (or) documents in compliance with the terms and conditions of these treaties and on condition that such information and (or) documents shall not be disclosed to third parties, including law-enforcement agencies, without the Bank of Russia’s prior written consent, except for the cases of providing such information to a court of law in criminal case proceedings.
(part five was introduced by Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)
Article 51. The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to request a foreign financial market regulator to provide it with information and (or) documents, which may be confidential, including those that contain data constituting bank secrecy.

The Bank of Russia shall exchange information and (or) documents, which may be confidential, including those that contain data constituting bank secrecy (hereinafter confidential information), with a foreign financial market regulator pursuant to and in compliance with:

1) the Multilateral Memorandum of Understanding Concerning Consultation and Cooperation and the Exchange of Information of the International Organisation of Securities Commissions, the Multilateral Memorandum of Understanding on Cooperation and Information Exchange of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors;

(point 1 in the wording of Federal Law No. 426-FZ, dated December 30, 2015)

2) an international treaty of the Russian Federation;

3) a bilateral treaty with a foreign financial market regulator envisaging an exchange of information, if the legislation of the corresponding foreign state stipulates the level of security for information provision at least matching the level of information security envisaged by Russian Federation legislation.

As regards confidential information received from a foreign financial market regulator, the Bank of Russia shall be obliged to comply with the requirements for the disclosure of confidential information established by Russian Federation legislation, taking into consideration the procedure stipulated in part two of this Article.

Confidential information received by the Bank of Russia from a foreign financial market regulator may be provided to third parties only with the consent of such a regulator, except for the cases when the said confidential information is provided to a court of law pursuant to a court judgement passed in criminal case proceedings.

Upon receiving a reasoned inquiry from a foreign financial market regulator in accordance with the procedure stipulated by agreements specified in part two of this Article, the Bank of Russia shall send an order to provide such information pursuant to a decision taken by the Financial Supervision Committee. The Bank of Russia order to provide information may not include the purpose of receiving such information.

Pursuant to a decision by the Board of Directors, the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to provide a foreign financial market regulator with confidential information on operations and (or) transactions upon a reasoned inquiry from the foreign financial market regulator in cases stipulated by agreements specified in part two of this Article, and also on persons who performed the said operations and (or) transactions and (or) beneficiaries under these operations and (or) transactions, except for information constituting state secrecy.

The Bank of Russia shall provide such confidential information to a foreign financial market regulator on condition that the legislation of the corresponding foreign state stipulates the level of security for information provision at least matching the level of information security envisaged by Russian Federation legislation, and also on condition that the foreign financial market regulator may not provide confidential information to third parties, including law-enforcement agencies, without the Bank of Russia's prior consent, except for the cases when such confidential information is provided to a court of law pursuant to a court judgment passed in criminal case proceedings.

The non-bank credit institution – central counterparty shall not be subject to the required ratios stipulated by Articles 62 and 621 hereof.

(Article 622 was introduced by Federal Law No. 403-FZ, dated December 29, 2015)

Article 63. This Article has been null and void since January 1, 2007, in accordance with Federal Law No. 60-FZ, dated May 3, 2006.

Article 64. Maximum risk per borrower or a group of related borrowers shall be established for a credit institution as percentages of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution and may not exceed 25 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (excluding banks with basic licences); for a banking group it shall be established as percentages of the own funds (capital) of a banking group and may not exceed 25 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a banking group.

(part one in the wording of Federal Law No. 92-FZ, dated May 1, 2017)

In establishing maximum risk per borrower or a group of related borrowers, the amount of liabilities of a person (persons in a group of related borrowers) to a credit institution (a banking group) and the amount of liabilities to third parties giving rise to the emergence of a credit institution's claims to that person (the persons in a group of related borrowers) shall be taken into account.

For the purposes of this Federal Law, a group of related borrowers shall mean borrowers (legal entities and (or) private individuals) in the case when one of the borrowers controls or exerts material influence on another borrower (other borrowers) or when borrowers are under the control or material influence of a third party (third parties) other than a borrower (borrowers). Control and material influence shall be defined in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards recognised on the territory of the Russian Federation.

For the purposes of this Federal Law, a group of related borrowers of a credit institution (a banking group) shall also include borrowers (legal entities and (or) private individuals) related in such a manner that a deterioration in the economic situation of one person may cause non-fulfilment (improper fulfilment) by another person (other persons) of their obligations to a credit institution (a banking group), in particular, by virtue of the fact that legal entities and (or) private individuals provided directly or through third parties monetary funds, which were received from a credit institution (a banking group) under a loan (credit, deposit) agreement, to another person or a group of persons under a loan (credit, deposit) agreement; the obligations of legal entities and (or) private individuals to a credit institution under a loan (credit, deposit) agreement are fulfilled by one and the same third party other than a person bound to a credit institution (a banking group) under a loan (credit, deposit) agreement.

