(i) rights allocatable to any person mentioned in one of the foregoing subparagraphs by application mutatis mutandis of the criteria laid down in any of the other subparagraphs.

2 - For the purposes of subparagraph 1(b) above, the voting rights attached to shares belonging to managed funds or portfolios shall not be considered allocatable to the undertaking in a control relationship with investment fund management companies, pension fund management companies, venture capital fund management companies or financial intermediaries authorised to provide portfolio management services for the account of third parties, nor to pension-fund-associated companies, provided that the management company or financial intermediary exercises such voting rights independently from the controlling undertaking or associated companies.

3 - For the purposes of subparagraph 1(h) above, agreements concerning the transferability of shares representing the share capital of the undertaking are deemed to be instruments of concerted exercise of influence.

4 - The presumption referred to in the foregoing paragraph may be rebutted before the Banco de Portugal on presentation of proof that the relationship established with the participant is independent of any actual or potential influence over the undertaking.

5 - For the purposes of paragraph 1 above, the calculation of voting rights shall be based on all the shares with voting rights, regardless of any suspension of the respective exercise.

6 - The calculation of qualifying holdings shall not consider:

(b) the shares that are traded exclusively for clearing and settlement purposes within the scope of the short and regular settlement cycle, in accordance with the provisions laid down in Articles 16-A(2) and 18(1) of the Securities Code (Código dos Valores Mobiliários);

Article 13-B

Allocation of voting rights attached to shares forming part of collective investment undertakings, pension funds or portfolios

1 - For the purposes of Article 13-A(2), an undertaking that controls the management company or financial intermediary and pension-fund-associated companies shall benefit from a derogation of aggregated allocation of voting rights, provided that:

(b) the management company or financial intermediary shows autonomy in the decision-making processes concerning the exercise of voting rights.

2 - In order to benefit from the derogation of the aggregated allocation of voting rights, the undertaking that controls the management company or the financial intermediary shall:

(a) submit to the Banco de Portugal an updated list of all management companies and financial intermediaries under its control and, in the case of entities subject to foreign law, identify the respective supervisory authorities;

(b) submit to the Banco de Portugal a reasoned statement for each management company or financial intermediary, stating the compliance with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph;

(c) demonstrate to the Banco de Portugal, upon request, that the organisational structures of the relevant entities ensure the independent exercise of the voting rights; that the persons who exercise the voting rights do so independently; and that there is a clear written mandate which, in the cases where the controlling undertaking receives services provided by the controlled undertaking or holds direct holdings in assets managed by the latter, a contractual relationship between the parties is established in accordance with regular market conditions for similar cases.

3 - For the purposes of subparagraph 2(c) above, the relevant entities shall adopt written policies and procedures that appropriately prevent access to information on the exercise of voting rights.

4 - In order to benefit from the derogation of aggregated allocation of voting rights, pension-fund-associated companies shall submit to the Banco de Portugal a reasoned statement stating that they comply with the provisions of paragraph 1 above.

5 - Where the allocation is due to the holding of financial instruments which confer on the participant the right to acquire, exclusively on its own initiative, pursuant to an agreement, shares with voting rights, already issued by an issuer whose shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market, it suffices for the purposes of paragraph 2 above, that the undertaking mentioned therein submits to the Banco de Portugal the information listed in subparagraph 2(a).

6 - For the purposes of paragraph 1 above:

(a) direct instruction shall mean any instruction given by the controlling undertaking or any other entity controlled by the latter which specifies how the voting rights are to be exercised in specific cases;

(b) indirect instruction shall mean any general or particular instruction, regardless of its form, given by the controlling undertaking or any other entity controlled by the latter, that limits the margin of discretion of the management company, financial intermediary and pension-fund-associated company with regard to the exercise of the voting rights in order to serve specific business interests of the controlling undertaking or any other entity controlled by the latter.

7 - As soon as, pursuant to paragraph 1 above, the Banco de Portugal concludes that the independence of the management company or financial intermediary is not proven and a qualifying holding in a credit institution is involved it shall, without prejudice to any applicable penalties, inform thereof the controlling undertaking of the management company or financial intermediary and the pension-fund-associated companies, as well as the management body of the undertaking.
8 - The declaration of the Banco de Portugal mentioned in the foregoing paragraph involves the allocation to the controlling undertaking of all voting rights attached to the shares forming part of the investment fund, pension fund, venture capital fund or portfolio, with the corresponding implications, for as long as the independence of the management company or financial intermediary is not proven.

9 - Before issuing the declaration provided for in paragraph 7, the Banco de Portugal shall previously consult the Portuguese Pension Funds Supervisory Authority (Autoridade de Supervisão de Seguros e Fundos de Pensões), whenever it refers to voting rights attached to shares forming part of pension funds, or the Portuguese Securities Market Commission (Comissão do Mercado de Valores Mobiliários – CMVM), whenever it refers to voting rights attached to shares of issuers of listed securities, admitted for trade on the regulated market or held by undertakings for collective investment or included in financial instrument portfolios within the scope of portfolio management contracts.

2 - In the situations set out in the foregoing paragraph, the undertakings may continue to carry out the activities covered by their authorisation until they have obtained the authorisation as described in the foregoing paragraph.

3 - The Banco de Portugal shall ensure that the authorisation process is as streamlined as possible and that information from existing authorisations is taken into account.

4 - The authorisation to carry out activities as an investment firm shall be suspended with the granting of the authorisation provided for in this Article.

(b) Any of the conditions governing the granting of authorisation for the respective setting-up ceases to be met;

(c) The activity of the credit institution does not correspond to the authorised statutory purpose;

(d) The credit institution ceases or reduces its activity to a negligible level for a period over six months;

(e) Serious irregularities are committed in the management, accounting procedures, or internal control of the credit institution;
(f) The credit institution is unable to comply with its commitments, in particular, where it no longer provides security for the assets entrusted to it;

(g) The credit institution fails to fulfil the obligations arising out of its participation in the Deposit Guarantee Fund or in the Investor Compensation Scheme;

(h) The credit institution fails to comply with the laws and regulations governing its activity, or fails to observe the determinations of the Banco de Portugal, in such a way as to jeopardise the interests of the depositors and other creditors or the smooth operation of the money, financial or foreign exchange market;

(i) The credit institution expressly gives up the authorisation, except in the case of voluntary winding up as set out in Article 35-A;

(j) The members of the management and supervisory bodies, as a whole, do not give guarantees of sound and prudent management of the credit institution;

(k) The credit institution seriously or repeatedly fails to comply with the laws and regulations preventing money laundering and terrorist financing;

(l) Where the credit institution no longer complies with prudential own funds requirements, rules on large exposures or liquidity rules set out in Parts Three, Four or Six of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, with the exception of the requirements laid down in Articles 92-A and 92-B of that Regulation, as well as the additional own funds requirements or specific liquidity requirements imposed in accordance with Article 116-C(2)(a) or Article 116-AG respectively;

3 - The withdrawal of the authorisation granted to a credit institution which has branches in other EU Member States shall be preceded by consultation with the supervisory authorities of those States. On grounds of urgency, however, this consultation may be replaced by a mere notification of the withdrawal, accompanied by an explanation as to the reason for this simplified procedure.

4 - The withdrawal of the authorisation granted to a credit institution having its head office in Portugal, which is a subsidiary of a cross-border group or the parent undertaking of a cross-border group shall comply with the provisions of Articles 145-AI and 145-AJ respectively.

5 - The withdrawal of authorisation implies the winding up and liquidation of the credit institution, save in the case mentioned in paragraphs 1(d) and (i) where the winding up and liquidation may be waived by the Banco de Portugal.

Article 23

Power of withdrawal and related procedures

1 - The withdrawal of authorisation is the responsibility of the Banco de Portugal.

2 - Reasons must be given for any withdrawal of authorisation and the withdrawal decision must be notified to the credit institution and communicated to the European Banking Authority, as well as to the supervisory authorities of the EU Member States in which the credit institution has branches or provides services.

CHAPTER III
Suitability of the members of the management and supervisory bodies and the exercise of critical functions in credit institutions

Article 30
General provisions

1 – The suitability of the members of the management and supervisory bodies of credit institutions to perform their tasks is subject to assessment during the full length of the term of office.

2 - The suitability of the members of the management and supervisory bodies consists in their capacity to ensure at all times the sound and prudent management of the institutions, with a view, in particular, to safeguarding the financial system and the interests of their customers, depositors, investors and other creditors.

3 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the members of the management and supervisory bodies shall comply with the reputation, professional qualification, independence and availability requirements mentioned in the following Articles.

4 - In the case of collegiate bodies, the individual assessment of each member shall be accompanied by a collective assessment of the body as a whole, with a view to checking whether the body itself, considering its composition, has the adequate professional qualification and availability to comply with the respective legal and statutory functions, in all relevant fields of action.

5 - The assessment of the members of the management and supervisory bodies shall comply with the principle of proportionality, considering, inter alia, the nature, size and complexity of the institution’s activities and the requirements and responsibilities associated with the actual functions to be performed.

6 - The internal policy of selection and assessment of the members of the management and supervisory bodies shall promote the diversity of qualifications and skills necessary to the exercise of the function, setting goals for the representation of men and women, and designing a policy intended to increase the number of people in the sub-represented group, with a view to reaching the mentioned goals.

7 - The Banco de Portugal collects and reviews information relating to diversity practices, reporting it to the European Banking Authority.

8 - The Banco de Portugal regulates the framework set out in this Chapter.

Article 30-A

Assessment by credit institutions

1 - Credit institutions are primarily responsible for assessing whether all the members of the management and supervisory bodies fulfil the necessary suitability requirements for the performance of their tasks.

2 - Each credit institution’s general meeting shall approve an internal policy for selecting and assessing the suitability of the members of the management and supervisory bodies, which shall include at least the identification of those in the credit institution who are responsible for the suitability assessment, the assessment procedures adopted in this regard, the necessary suitability requirements, the rules on prevention, communication and resolution of conflicts of interest, and the vocational training available.

3 - The persons to be appointed to the management and supervisory bodies, prior to their appointment, shall submit to the credit institution, under the provisions of paragraph 5, a written statement with all relevant and necessary information to assess their suitability, including that required under the Banco de Portugal’s authorisation process.

4 - The persons appointed shall notify the credit institution of any supervenient facts to the appointment or authorisation which may affect the content of the statement provided for in the foregoing paragraph.

5 - When the directorship is to be filled by means of an election, the statement referred to in paragraph 3 shall be submitted to the president of the credit institution’s general meeting body, who is responsible for presenting it to the shareholders as part of the preparatory information for the general meeting, and informing shareholders of the suitability requirements for the persons to be elected. In the remaining cases, the statement shall be submitted to the management body.

6 - Should the credit institution conclude that the persons assessed do not meet the necessary suitability requirements to perform the task, they cannot be appointed or, in case of reassessment motivated by supervenient facts, the necessary measures shall be adopted to address the lack of requirements detected, the suspension from duties or the dismissal of the persons in question, except in any of those cases if said persons are authorised by the Banco de Portugal under the process laid down in the following Article.

7 - The results of any assessment or reassessment performed by the credit institution shall be part of a report which, in the case of assessment of persons for elective posts, should be put at the disposal of the general meeting as part of the respective preparatory information.

8 - The credit institution shall reassess the suitability of the persons appointed to the management and supervisory bodies when, over the course of their mandate, there are supervenient circumstances that may or may not determine non-compliance with the necessary requirements.

9 - The assessment report of the members of the management and supervisory bodies shall accompany a request for authorisation to the Banco de Portugal or, in the case of reassessment, be submitted immediately after completion.

Article 30-B
Assessment by the Banco de Portugal

1 - The suitability of the members of the management and supervisory bodies of credit institutions is assessed by the Banco de Portugal, within the scope of the authorisation process of the credit institution.

2 - Where there is a change in the members of the management and supervisory bodies, the credit institution shall request from the Banco de Portugal the respective authorisation for the exercise of functions.

3 - The credit institution, or any person concerned, may request from the Banco de Portugal authorisation for the exercise of functions prior to the appointment of the members of the management and supervisory bodies; this prior authorisation shall lose force 60 days after issue, if the application is not submitted pursuant to the provisions of Article 69 and following.

4 - The authorisation by the Banco de Portugal for the exercise of functions of the members of the management and supervisory bodies is a prerequisite for their taking up office.

5 - Where the application or documentation submitted contains insufficiencies or irregularities which can be remedied by the persons concerned, the latter will be given notice that they are required to do so within a reasonable time limit, failing which authorisation will be refused.

6 - Assessment by the Banco de Portugal is based on information provided by the person under assessment and the credit institution, obtained from direct inquiries and, where appropriate, from a face-to-face interview with the person concerned.

7 - Changes of members of the management and supervisory bodies, as well as term of office renewals, are deemed to be authorised if the Banco de Portugal does not issue an opinion within 90 days from the date of receipt of the relevant request duly completed. This time limit may be extended, upon reasoned decision, for one or more periods up to a maximum of 30 working days.