For banks with basic licences, maximum risk per borrower or a group of related borrowers may not exceed 20 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a bank with a basic licence. Bank of Russia normative acts may define calculation specifics of the maximum risk per borrower or a group of related borrowers for banks with basic licences. (part five was introduced by Federal Law No. 92-FZ, dated May 1, 2017) (Article 64 in the wording of Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013)

Article 64. Maximum risk per person related to a credit institution (a group of persons related to a credit institution) shall be established as percentages of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution and may not exceed 20 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution.

For the purposes of this Federal Law, a legal entity related to a credit institution shall mean a legal entity, which controls a credit institution or exerts material influence on it, or a legal entity whose activity is controlled by a credit institution or which is under material influence of a credit institution.

For the purposes of this Federal Law, a private individual related to a credit institution shall mean a private individual (the individual's close relatives: his (her) spouse, parents, children, adoptive parents, adopted persons, whole blood brothers and sisters, a grandfather, a grandmother and grandchildren) who:

1) controls a credit institution or exerts material influence on it;

2) is a member of a board of directors (supervisory board), a one-man executive body, his deputy, chief accountant of a credit institution, a member of a collegiate executive body or another head (employee) taking decisions (including on a collegiate basis) on the performance by a credit institution of operations (transactions), the results of which may influence the observance by a credit institution of compulsory standards or the emergence of the grounds for implementing measures for preventing the insolvency (bankruptcy) of a credit institution.

Legal entities and (or) private individuals related to a credit institution shall comprise in accordance with this Federal Law a group of persons related to a credit institution, except for legal entities whose activity is controlled by a credit institution or which are under material influence of a credit institution or close relatives of persons related to a credit institution.

In establishing maximum risk per person related to a credit institution (a group of persons related to a credit institution), the amount of liabilities of a person (persons in a group of persons) to a credit institution and the amount of liabilities to third parties giving rise to the emergence of a credit institution's claims to that person (the persons in a group of persons) shall be taken into account. In establishing maximum risk per person related to a credit institution (a group of persons related to a credit institution), a group of persons shall be defined in accordance with the meaning given in Federal Law No. 135-FZ, dated July 26, 2006, "On the Protection of Competition ". The Bank of Russia shall determine by a normative act the criteria of a possible relatedness of a person (persons) to a credit institution, and also the procedure for the Bank of Russia to exercise control over the observance by credit institutions of calculated maximum risk per person related to a credit institution (a group of persons related to a credit institution).

For the purposes of establishing maximum risk per person related to a credit institution (a group of persons related to a credit institution), the Banking Supervision Committee shall have the right to take a decision on acknowledging a person as a person related to a credit institution (being part of a group of persons related to a credit institution) pursuant to an informed judgment. A decision by the Banking Supervision Committee shall provide substantiation for acknowledging a person (persons) as a person related to a credit institution (being part of a group of persons related to a credit institution), including information on the criteria that gave the grounds for taking this decision, the time limits for a credit institution to bring the requirements for a person (persons) acknowledged as a person related to a credit institution (being part of a group of persons related to a credit institution) into compliance with the amount established by the Bank of Russia pursuant to this Federal Law. The Chairman of the Banking Supervision Committee shall have the right to send a request binding for a credit institution to provide additional information to the Banking Supervision Committee to consider the issue of acknowledging a person (persons) as a person related to a credit institution (being part of a group of persons related to a credit institution).

Pursuant to a decision by the Banking Supervision Committee, the Bank of Russia shall send a credit institution an order to acknowledge a person (persons) as a person related to a credit institution (being part of a group of persons related to a credit institution).

A credit institution shall have the right within 15 business days after receiving such an order to appeal to the Bank of Russia Chairman against it. In its statement of appeal, a credit institution must substantiate the absence of relatedness of a person (persons), in relation to whom the order was sent, to the credit institution. The Bank of Russia Chairman shall consider this statement within 15 business days from the day it is received by the Bank of Russia. After considering a statement of appeal, the Bank of Russia Chairman shall deny the appeal by a credit institution or cancel the order.

A credit institution shall bring maximum risk per person acknowledged as a person related to a credit institution (being part of a group of persons related to a credit institution) into compliance with the amount established by the Bank of Russia pursuant to this Federal Law and shall inform the Bank of Russia thereof. In the event of fulfillment (partial fulfillment) of an obligation to a credit institution by a person (a group of persons), in relation to whom the order was sent, a credit institution shall send information on the said circumstances to the Banking Supervision Committee, including a statement confirming that the fulfillment (partial fulfillment) of the obligation was not connected with the assumption by a credit institution directly or indirectly (through third parties) of risks of incurring losses. The Banking Supervision Committee shall consider information provided by a credit institution and take a decision on recognising or refusing to recognize the fact that a credit institution has brought maximum risk per person acknowledged as a person related to a credit institution (being part of a group of persons related to a credit institution) into compliance with the amount established by the Bank of Russia pursuant to this Federal Law. The Banking Supervision Committee Chairman (his deputy) shall have the right to send a request binding for a credit institution to provide additional information to the Banking Supervision Committee to consider this issue.

Bank of Russia normative acts shall define the procedure for the Banking Supervision Committee for taking a decision on referring a person to persons related to a credit institution (those being part of a group of persons related to a credit institution) pursuant to an informed judgment and the procedure for sending orders to a credit institution and considering appeals from a credit institution in compliance with this Article.

Decisions by the Banking Supervision Committee and orders stipulated in this Article may be appealed against in an arbitration court in accordance with the procedure established by federal laws.

Bank of Russia normative acts may define calculation specifics of the maximum risk per a person related to a credit institution (a group of persons related to a credit institution) for banks with basic licences.

(Article 64 was introduced by Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013)

Article 65. Maximum high credit risk shall be established as a percentage ratio of the total amount of high credit risks to the amount of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).
A high credit risk shall be the sum of loans, guarantees and warranties granted to one client exceeding 5 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

The maximum amount of high credit risks shall not exceed 800 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to keep a register of high credit risks of credit institutions (banking groups).

Article 66. The liquidity ratios of a credit institution and a banking group shall be determined as follows:

the paragraph in the wording of Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013

- the ratio between its assets and liabilities, taking into account the terms, amounts and kinds of assets and liabilities and other factors;
- the ratio between its liquid assets (cash, termless banking claims, short-term securities and other saleable assets) and aggregate assets.

Article 67. The own funds (capital) adequacy ratios shall be determined as the ratio between the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group) and its risk-weighted aggregate assets.

The Bank of Russia shall have the right to establish increased values of own funds (capital) adequacy ratios of a credit institution, banking group (capital conservation buffer charge, countercyclical capital charge), and systemic capital charge of systematically important credit institutions, banking groups whose parent company or participant is a systematically important credit institution, method for calculating them, procedure for meeting them and recovery of own funds (capital) by credit institutions (parent credit institutions of the banking group, participants of the banking group) in order to comply with the said capital charges.

part two was introduced by Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014

When determining the procedure for meeting the capital charges envisaged by part two of this Article and recovery of own funds (capital) by credit institutions (parent credit institutions of the banking group, participants of the banking group) in order to comply with the said capital charges, the Bank of Russia shall determine the amount of profit credit institutions (parent credit institutions of the banking group, participants of the banking group) shall not allocate due to the requirement to restore the amount of own funds (capital), the method for calculating them for the purposes envisaged by this part, and the procedure for credit institutions (parent credit institutions of the banking group, participants of the banking group) to submit to the Bank of Russia notifications on such calculation, the procedure for compiling own funds (capital) recovery plan and to have them approved by the Bank of Russia.

part three was introduced by Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014
Article 68. The Bank of Russia shall regulate the size of and accounting procedure for the open position of credit institutions (banking groups) on currency, interest and other financial risks.

Article 69. The Bank of Russia shall establish the procedure for creating and the size of pre-tax reserves (funds) of credit institutions to cover possible loan losses and currency, interest rate and other financial risks in compliance with federal laws.

Article 70. The ratios for the use of own funds (capital) of a credit institution for the purchase of shares (stakes) of other legal entities shall be determined as a percentage ratio of the sum invested to the sum of own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

The ratio for the use of own funds (capital) of a credit institution for the purchase of shares (stakes) of other legal entities may not exceed 25 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

Article 71. The maximum amount of loans, bank guarantees and warranties granted by a credit institution (banking group) to its members (shareholders) shall be determined as percentages of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

This ratio may not exceed 50 per cent.

Article 71¹. The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to establish differentiated required ratios and methods for calculating them stipulated by Article 62 of this Federal Law, as well as additional required ratios (the correlation of specific assets and liabilities) for credit institutions that issue mortgage-backed bonds or bonds secured by monetary claims or assign monetary claims, which serve as collateral for the obligations of a mortgage agent or a specialized company.

(Article 71¹ was introduced by Federal Law No. 379-FZ, dated December 21, 2013)

Article 72. The Bank of Russia shall establish the methods for calculating capital and required ratios of a credit institution (banking group), taking into account international standards and consultations with credit institutions and banking associations and unions.

(part one in the wording of Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013).

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to establish different ratios and methods for calculating them for various credit institutions, depending, among other things, on the types of licences issued to banks, and in other cases envisaged by this Federal Law.

The Bank of Russia shall officially announce any forthcoming change in ratios and methods for calculating them no later than one month before introducing them.

To calculate the capital of a credit institution and a banking group, the Bank of Russia shall evaluate their assets and liabilities, including the adequacy of risk provisions, using the evaluation methods established by Bank of Russia regulations. The credit institution and the banking group shall indicate the amount of their own capital, established by the Bank of Russia, in their accounting (financial) and other statements.

(part four in the wording of Federal Laws No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013, and No. 362-FZ, dated July 3, 2016)

Should the amount of capital of a credit institution prove smaller than its authorised capital, indicated in its founding documents, the Bank of Russia shall demand that this credit institution match its capital with its authorised capital. The credit institution shall comply with the Bank of Russia prescription in accordance with the procedure, within the terms and on the conditions established by Paragraph 4 of Chapter IX of Federal Law No. 127-FZ, dated October 26, 2002, "On Insolvency (Bankruptcy)" (hereinafter the Federal Law "On Insolvency (Bankruptcy) ").