8 - Without prejudice to the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, final registration of appointment of a member of the management and supervisory bodies with the commercial register requires the Banco de Portugal’s approval for the exercise of functions.

9 - The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall apply mutatis mutandis to the managers of branches and representative offices referred to in Article 45.

10 - For the purposes of this Article, the Banco de Portugal may exchange information with the Portuguese Securities Market Commission and the Portuguese Insurance Institute, and with the supervisory authorities mentioned in Article 18.

11 - When the activity of the credit institution includes intermediation in financial instruments, consultation with the Portuguese Securities Market Commission mentioned in the foregoing paragraph is mandatory.

12 - The Banco de Portugal may, by means of a regulation, make the exercise of critical functions conditional on its authorisation.
Article 30-C
Refusal and withdrawal of authorisation

1 - Lack of reputation, professional qualification, independence or availability of the members of the management and supervisory bodies is grounds for refusal of the respective authorisation for the exercise of functions.

2 - Refusal of authorisation on grounds of lack of some of the requirements mentioned in the foregoing paragraph shall be reported by the Banco de Portugal to the persons concerned and the credit institution.

3 - In case the term of office of the member in question has already started, the refusal of authorisation for the exercise of functions has the effect of termination of the term of office, in which case the credit institution shall report the termination of functions of the member in question to the commercial register.

4 - Authorisation for the exercise of functions may be withdrawn at any time, due to supervenient circumstances, which may determine non-fulfilment of the requirements underlying the authorisation.

5 - Authorisation is withdrawn when it can be demonstrated that it was obtained through false statements or any other irregular means, regardless of the applicable penalties.

6 - Withdrawal of authorisation for the exercise of functions has the effect of immediate termination of functions of the member in question. The Banco de Portugal shall report this fact to the person concerned and the credit institution, which shall adopt the appropriate measures so that such termination occurs immediately, and shall report the termination of functions of the member in question to the commercial register.

7 - For the purposes of paragraph 4, the Banco de Portugal shall in particular verify whether the reputation, professional qualification, independence or availability requirements are still fulfilled where it has reasonable grounds to suspect that money laundering or terrorist financing is being or has been committed or attempted, as defined in the applicable legislation on this matter, or where there is increased risk thereof in connection within that credit institution.

8 - The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall apply mutatis mutandis to the managers of branches and representative offices referred to in Article 45.

Article 30-D
Suitability

1 - In assessing suitability, account shall be taken of the manner in which the person usually does professional or private business or carries out their professional activity, particularly of any aspects which show an inability to make wise and judicious decisions, or a tendency not to meet obligations punctually or to behave in a manner incompatible with the maintenance of market confidence, taking into account all the circumstances that make it possible to assess the professional behaviour for the functions at stake.

2 - The suitability assessment is based on objective criteria, on the basis of information as complete as possible on the past functions of the persons concerned in their capacity as professionals, the most salient features in terms of their behaviour, and the context in which their decisions have been taken.

3 - In the assessment referred to in the foregoing paragraphs, account shall be taken, at least, of the following circumstances, depending on their seriousness:

(a) Evidence that the member of the management and supervisory body has not acted in a transparent or cooperative manner in any relationships with any national or foreign supervisory or
(b) Evidence that, in connection with an institution in which the person under assessment held a management or supervisory position or owned a qualifying holding at the relevant time, money laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of applicable anti-money laundering and terrorist financing legislation has been committed or attempted, or where there is an increased risk thereof;

(c) Refusal, withdrawal, cancellation or termination of the registration, authorisation, acceptance or licence for the exercise of any commercial, business or professional activity by a supervisory authority, professional body, or entity with similar functions, or removal from a post in a public entity;

(d) The reasons behind any dismissal, cessation of employment or removal from a post requiring a special confidence relationship;

(e) Prohibition, by a judicial authority, supervisory authority, professional body or entity with similar functions, from acting in the capacity of member of the board or manager of a corporation constituted under civil or commercial law or performing any functions therein;

(f) Inclusion of mentions of default in the central credit register, or any other similar register, by the competent authority for the purpose;

(g) Financial or corporate results obtained by corporations managed by the person in question or where the said person has been the holder of a qualifying holding, taking especially into account any proceedings regarding the recovery, winding up or liquidation, and the manner in which the person concerned has contributed to the situation leading to such proceedings;

(h) Personal insolvency, regardless of the respective qualification;

(i) Civil, administrative or criminal proceedings, as well as any other circumstances that, depending on the specific case, may have a significant impact on the financial soundness of the person in question;

(j) The professional curriculum and any potential conflicts of interest, when part of the professional career has been carried out in an entity directly or indirectly related to the financial institution concerned, whether by means of financial holdings or business relations.

4 - In accordance with the preventive purposes of this Article, in addition to the facts described in the foregoing paragraph and others of a similar nature, the Banco de Portugal must include in its judgement all and any circumstances it may legally take knowledge of, which, due to their seriousness, frequency or any other relevant characteristics, allow a prognosis of the guarantees provided by the person in question of sound and prudent management of the credit institution.

5 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, at least the following situations shall be taken into account, depending on their seriousness:

(a) Declaration of insolvency, in Portugal or abroad, of the person concerned or of a company controlled by that person or in which such person had been a member of the board, a director or a manager de jure or de facto or a member of the supervisory body;

(b) Accusation, indictment or conviction, in Portugal or abroad, of crimes against property, falsification and falsity, crimes against the achievement of justice, crimes committed in the exercise of public functions, tax crimes, crimes specifically related to the exercise of financial and insurance activities and the use of means of payment or money laundering or terrorist financing, and also crimes provided for in the Commercial Companies Code;

(c) The accusation or conviction, in Portugal or abroad, for breach of legal rules governing the activity of credit institutions, financial companies, pension fund management companies, notably rules on the prevention of money laundering or terrorist financing, as well as rules governing the securities market and insurance or reinsurance activity, including insurance or reinsurance intermediation activity;

(d) Failure to comply with disciplinary, ethical or professional conduct rules, within the scope of regulated professional activities;

(e) Facts that may have led to the judicial dismissal, or judicial confirmation of dismissal for cause, of members of the management and supervisory bodies of any commercial company;

(f) Actions undertaken as member of the board, director or manager of any commercial company that may have determined a conviction for damage caused to the company, its members, social creditors or third parties.

6 - The conviction, even where final, for criminal offences, administrative offence proceedings or the like does not necessarily lead to the loss of suitability for the exercise of functions in credit institutions, and its relevance shall be weighed, namely, in accordance with the nature of the offence and its connection with financial activity, its occasional or repeated nature and the level of personal involvement of the person concerned, the benefit obtained by that person or those persons directly related to the said person, damage caused to institutions, their customers, their creditors or the financial system and also the possible breach of the duties related to the supervision of the Banco de Portugal.

7 - For the purposes of this Article, the Banco de Portugal exchanges information with the Portuguese Insurance Institute and the Portuguese Securities Market Commission, and with the supervisory authorities mentioned in Article 18.

8 - For suitability assessment purposes, the Banco de Portugal consults the penalties database of the European Banking Authority.

Article 31
Professional qualifications

1 - The members of the management and supervisory bodies must demonstrate that they possess sufficient expertise, skills, qualifications and experience needed to perform their tasks, acquired through academic qualification or specialised training that is appropriate for the directorships they are to occupy and through professional experience of a duration and level of responsibility compatible with the credit institution’s characteristics, complexity, size and risk exposure.

2 – The previous training and experience must be sufficiently relevant to allow the holders of those directorships to understand the functioning and business of the credit institution, to assess its risk exposure and to analyse critically the decisions taken.

3 – The recognition of appropriate professional experience may be the object of prior consultation by the Banco de Portugal with the competent authority, which, in the exercise of its tasks, is in a position to deliver a reasoned opinion on the matter.

4 - The non-executive members of the management and supervisory bodies must possess the skills and qualifications to assess critically the decisions taken by the management body and to supervise this body’s function effectively.

5 - The management and supervisory bodies shall:

(a) possess adequate collective knowledge, skills and experience to be able to understand the institution's activities, including the main risks to which they are exposed; and

(b) consist of members with an adequately broad range of experience.
Independence

1 - The independence requirement is intended to prevent the risk of subjecting the members of the management and supervisory bodies from undue influence from other persons or entities, promoting conditions conducive to the impartial performance of tasks.

2 - In assessing this requirement, all situations liable to affect independence are to be taken into account, including:

(a) directorships the person concerned occupies or has occupied in the credit institution in question or in another credit institution;
(b) consanguineous relationships or similar, or professional or economic relationships that the person concerned has with other members of the management or supervisory bodies of the credit institution, its parent undertaking or its subsidiaries;
(c) consanguineous relationships or similar, or professional or economic relationships that the person concerned has with a person who has a qualifying holding in the credit institution, its parent undertaking or its subsidiaries.

3 - The performance of duties in affiliated entities shall not in itself indicate that the member of the body acts without independence.

4 - The supervisory body must comprise a majority of independent members, pursuant to Article 414(5) of the Commercial Companies Code (Código das Sociedades Comerciais).

Article 32
Supervenient lack of suitability

1 - As soon as credit institutions learn of any supervenient facts in regard to the authorisation to perform tasks that may affect the reputation, professional qualification, independence or availability requirements for the authorised person, they must communicate such facts to the Banco de Portugal, under the same terms as those for reporting facts when presenting the authorisation request to perform tasks, pursuant to Articles 30 to 31-A and 33.

2 - The facts that occurred subsequently to the authorisation are deemed to be supervenient, as well as those that occurred previously but were only known subsequently.

3 – The obligation established in paragraph 1 above is deemed to have been met if the communication is made by the very persons to whom the facts are related.

4 – If, for any reason, the reputation, professional qualification, independence or availability requirements cease to be met by any member or, as a whole, by the management or supervisory bodies, the Banco de Portugal may decide to apply one or more of the following measures:

(a) Set a time limit for the adoption of measures appropriate to meet the non-fulfilled requirement;
(b) Suspend the authorisation granted to the member in question, for as long as necessary to remedy the identified non-fulfilment;
(c) Set a time limit for changing the allocation of responsibilities;
(d) Set a time limit for changing the composition of the body in question and submit to the Banco de Portugal all relevant and necessary information to assess the suitability and authorisation of the alternate members.

5 - The Banco de Portugal shall communicate the measures mentioned in the foregoing paragraph to the persons in question and to the credit institution, which shall take all measures necessary to ensure that they are implemented.

6 – Non-adoption of the measures by the person in question or the credit institution within the established time limit may determine the withdrawal of authorisation.

7 – The adoption of the measure mentioned in paragraph 4(d) and the occurrence of the circumstance provided for in the foregoing paragraph shall determine the corresponding registration annotation of the termination of service by the member in question.

8 – Any suspension of authorisation decided under paragraph 4(b) will only cease to be effective after the Banco de Portugal’s decision.

9 – The provisions of this Article shall apply mutatis mutandis to the managers of branches and representative offices, as mentioned in Article 45.

Article 32-A
Temporary suspension of functions

1 – In justified cases of urgency and in order to prevent serious damage to the sound and prudent management of a credit institution or to financial system stability, the Banco de Portugal may decide on the temporary suspension of functions of any member of the respective management and supervisory bodies.

2 – The communication by the Banco de Portugal to the credit institution and the holder of the directorship in question, following the decision taken under the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, shall contain the indication that the temporary suspension of functions is of a preventive nature.

3 – The temporary suspension ceases to be effective:

(a) Upon a decision of the Banco de Portugal;
(b) Due to withdrawal of the authorisation granted to the person who has been suspended;
(c) As a result of adoption of one of the measures set out in Article 32(4);
(d) Within 30 days of the suspension date, where no proceeding has been started to adopt some of the decisions set out in subparagraphs (b) and (c); the credit institution and the holder of the directorship in question shall be duly notified.

Article 33
Accumulation of directorships

1 - The Banco de Portugal may oppose the members of the management or supervisory bodies of credit institutions performing management or supervisory functions in other entities if it deems that the accumulation is liable to hamper the performance of the functions already entrusted to them, in particular, where there are serious risks of conflicts of interest or because it results from lack of availability for the performance of the function, under terms to be regulated by the Banco de Portugal.

2 - In its assessment, the Banco de Portugal shall consider the specific circumstances of the case, the specific requirements of the directorship and the nature, scale and complexity of the credit institution’s activities.

3 - Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 1, members of the management and supervisory bodies of significant credit institutions, depending on the size, internal organisation, nature, scope and complexity of their activities, shall be prohibited from accumulating more than one executive directorship with two non-executive directorships, or four non-executive directorships.

4 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, a single directorship shall be understood as executive or non-executive directorships on the management or supervisory bodies of credit institutions or other entities which are included in the same perimeter of supervision on a consolidated basis or in which the credit institution has a qualifying holding.

5. - The provisions of paragraph 3 shall not apply to the members of the management and supervisory bodies of credit institutions benefiting from extraordinary public financial support and appointed by it in the context of such support.