(part five in the wording of Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)

The Bank of Russia shall establish the conditions for including subordinated credit (deposits, loans and bond issues) into the sources of capital of a credit institution and the conditions for excluding subordinated credit (deposits, loans and bond issues) from the sources of capital of a credit institution. The sum of subordinated credit (deposit, loan or bond issue) may be excluded from the calculation of capital of a credit institution after prior agreement with the Bank of Russia reached according to the procedure established by the Bank of Russia regulation, if the subordinated credit (deposit or loan) agreement is terminated before the expiry of its term or if bonds are redeemed ahead of schedule on the initiative of the borrower credit institution.

(part six was introduced by Federal Law No. 247-FZ, dated December 29, 2006)

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to suspend payment of the principal amount of the debt and (or) interest under a subordinated credit (deposit or loan) agreement or bonds according to the procedure set by the Bank of Russia regulations if the suspension of payments is provided for by the subordinated credit (deposit or loan) agreement or the registered terms of bond issue and the effectuation of scheduled payments to creditors creates the grounds for implementing bankruptcy-prevention measures stipulated by Paragraph 4\(^1\) of Chapter IX of the Federal Law "On Insolvency (Bankruptcy)". At the same time, the Bank of Russia shall prohibit credit institutions from taking decisions on the allocation of profit between their founders (members) and the payment (announcement) of dividends to them and from allocating profits between their founders (members), paying them dividends and meeting the demands by the founders (members) of credit institutions for allocating a share (a part of a share) to them or paying its actual value or buying out shares in credit institutions. The suspension of payments under the subordinated credit (deposit or loan) agreement or on bonds and the prohibition for a credit institution to take decisions on the allocation of profit between its founders (members) and the payment (announcement) of dividends to them and from allocating profits between its founders (members), paying them dividends and meeting the demand by the founders (members) of the credit institution for allocating a share (a part of a share) to them or paying its actual value or buying out shares in the credit institution shall be cancelled at the request of the credit institution, made according to the procedure established by the Bank of Russia, if the real threat of the emergence of the grounds for implementing bankruptcy-prevention measures has been removed.

(part seven was introduced by Federal Law No. 247-FZ, dated December 29, 2006, in the wording of Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)

The Bank of Russia shall have the right to demand that the credit institution swap (convert) credit institution’s creditors’ claims on subordinated credits (deposits, loans, bonded loans) on the grounds and according to the procedure established by a Bank of Russia regulation.

(part eight was introduced by Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)

To evaluate the assets and liabilities of a credit institution, including the adequacy of risk provisions, the Bank of Russia shall, according to the duly established procedure, examine the subject of pledge taken by the credit institution as a security on loan, including the ascertainment of the actual availability of the subject of pledge and its examination, the ascertainment of the legal status of the subject of pledge, as well as the judgment on the value of the subject of pledge made on the basis of the federal evaluation standards stipulated by Article 20 of Federal Law No. 135-FZ, dated July 29, 1998, ‘On Valuation Activity in the Russian Federation’. The credit institution shall make the aforementioned provisions proceeding from the results of the examination of the subject of pledge made by the Bank of Russia.

(part nine was introduced by Federal Law No. 362-FZ, dated July 3, 2016)

The Bank of Russia shall assess the economic standing of a credit institution according to the methods for conducting such assessment established by a Bank of Russia normative act. The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to determine the specifics of assessment of credit institutions’ economic standing according to the types of credit institutions, depending, among other things, on the types of licences issued to banks.

(part ten was introduced by Federal Law No. 92-FZ, dated May 1, 2017)
Article 72. The Bank of Russia shall establish requirements for bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models, including for the quality of data used in these models, applied by credit institutions and banking groups for evaluating assets, calculating capital adequacy ratio and other required ratios.

A credit institution, the parent credit institution of a banking group may assume the duty of applying bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models for calculating required ratios. Bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models shall be applied only on the basis of a permission issued by the Bank of Russia at the request of the credit institution or the parent credit institution of the banking group. The procedure for obtaining the permission for applying bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models shall be established by the Bank of Russia.

The procedure for evaluating the quality of bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models shall be established by Bank of Russia regulations.

The Bank of Russia shall refuse to give the permission, if an evaluation of the quality of bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models held by the Bank of Russia finds them inconsistent with Bank of Russia requirements.

Credit institutions and the parent credit institutions of banking groups must comply with the bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models, the application of which was permitted by the Bank of Russia.

A material change in bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models applied pursuant to the Bank of Russia permission shall be allowed only on the basis of the permission obtained from the Bank of Russia in accordance with the procedure stipulated by this Article. The criteria of material changes shall be established by the Bank of Russia.

In the event of a failure to comply with the bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models, the application of which was permitted by the Bank of Russia, the Bank of Russia shall have the right in accordance with its prescribed procedure to require the compliance of the said bank methods and models and (or) establish increased values for risk parameters used for calculating capital adequacy and (or) apply measures stipulated by part one of paragraph three in point 2 and point 6 of part two of Article 74 of this Federal Law.

Should bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models cease to comply with the Bank of Russia requirements, the Bank of Russia shall have the right in accordance with its prescribed procedure to require that the said bank methods and models be brought into compliance with the Bank of Russia requirements and (or) establish increased values for risk parameters used for calculating capital adequacy and (or) apply measures stipulated by part one of paragraph three in point 2 and point 6 of part two of Article 74 of this Federal Law.

Should grounds be eliminated or changed for establishing increased values for risk parameters, the Bank of Russia shall take a decision on their cancellation and inform a credit institution and the parent credit institution of a banking group thereof in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Bank of Russia.

Should a credit institution or the parent credit institution of a banking group fail to comply with the requirements sent by the Bank of Russia in accordance with this Article, the Bank of Russia shall have the right to revoke according to its prescribed procedure the permission for applying bank risk management methods and quantitative risk assessment models for calculating capital adequacy.

(Article 72 was introduced by Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013)

Article 73. To fulfill its functions relating to banking regulation and banking supervision, the Bank of Russia shall conduct inspections of credit institutions (or their branches), give them instructions, which the credit institutions must obey, to eliminate violations discovered in their work and involving the breach of federal laws and Bank of Russia regulations issued in pursuance of these laws, and use sanctions against violators as stipulated by this Federal Law.

(part one in the wording of Federal Law No. 162-FZ, dated June 27, 2011).

Inspections may be conducted by the authorised representatives (employees) of the Bank of Russia in accordance with the procedure established by the Board of Directors or by audit firms on the instructions of the Board of Directors.

The authorised representatives (employees) of the Bank of Russia shall have the right to receive and examine accounting reports and other documents of credit institutions (or their branches) and, if necessary, make copies of the corresponding documents to attach them to inspection materials.

The procedure for conducting inspections of credit institutions (or their branches), including establishing the duties of credit institutions (or their branches) to assist inspections, shall be established by the Board of Directors.

In fulfilling its functions relating to banking regulation and banking supervision, the Bank of Russia shall not be entitled to conduct more than one inspection of a credit institution (or its branch) on the same subjects and the same accounting period of the activities of the credit institution (or its branch), except for those cases stipulated by this Article. An inspection shall cover only the five calendar years of the activities of a credit institution (or its branch) preceding the inspection year.

The Bank of Russia may conduct a repeat inspection of a credit institution (or its branch) on the same subjects and the same accounting period of the activities of the credit institution (or its branch) on the following grounds:

if such an inspection is conducted in connection with the reorganization or liquidation of the credit institution; by the reasoned decision of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may take such a decision to supervise a Bank of Russia regional branch that has conducted an inspection or at the request of the corresponding Bank of Russia structural unit for the purpose of assessing a credit institution's financial standing and the quality of assets and liabilities. For these purposes, the request by the Bank of Russia structural unit should indicate the signs of financial instability in a credit institution, if these signs have created a tangible threat to the interests of the credit institution's creditors (depositors). These signs should be detected and evaluated according to the methodologies established by Bank of Russia rules and regulations. A repeat inspection conducted by the reasoned decision of the Board of Directors shall be conducted with the participation of representatives of the Bank of Russia head office.

(in the wording of Federal Law No. 5-FZ, dated January 10, 2003)

The paragraph was excluded in accordance with Federal Law No. 5-FZ, dated January 10, 2003.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to inspect the activity of credit institutions being part of banking groups and bank holding companies and located on the territories of foreign states. The central bank and (or) another supervisory authority of a foreign state with the functions of banking supervision may gain access to the premises of credit institutions located on the territory of the Russian Federation as members of banking groups whose parent organisations are foreign banks, and access to information on their activity if the credit institutions being members of banking groups have given a written consent. The supervisors shall inform the Bank of Russia about the results of such visits.

(part seven was introduced by Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013)

The authorised representatives (employees) of the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to examine the subject of pledge taken by the credit institution as a security on loan, excluding the living quarters, garage, stall of the garage, parking place owned by (granted to) a private individual, cars, motorcycles and scooters owned by the private individual and not used for entrepreneurship purposes, and a plot of land from lands designated for agriculture granted to the private individual for individual housing construction, farming, camping, gardening, stockbreeding or market gardening, as well as buildings, constructions and structures situated on this plot of land, at the place of its storage (location), and to get acquainted with the activity of legal entity or individual entrepreneur – the borrower of the examined credit institution and (or) legal entity or individual entrepreneur – the pledger, not being borrower of this loan, on-site in cases and along with the procedure established by the Bank of Russia.

(part eight was introduced by Federal Law No. 362-FZ, dated July 3, 2016)

The credit institution shall render assistance to the authorised representatives (employees) of the Bank of Russia in making examination of the subject of pledge taken by the credit institution as a security on loan, at the place of its storage (location), and in their getting acquainted with the activity of legal entity or individual entrepreneur – the borrower of the examined credit institution and (or) legal entity or individual entrepreneur – the pledger, not being borrower of this loan, directly on-site, including at the Bank of Russia request to ensure presence of the credit institutions’ representatives while examining the subject of pledge and getting acquainted with the activity of legal entity or individual entrepreneur – the borrower of the examined credit institution and (or) legal entity or individual entrepreneur – the pledger, not being borrower of this loan.