6. - The limit provided for in paragraph 3 shall exclude the directorships held in entities whose principal corporate object is the performance of non-commercial activities, except if, due to their nature and complexity, or the size of the respective entity, there are serious risks of conflicts of interest or lack of availability for the performance of the function in the credit institution.

7. - The Banco de Portugal may authorise the members of the management and supervisory bodies covered by the provisions of paragraph 3 above to accumulate one additional non-executive directorship.

8. - The Banco de Portugal shall inform the European Banking Authority of the authorisations granted under the provisions of the foregoing paragraph.

9. - Credit institutions shall have rules on the prevention, communication and resolution of conflicts of interest, under terms to be regulated by the Banco de Portugal, which shall be an integral part of the internal assessment policy provided for in Article 30-A(2).

10. - In the case of directorships to be held in an entity subject to the Banco de Portugal’s supervision, the power of opposition shall be exercised within the scope of the authorisation request submitted by the member.

11. - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, in the remaining cases, credit institutions must declare the intention of the persons concerned to the Banco de Portugal at least 30 days before the date foreseen for the taking up of the new functions; should the Banco de Portugal not issue its decision within this period, it shall be understood that it does not oppose the accumulation of directorships.

Article 33-A

Key function holders

1. - Credit institutions shall identify the directorships whose holders, while not belonging to the management or supervisory bodies, perform tasks with significant influence in the management of the credit institution.

2. - The directorships mentioned in the foregoing paragraph include, at least, those with responsibility for the compliance, internal audit, and risk control and management functions of the credit institution, as well as other functions that may be considered influential by the credit institution or defined through the Banco de Portugal regulations.

3. - The suitability of key function holders of credit institutions for the performance of their tasks is subject to assessment; the provisions set out in Articles 30, 30-A, 30-D and 31 to 32-A shall apply mutatis mutandis.

4. - Credit institutions shall be responsible for first checking compliance with the requirements in terms of reputation, professional qualification and availability of key task holders; the results shall be part of the report mentioned in Article 30-A(7).

5. - At any time, the Banco de Portugal may undertake a new suitability assessment of key function holders if it believes that their assessment by the credit institution was clearly insufficient or if justified by any supervenient circumstances.

6. - In the situation provided for in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall apply mutatis mutandis the measures set out in Article 32(4) or set a deadline for credit institutions to take the appropriate measures, and shall communicate its decision to the persons in question and to the credit institution.

Article 46
Use of company or business name

1. Credit institutions having their head office abroad and established in Portugal may use the same company or business name used in their home country.

2. As long as the provisions of the foregoing Articles are complied with, the branch may carry out in Portugal the activities listed in Annex I to Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, that the credit institution is authorised to carry on in its home country and which are included in the programme of operations referred to in Article 49(1)(a).

Irregularities

1. Where the Banco de Portugal ascertains that a branch does not comply, or is at serious risk of not complying, with the Portuguese rules governing the supervision of liquidity, the implementation of monetary policy or the compulsory reporting of information on its activities within Portuguese territory, the Banco de Portugal shall require the institution concerned to remedy that irregular situation or to take measures to avoid the risk of non-compliance.

2. If the branch or the credit institution fails to take the appropriate measures, the Banco de Portugal shall inform the supervisory authority of the home country accordingly and request it to take all appropriate measures promptly.

3. If the supervisory authority of the home country does not take the measures requested, or if they prove inadequate and the branch persists in breaching the rules in force the Banco de Portugal may:

4. The European Commission and the European Banking Authority shall be informed of the number and type of cases in which measures have been taken under paragraph (a) above.

5. Before following the procedure laid down in the foregoing paragraphs, the Banco de Portugal may, in cases of emergency, take any precautionary measures deemed necessary to protect against financial instability liable to seriously threaten the collective interests of depositors, investors and others to whom the branch provides services, including the suspension of payments, promptly informing the supervisory authorities of the EU Member States concerned, the European Commission and the European Banking Authority of such measures.

6. The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall not prevent the competent Portuguese authorities from taking all preventive or repressive measures against the infringement of the rules provided for in paragraph 1, or against the infringement of other rules adopted in the general interest.

7. When an appeal is lodged against a decision pursuant to this Article, it is presumed, unless it is proved otherwise, that the suspension of the decision’s enforcement will seriously injure the public interest.

8. Any precautionary measure under paragraph 5 shall cease to have effect when the home Member State takes reorganisation measures, or when the Banco de Portugal considers that such measures are no longer justified.

Article 54

Responsibility for debts

4 - Without prejudice to paragraph 7, in the absence of a joint decision within two months of receipt of a request under paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal shall take its own decision on whether the branch is significant within a further period of two months.

5 - In taking the decision referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall take into account any views and reservations of the competent authority of the home Member State and, where applicable, the consolidating supervisor.

6 - The decisions referred to in paragraphs 3 to 5 of this Article shall be set out in a document containing the full reasons, shall be transmitted to the competent authorities, and shall be recognised as binding and applied by the competent authorities in the EU Member States concerned.

8 - The designation of a branch as significant shall not affect the supervisory rights and responsibilities of the competent authorities.

9 - The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall also apply mutatis mutandis to the requests sent to the Banco de Portugal by the competent authorities of the home Member State for a branch of a credit institution subject to the supervision of the Banco de Portugal to be considered significant.

10 - If the Banco de Portugal considers the operational steps taken by the credit institution to implement liquidity recovery plans to be inappropriate, it shall refer the matter to the European Banking Authority and request its assistance pursuant to Article 19 of Regulation (EU) 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.

Article 86-A
Organisational and administrative arrangements

1 - Credit institutions shall put in place organisational and administrative arrangements proportionate to the nature, scale and complexity of their business that enable the identification of potential conflicts of interest in an effective way, the adoption of appropriate measures to prevent or minimise the risk of their occurrence, and the adoption of reasonable measures intended to prevent an actual conflict of interest from adversely affecting the interests of their customers.

2 - Where credit institutions find, with reasonable confidence, that the organisational and administrative arrangements in place are not sufficient to prevent risks to customer interests, they shall clearly and accurately disclose to the customer the origin and nature of the conflicts of interest in question as well as the steps taken to mitigate those risks, before the customer purchases any products or services.

3 - The disclosure referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall be made on paper or another durable medium and shall include sufficient detail, taking into account the nature of the customer, to enable the customer to take an informed decision.

4 - The organisational and administrative arrangements implemented by credit institutions pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs shall enable the identification, prevention and mitigation of situations of conflicts of interest arising between customers and credit institutions, including the members of their management bodies, staff, persons providing services to them on a temporary or permanent basis, and any firms with which they are in a control or group relationship, or between one customer and another arising, or likely to arise, from the receipt of inducements from third parties, the credit institution’s own remuneration and other incentive structures.