(part nine was introduced by Federal Law No. 362-FZ, dated July 3, 2016)

Information obtained in the course of examining the subject of pledge and getting acquainted with the activity of legal entity or individual entrepreneur – the borrower of the examined credit institution and (or) legal entity or individual entrepreneur – the pledger, not being borrower of this loan, shall not be disclosed without the consent of the person, who has provided it, except for the cases stipulated by federal laws, and the provision of the aforementioned information to the credit institution. The Bank of Russia shall be liable for the disclosure of the said information, including compensation for losses incurred, according to the procedure established by federal law.

(part ten was introduced by Federal Law No. 362-FZ, dated July 3, 2016)

Article 73. The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to co-operate with credit institutions through information resources posted on the Bank of Russia official website by providing credit institutions with access to personal accounts which are maintained by the Bank of Russia according to established procedure.

Credit institutions shall use personal accounts to receive documents from the Bank of Russia, including its requests, orders (instructions), and to submit to the Bank of Russia reports, documents (information), data as well as to exercise their other rights and obligations established by federal laws and Bank of Russia regulations.

Reports, documents (information), submitted to the Bank of Russia by credit institutions and signed by enhanced encrypted and certified digital signature through their personal accounts shall be recognized as equivalent to hard copy documents.

The procedure for interaction between the Bank of Russia and credit institutions when using their personal accounts shall be stipulated by the Bank of Russia normative act.

(Article 73 was introduced by Federal Law No. 153-FZ, dated July 1, 2017, to be effective from September 30, 2017)

Article 74. Should a credit institution violate federal laws or Bank of Russia normative acts or orders issued in pursuance of these laws or fail to provide information or provide incomplete or false information, or fail to conduct a mandatory audit or disclose information on its activity and an auditor's opinion on it, the Bank of Russia shall have the right to require the credit institution to eliminate the violations discovered, charge a penalty of up to 0.1 per cent of the minimum amount of authorised capital or prohibit the credit institution from conducting some banking operations for up to six months, including operations with the parent credit institution.
of the banking group, the parent organisation of the bank holding company, participants of the banking group, participants of the bank holding company or a person related to the credit institution (persons related to the credit institution).

Should a credit institution fail to fulfill the Bank of Russia order to eliminate the violations discovered in its work or should these violations or banking operations or transactions conducted by a credit institution pose a serious threat to the interests of its creditors (depositors), the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to:

1) charge the credit institution a fine of up to 1 per cent of its paid-up authorised capital but no more than 1 per cent of the minimum amount of authorised capital;

2) demand that the credit institution:
   - implement financial rehabilitation measures, including changing the structure of its assets;
   - replace the persons included in the list of positions given in Article 60 of this Federal Law or limit the size of compensatory and (or) stimulating payments to the said persons for up to three years;
   - conduct reorganization;

3) impose a ban on the implementation of some banking operations by the credit institution under its banking licence for a period of up to one year, including operations with the parent credit institution of the banking group, the parent organisation of the bank holding company, participants of the banking group, participants of the bank holding company or a person related to the credit institution (persons related to the credit institution), and also prohibit it from opening branches for a period of up to one year;

4) appoint a provisional administration to manage the credit institution for a period of up to six months. The procedure for appointing a provisional administration and for its activities shall be established by federal laws and Bank of Russia normative acts issued pursuant to them;

5) ban the reorganization of the credit institution if it may create grounds for taking anti-bankruptcy measures stipulated by Paragraph 4 of Chapter IX of the Federal Law "On Insolvency (Bankruptcy)";

(point 5 in the wording of Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)

6) demand that the founders (members) of the credit institution who have the opportunity on their own or owing to an agreement between them or participation in the capital of one another or some other means of direct or indirect collaboration to influence decisions made by management of the credit institution to take actions aimed at increasing the own funds (capital) of the credit institution to a level that would ensure its compliance with required ratios, including limiting the allocation of profit of the credit institution with regard to payments, which lead to a decrease of the own funds (capital) of the credit institution;

(point 6 in the wording of Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)

7) impose an upper bound to the interest rate, which the credit institution offers in bank deposit agreements concluded (extended) during the restriction period, but no less than two-thirds of the Bank of Russia refinancing rate on bank deposits in roubles and no less than the LIBOR rate on bank deposits in foreign currency as of the date of imposing the restriction for a term of up to one year. For the purposes of this provision, along with interest payments, the interest rate calculation shall include any non-interest payments, which the credit institution makes in favour of depositors who are private individuals, and also incomes in kind, which the credit institution transfers to depositors who are private individuals.