In particular, they shall ensure that any inducement through remuneration, or sales targets or otherwise do not provide an incentive to said persons to promote their own interests or those of the credit institutions to the detriment of customers.

3 — Credit institutions shall periodically, and at least annually, assess their remuneration policy, and, where necessary, take any appropriate steps to ensure that it gives due consideration to the rights and interests of customers and does not create incentives affecting the interests of customers.

2 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal assesses the conditions to ensure the sound and prudent management of the credit institution, in regard to the suitability of the proposed acquirer, their likely influence on the credit institution and the financial soundness of the plan, against all of the following criteria:

(e) Whether there are reasonable grounds to suspect that, in connection with the proposed acquisition, money laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of Article 1 of Directive (EU) 2015/849 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2015 is being or has been committed or attempted, or where the proposed acquisition could increase the risk thereof.

(b) 20 working days, in all other cases.

7 - The Banco de Portugal shall give written notice to the proposed acquirer of receipt of data and information required under paragraph 5 and of the new date of expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph 4, within two working days as of receipt of the said data and information.

5 - The Banco de Portugal informs the European Commission and the competent authorities of other EU Member States of any acquisition of holdings in a credit institution whenever the participant is a non-national natural person of an EU Member State, or a legal person having its head office in a non-EU country and, by virtue of the holding, the credit institution would become its subsidiary.

Article 104

1 - The acts or facts resulting in the acquisition of a holding which represents 5% or more of the capital or of the voting rights of a credit institution shall be communicated to the Banco de Portugal within 15 days of their occurrence.

2 - In the case foreseen in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall inform the person concerned, within 30 days, if it considers the acquired holding as a qualifying holding.

Article 105
Suspension of voting rights

1 - Without prejudice to other applicable penalties and save for the provisions laid down in the following paragraph, the Banco de Portugal may determine the suspension of the voting rights attached to a qualifying holding in a credit institution, to the extent necessary and appropriate to prevent the influence over the management which has been obtained through the act resulting in the acquisition of or increase in the said holding, provided that any of the following applies:

(a) The person concerned has failed to comply with the duty of communication laid down in Article 102;

(b) The person concerned has acquired or increased a qualifying holding after providing the information required under Article 102 but before the Banco de Portugal has issued its opinion under the terms of Article 103;

2 - If in the situations referred to in subparagraph 1(a) above the missing communication is made before the suspension of voting rights is decided, the Banco de Portugal must act in accordance with the powers entrusted to it by Article 103; if the same communication is made after the decision to suspend voting rights, such suspension will terminate if the Banco de Portugal raises no objection.

3 - In any of the events foreseen in the foregoing paragraphs, the Banco de Portugal may, as an alternative, stipulate that the suspension shall apply to entities which directly or indirectly have voting rights in the participated credit institution, if this measure is deemed adequate to ensure sound and prudent management conditions and does not cause serious restriction to the carrying on of other economic activities.

4 - The Banco de Portugal shall also stipulate the extent to which the suspension covers the voting rights exercised by the participated institution in other credit institutions, with which it is under a direct or indirect control or dominant influence relationship.

5 - The decisions taken under the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall be notified to the person concerned, under the general terms, and communicated to the management body of the participated credit institution and the chair of its shareholders’ meeting, together with the determination that the chair shall act in such a way as to prevent the exercise of the suspended voting rights, according to the provisions of the following paragraph. Where the corporate object of the credit institution includes any type of intermediation in financial instruments, the decisions shall be communicated to the Portuguese Securities Market Commission and where the person concerned is an entity subject to the supervision of the Portuguese Insurance Institute, this institute shall be notified.

6 - The chair of the shareholders’ meeting, to whom the decisions referred to in the foregoing paragraph are communicated, must ensure, in the performance of the functions entrusted to the chair, that the suspended voting rights are not exercised, under any circumstances, in the shareholders’ meeting.

7 - If, notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, it is verified that the suspended voting rights have been exercised, the decision taken can be annulled, save if there is evidence that it would have been taken and would have been similar even if the said rights had not been exercised.

8 - The possibility of annulment may be challenged under the terms of the general law, or by the Banco de Portugal.

9 - If the exercise of the suspended voting rights has been a determining factor in the election of the management or supervisory bodies, the Banco de Portugal shall, while the proceedings to annul the decision are pending, refuse the relevant registrations.

Article 106

Suspension on account of supervenient facts

1 - The Banco de Portugal, on the grounds of relevant facts which come to its knowledge after the acquisition of a qualifying holding, or its increase, in a credit institution and which give rise to grounded fears that the influence exercised by its holder can harm the sound and prudent management of that credit institution, can provide for the suspension of the voting rights corresponding to the said holding.

2 - The decisions taken pursuant to paragraph 1 above shall be subject to the provisions of paragraphs 4 and following of Article 105 mutatis mutandis.
Article 107

1 - Any natural or legal person intending to dispose of a qualifying holding in a credit institution, or to reduce it so that the proportion of the voting rights or of the capital held would fall below any of the thresholds of 20%, one third or 50%, or so that the institution would cease to be its subsidiary, shall inform the Banco de Portugal in advance, indicating the new proportion of the holding.

2 - Where there is a reduction of a qualifying holding in a credit institution to a threshold below 5% of the capital or the voting rights of that credit institution, the Banco de Portugal shall communicate to its holder, within 30 days, whether it considers the resulting shareholding as a qualifying holding.

2 - The total amount of credit granted to all qualifying shareholders and to the companies referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall not exceed, at any time, 30% of the credit institution’s own funds.

3 - The transactions referred to in the foregoing paragraphs shall depend on the approval by a qualified majority of at least two thirds of the members of the credit institution’s management body and on the favourable opinion of its supervisory body.

4 - The provisions of Article 85(2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the transactions referred to in the foregoing paragraphs. The presumption provided for in Article 85(2) is only rebuttable in the cases of relatives by consanguinity or related by affinity in the first degree, or of judicially separated couples.

5 - The provisions of this Article shall not apply to the granting of credit of which the beneficiaries are credit institutions, financial companies or holding companies which are included in the perimeter of supervision on a consolidated basis to which the credit institution concerned is subject, nor to pension fund management companies, insurance undertakings, brokers and other insurance mediators that control or are controlled by any entity included in the same perimeter of supervision.

6 - The amounts of credit referred to in this Article shall always be aggregated for the purposes of calculating the respective limits.