Should a parent credit institution of a banking group violate the requirements of federal laws in connection with its participation in the banking group or fail to provide information or provide incomplete or false information, or fail to conduct a mandatory audit or disclose consolidated statements and an auditor's opinion on them, the Bank of Russia shall have the right to take measures against the parent credit institution of the banking group, stipulated by part one of this Article. Should the required ratios established by the Bank of Russia for banking groups in pursuance of this Federal Law be violated, the Bank of Russia shall have the right to take measures against the parent credit institution of the banking group, stipulated by part one of this Article.

Should a parent credit institution of a banking group fail to fulfill the Bank of Russia order to eliminate the violations connected with its participation in the banking group or should these violations pose a threat to the legitimate interests of creditors (depositors) of the said credit institution or credit institutions that are members of the banking group, the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to:

1) charge the parent credit institution of the banking group a fine of up to 1 per cent of its paid-up authorised capital but no more than 1 per cent of the minimum amount of authorised capital;

2) impose a ban stipulated by point 3 of part two of this Article.

To fulfill the Bank of Russia requirements for the observance of required ratios for banking groups, a parent credit institution of a banking group shall independently take decisions relating to the banking group's activities and assets.

Should a shareholder (member) of a credit institution violate the procedure for disclosing information on the persons controlling or materially influencing the credit institution, in compliance with Federal Law No. 177-FZ, dated December 23, 2003, "On the Insurance of Household Deposits in Banks of the Russian Federation", and (or) fail to fulfill upon the emergence of the grounds for implementing measures for preventing the bankruptcy of the credit institution the duties assigned to the shareholder (member) by normative legal acts, and (or) perform a transaction (transactions) with the credit institution, which caused the credit institution to violate the required ratios, and (or) the actions of the shareholder (member) of the credit institution resulted in violation by the credit institution (parent credit institutions of the banking group, participant of the banking group) of the requirements of the Federal Law "On Banks and Banking Activity" on the compliance with the capital charges on
The own funds (capital) adequacy ratios established by the Bank of Russia and (or) the method for calculating them and the procedure for compliance with them and the recovery of the amount of own funds (capital), the Bank of Russia shall no later than 30 calendar days from the day of discovering the violation send such a shareholder (member) an order to eliminate the violation discovered and (or) an order to implement measures eliminating the violation of the required ratios committed by the credit institution (hereinafter an order to implement measures), if no more than one year has passed since the violation was committed. The copies of such orders shall be sent to the credit institution.

(Par t six in the wording of Federal Law No. 432-FZ, dated December 22, 2014)

An order of the Bank of Russia to eliminate the violation and (or) an order to implement measures shall be subject to the fulfillment by a shareholder (member) of a credit institution within a period of no more than 45 calendar days from the day of receiving such an act. Should a shareholder (member) of a credit institution fail to fulfill an order of the Bank of Russia to eliminate the violation and (or) an order to implement measures, the voting right of the shareholder (member) of the credit institution at a general meeting of shareholders (members) of the credit institution shall be suspended from the day following the aforementioned 45-day period to the day on which the corresponding order is fulfilled or cancelled. The suspension of the voting right of a shareholder (member) of a credit institution at a general meeting of shareholders (members) of the credit institution shall mean that the shares (stakes) of such a shareholder (member) of the credit institution shall not be voting stock and shall not be taken into account when the quorum of a general meeting of shareholders (members) of the credit institution is determined.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to appeal in court the decisions of a general meeting of shareholders (members) of a credit institution and the transactions performed in fulfillment of these decisions, if a shareholder (member) of the credit institution participated in voting when the order indicated in part seven of this Article was in effect and such participation influenced the decisions of the general meeting of shareholders (members) of the credit institution.

An order of the Bank of Russia to eliminate the violation and (or) an order to implement measures shall be cancelled by the Bank of Russia, if a shareholder (member) of a credit institution eliminates the violation discovered by the Bank of Russia. A Bank of Russia act on cancelling the Bank of Russia order to eliminate the violation and (or) the order to implement measures shall be sent to the shareholder (member) of the credit institution and the credit institution in accordance with the procedure established by a Bank of Russia normative act.

The procedure for applying measures stipulated by this Article shall be established by Bank of Russia normative acts.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to revoke the banking licence of a credit institution on the grounds established by the Federal Law "On Banks and Banking Activit-ies”. The procedure for revoking a banking licence shall be established by Bank of Russia normative acts.

The Bank of Russia may not take measures stipulated in parts one - four of this Article against a credit institution, if five years have passed since these violations were committed. The Bank of Russia may not use measures stipulated in this Article for failure by a credit institution (its branch) to comply with Bank of Russia documents (acts) other than Bank of Russia normative acts or orders.

The Bank of Russia may appeal to court to recover a fine from a credit institution or apply some other sanctions against it, stipulated by federal laws, no later than six months after any of the violations listed in parts one - four of this Article was recorded.

(Article 74 in the wording of Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013)

Article 75. The Bank of Russia shall analyse the activities of credit institutions (banking groups and bank holding companies) to detect situations endangering the legitimate interests of their depositors and creditors and stability of the Russian banking system.