7 - The amount of credit granted, in any form or type, including the provision of guarantees, to a person who holds, directly or indirectly, a qualifying holding in a credit institution and the company

Article 115
Accounting and publication rules

1 - Without prejudice to the powers of the Portuguese Accounting Standards Board (Comissão de Normalização Contabílica) within this scope and to the provisions of the Securities Code, it shall be incumbent on the Banco de Portugal to set forth accounting rules to be applied to institutions subject

2 - Credit institutions shall draw up consolidated accounts according to the provisions of the applicable legislation.

3 - The institutions subject to the supervision of the Banco de Portugal shall publish their accounts under the terms and with the frequency defined in a Notice of the Banco de Portugal, which may require the respective legal certification.

(c) the remuneration policy of natural persons that, on behalf of the credit institution, have direct contact with customers when marketing deposits and credit products, as well as natural persons that are directly or indirectly involved in the management and supervision of said persons, aiming to encourage responsible business conduct, fair treatment of customers, and the prevention of conflicts of interest.

4 - The management and supervisory bodies shall monitor and periodically assess the effectiveness of the credit institutions’ governance arrangements, the adequacy and the implementation of the strategic objectives in the creation and marketing of deposits and credit products, the effectiveness of governance and monitoring procedures in place, and, within the scope of their powers, take appropriate steps to address any deficiencies that may have been detected.

6 - Without prejudice to the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs, compliance reports sent to the management and supervisory bodies shall contain information on the deposits and credit products created and marketed by the credit institution and its marketing strategy, and should be available to the Banco de Portugal, upon request.

7 - Each member of the management and supervisory bodies shall act with honesty, integrity and independence to critically, effectively and proactively assess the decisions of the senior management where necessary and to effectively oversee and monitor management decision-making.

2 - With respect to the management and supervisory bodies, the nomination committee shall:

(e) periodically review the policy of the management body for selection and appointment of senior management and make recommendations to them.

3 - In performing its duties, the nomination committee shall take account of the need to ensure that the management body's decision-making is not controlled by any one individual or small group of individuals in a manner that is detrimental to the interests of the institution as a whole.

4 - The nomination committee shall be able to use any forms of resources that it considers to be appropriate, including external advice, and shall receive appropriate funding to that effect.

5 - The objective and policy for the representation of the underrepresented gender mentioned in Article 435(2)(b) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, as well as the respective implementation, shall be published in compliance with paragraph 2(c) of the same Article.

Article 115-C

Remuneration policy

1 - Credit institutions shall lay down and implement remuneration practices that result from sound and prudent remuneration policies for all their employees, consistent with their risk profile and risk tolerance.

2 - The remuneration policy shall cover at least the following categories of staff whose professional activities have a material impact on the credit institution’s risk profile:

- Members of the management and supervisory bodies;
- Senior management;
- Staff members with responsibility over the credit institution’s material business units;
- Heads of the internal control functions;
- Staff working within a material business unit whose activity is of a kind that has a significant impact on the relevant business unit's risk profile and whose remuneration, in the preceding financial year, is equal to or greater than €500,000 and equal to or greater than the average remuneration awarded to the members of the institution’s management and supervisory bodies and senior management.

3 - The credit institution shall establish and apply the total remuneration policy, including salaries and discretionary pension benefits, for the persons referred to in the foregoing paragraph, in a manner that is appropriate to their size, internal organisation and the nature, scope and complexity of their activities, and which shall:

- Promote and be consistent with a sound and effective risk management, notably by not encouraging risk-taking that exceeds the institution’s level of tolerated risk;
- Be in line with the business strategy, objectives, values and long-term interests of the institution, and incorporate measures to avoid conflicts of interest;
- Grant remuneration to staff performing internal control functions in accordance with achieving the objectives linked to their functions, regardless of the performance of the business areas they control;
- Establish that the remuneration of the heads of the internal control functions is directly overseen by the remuneration committee or, where such a committee has not been established, by the supervisory body;
- Make a clear distinction between criteria for setting basic fixed remuneration, which should primarily reflect relevant professional experience and organisational responsibility for the functions performed, and criteria for the variable remuneration component, based on the credit institution’s sustainable performance and risk-adjusted performance and individual performance;
- Be gender-neutral.

4 - The management body or the remuneration committee, if established, shall submit annually to the approval of the general meeting the remuneration policy concerning the staff mentioned in paragraph 2(a) above.

5 - The management body shall regularly approve and review the remuneration policy concerning the staff mentioned in paragraph 2(b) to (e) above.

6 – The implementation of the remuneration policy shall be, at least annually, subject to central and independent internal review by the remuneration committees, if existing, by the non-executive members of the management body or the members of the supervisory body, with the aim of ensuring compliance with the remuneration policies and procedures adopted by the competent corporate body.

Article 115-D

Remunerations in credit institutions that benefit from extraordinary public financial support

In the case of institutions that benefit from extraordinary public financial support, the remuneration policy shall be subject to the following principles during the intervention period:

(a) No variable remuneration is paid to members of the management body of the institution unless there are serious and objective reasons that would justify such payment;

(b) Remuneration shall be restructured in a manner aligned with sound risk management and long-term growth of the credit institution, including establishing limits to the remuneration of the members of the management body;

(c) Variable remuneration is strictly limited as a percentage of net revenue where it is inconsistent with the maintenance of a sound capital base and timely exit from extraordinary public financial support.

Article 115-E

Variable remuneration components

1 - When defining the variable remuneration components of the staff mentioned in Article 115-C(2), credit institutions shall make sure that such elements do not limit the ability of the institution to strengthen its capital base and shall also take into account all types of current and future risks.

2 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, where the remuneration is performance-related:

(a) The total amount of remuneration is based on a combination of the assessment of the performance of the individual, taking into account financial and non-financial criteria, and of the business unit concerned and of the overall results of the credit institution;

(b) The assessment is set in a multi-year framework in order to ensure that the assessment process is based on longer-term performance and that the actual payment of performance-based components of remuneration is spread over a period which takes account of the underlying business cycle of the credit institution and its business risks;

(c) The measurement of performance used to calculate variable remuneration components includes an adjustment for all types of current and future risks and takes into account the credit institution’s cost of capital and liquidity required.

3 - At least 50% of any variable remuneration component, including the deferred portion, shall consist of balanced proportions of the following:

(a) Shares or equivalent ownership interests, subject to the legal structure of the credit institution;

(b) Share-linked instruments or equivalent non-cash instruments, subject to the legal structure of the credit institution concerned;

(c) Other additional Tier 1 instrument or Tier 2 instruments or other instruments that can be fully converted to Common Equity Tier 1 instruments or written down, which in each case adequately reflect the credit quality of the credit institution and are appropriate to be used for the purposes of variable remuneration.