(part one in the wording of Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013)

Should such a situation arise, the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to take measures stipulated by Article 74 of this Federal Law and implement in compliance with federal laws measures to financially rehabilitate credit institutions.

(part two in the wording of Federal Law No. 84-FZ, dated May 1, 2017)

To prevent situations indicated in this Article, the Bank of Russia shall keep a database on persons holding positions listed in Article 60 of this Federal Law (candidates for these positions), other employees of credit institutions and other persons whose activity contributed to damaging the financial position of a credit institution or violations of Russian Federation legislation and Bank of Russia normative acts. The procedure for keeping the database shall be established by the Bank of Russia. The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to request information from the federal bodies of executive power and their regional branches and legal entities to keep the database.

(part three was introduced by Federal Law No. 146-FZ, dated July 2, 2013)

When implementing measures in compliance with the Federal Law “On Insolvency (Bankruptcy)” to prevent the bankruptcy in credit institutions and guided by the decision of the Board of Directors, the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to do the following using the monetary assets of the Banking Sector Consolidation Funds set up in line with Article 76 of this Federal Law:

1) to acquire shares (stakes in the authorised capital) of credit institutions subjected to bankruptcy-prevention measures, including at prices exceeding their nominal value;
2) to extend to credit institutions subjected to bankruptcy-prevention measures subordinated credits (deposits, loans, and bonded loans) complying with the requirements established by Article 25\(^1\) of the Federal Law “On Banks and Banking Activities”. The Bank of Russia may transfer claims on subordinated credits (deposits, loans, bonded loans) to the Management Company for trust management;

3) to extend loans, place deposits and issue bank guarantees to credit institutions subjected to bankruptcy-prevention measures. The Bank of Russia may transfer claims on credits (deposits, bank guarantees) to the Management Company for trust management;

4) to sell the acquired shares (stake in the authorised capital) of credit institutions subjected to bankruptcy-prevention measures, including at prices below the acquisition price paid by the Bank of Russia;

5) to acquire and alienate the purchased property (property rights) of credit institutions subjected to bankruptcy-prevention measures, and also claims to credit institutions subjected to bankruptcy-prevention measures;

6) to extend to the Management Company a loan to finance the resolution of a bank’s obligations when and if the Bank of Russia invites the Management Company to participate in the implementation of measures stipulated by the Bank of Russia’s bank resolution plan;

7) to transfer to the Management Company for trust management, and in order to set up a unit investment fund, among other things, acquired by the Bank of Russia shares (stake in the authorised capital), property (property rights) of credit institutions subjected to bankruptcy-prevention measures, claims to credit institutions subjected to bankruptcy-prevention measures, and (or) claims to credit institutions investing in the latter, and also monetary funds. Property-related trust management agreements concluded by the Bank of Russia in compliance with this point, and also trust management agreement with regard to the unit investment fund, shall not be covered by the requirements on the maximum validity terms of property-related trust management agreements.

(part four was introduced by Federal Law No. 84-FZ, dated May 1, 2017)

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to execute other rights stipulated by the Federal Law “On Insolvency (Bankruptcy)”.

(part five was introduced by Federal Law No. 84-FZ, dated May 1, 2017)

Article 75\(^1\). Should a credit institution fail to fulfill within the period established by the Bank of Russia requirement (order) obliging it to eliminate the violations related to the submission and (or) publication (disclosure) of reports and should grounds exist for presuming the existence of offences stipulated by Article 172\(^1\) of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation, the Bank of Russia shall send the relevant materials within three business days after these circumstances are revealed to the investigative bodies authorised to carry out a preliminary investigation in criminal Article 76. The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to appoint its authorised representatives to a credit institution in the cases when:

1) a credit institution has obtained a foreign currency credit (loan) from the state corporation, the Bank for Development and Foreign Economic Affairs (Vnesheconombank) (hereinafter Vnesheconombank), in accordance with Article 1 of Federal Law No. 173-FZ, dated October 13, 2008, "On Additional Measures to Support the Financial System of the Russian Federation" (hereinafter the Federal Law "On Additional Measures to Support the Financial System of the Russian Federation");

2) a credit institution has obtained a subordinated credit (loan) from the Bank of Russia in accordance with Article 5 of the Federal Law "On Additional Measures to Support the Financial System of the Russian Federation";

3) a credit institution has obtained a subordinated credit (loan) from Vnesheconombank in accordance with Article 6 of the Federal Law "On Additional Measures to Support the Financial System of the Russian Federation";

4) federal budget funds have been deposited with a credit institution in accordance with Article 236 of the Budget Code of the Russian Federation;

5) a credit institution has obtained a loan from the Bank of Russia in accordance with point 1\(^1\), Article 46 of this Federal Law for a term longer than one month;

6) the Bank of Russia and the state corporation Deposit Insurance Agency have taken measures in relation to a credit institution to prevent the bankruptcy of banks that are members the mandatory household deposit insurance system in Russian banks, in accordance with Paragraph 4\(^1\) of Chapter IX of the Federal Law "On Insolvency (Bankruptcy)";