4 - The Banco de Portugal may, by means of a regulation, place restrictions on the types and characteristics of the instruments mentioned in the foregoing paragraph or prohibit the use of certain instruments, as appropriate.

5 - Without prejudice to the following paragraph, the instruments referred to in paragraph 3 shall be subject to an appropriate retention policy by the credit institution, substantiated in an appropriate period of unavailability through retention by the credit institution, designed to align incentives with the longer-term interests of the institution.

6 - The variable remuneration component, including the deferred portion, is paid or vests only if it is sustainable according to the financial situation of the institution as a whole, and justified on the basis of the performance of the institution, the business unit and the individual concerned.

7 - The credit institution shall defer the payment to the employee of a substantial portion of the variable remuneration component over a period which is not less than four to five years and align it correctly, depending on the business cycle, the nature of the business, its risks and the activities of the member of staff concerned, by at least:

(a) 40% of the variable remuneration component;
(b) 60% in the case of a particularly high variable remuneration component.

8 - The right to the payment of the deferred portion of the variable remuneration shall vest no faster than on a pro-rata payment.

9 - For the members of the management body and senior management of institutions that are significant in terms of their size, internal organisation and the nature, scope and complexity of their activities, the deferral period of the variable remuneration component should not be less than five years.

10 - For the purposes of paragraph 7(b), a variable remuneration component of more than €1,000,000 shall always be considered to be a particularly high amount.

11 - Without prejudice to the general principles of national contract and labour law, the total variable remuneration shall generally be amended in compliance with the following paragraphs where subdued or negative financial performance of the institution occurs, taking into account both current remuneration and reductions in payouts of amounts previously earned.

12 - The total variable remuneration shall be subject to malus or clawback arrangements. The credit institution shall set specific criteria for their application, making sure that such criteria shall in particular cover situations where the staff member:

(a) Participated in or was responsible for conduct which resulted in significant losses to the institution;
(b) Failed to meet appropriate standards of fitness and propriety.
(c) Participated in or was responsible for the marketing of financial products or instruments to retail investors.

13 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph:

(a) Malus shall mean the arrangement through which the institution may fully or partly reduce the variable remuneration that has been deferred and whose payment is not vested yet;
(b) Clawback shall mean the arrangement through which the institution retains the variable remuneration whose payment is already vested.

14 - Payments relating to the early termination of a contract reflect performance achieved over time and do not reward failure or misconduct.

15 - Remuneration relating to compensation of new staff members as a result of the early termination of contracts in previous employment must align with the long-term interests of the credit institution, including the implementation of rules related to performance, retention, deferral and clawback arrangements.

16 - Guaranteed variable remuneration shall occur only when hiring new staff, and where the institution has a sound and strong capital base and is limited to the first year of employment.

17 - The policy on discretionary pension benefits shall be in line with the credit institution’s business strategy, objectives, values and long-term interests.

18 - The discretionary benefits shall take the form of the instruments referred to in paragraph 3 above, and shall be governed by the following:

(a) where the employment relationship terminates before retirement, discretionary pension benefits shall be held by the credit institution for a period of five years, after which remuneration payable shall become vested in the relevant person;

(b) where the person reaches retirement, discretionary pension benefits previously earned and vested shall be paid to the employee after a five-year retention period.

19 - Staff members are required to comply with the rules set out in this Article; namely, they undertake not to use personal hedging strategies that may undermine the risk alignment effects embedded in their remuneration arrangements, and not to be paid variable remuneration through vehicles or methods with a similar effect.

20 - Paragraphs 3, 7, 8, 9 and 18 shall not apply to:

(a) credit institutions that are not large institutions as defined in point (146) of Article 4(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 and whose on-balance-sheet and off-balance-sheet assets are, on average and on an individual basis, equal to or less than €5,000,000,000 over the four-year period immediately preceding the given financial year;

(b) employees whose annual variable remuneration does not exceed €50,000 and does not represent more than one third of that individual’s total annual remuneration.

Article 115-F

Ratio between the fixed and the variable component of the remuneration

1 - Credit institutions shall set the appropriate ratios between the fixed and the variable component of the total remuneration of their staff, as referred to in Article 115-C, where the fixed component represents a sufficiently high proportion of the total remuneration to allow the operation of a fully flexible policy on variable remuneration components, including the possibility to pay no variable remuneration component.

2 - Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraphs 3 and 4, the variable remuneration component shall not exceed 100% of the fixed component of the total remuneration for each individual.

3 - Credit institutions may approve a higher maximum level for the variable remuneration component than established in the foregoing paragraph, provided the overall level of the variable component shall not exceed 200% of the fixed component of the total remuneration for each individual.
4 - Any approval of a higher ratio in accordance with the foregoing paragraph shall be carried out in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) The credit institution shall submit to the general meeting, on the date of the invitation, a detailed proposal for the approval of a maximum ratio for the variable remuneration component, including the proposed maximum ratio, the number of staff affected and their functions, and shall be able to demonstrate that the proposed higher ratio does not conflict with the institution's obligations, especially the requirement to maintain a sound capital base;

(b) The general meeting shall act upon the proposal referred to in the foregoing subparagraph, by a majority of at least 66% provided that at least 50% of the shares or equivalent ownership rights are represented or, failing that, shall act by a majority of 75% of the ownership rights represented;

(c) Staff who are directly concerned by the higher maximum levels of variable remuneration shall not be allowed to exercise, directly or indirectly, any voting rights they may have as shareholders.

5 - The credit institution shall, without delay, inform the Banco de Portugal of the proposal submitted to shareholders and of the decisions adopted, and the Banco de Portugal shall use the information received to benchmark the practices of institutions in that regard and provide the European Banking Authority with that information.

6 - When setting the ratio between the fixed and the variable component of total remuneration, credit institutions may apply a discount rate, calculated in line with the principles set out by the European Banking Authority under the provisions of the second subparagraph of Article 94(1)(g)(iii) of Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, to a maximum of 25% of the total variable remuneration provided it is paid in instruments that are deferred for a period of no less than five years.

Article 115-G

Communication and disclosure of the remuneration policy

1 - The Banco de Portugal shall:

(a) collect:

(i) the information disclosed by credit institutions on remuneration policies and practices in accordance with the criteria for disclosure established in subparagraphs (g), (h), (i) and (k) of Article 450(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013; and

2 - Credit institutions shall regularly review those strategies and processes to ensure that they remain comprehensive and proportionate to the nature, scale and complexity of their activities.
CHAPTER II-C
Risks

Article 115-K
Treatment of risks

1 - The credit institution’s management body has overall responsibility for risk, and shall:

2 - In credit institutions not covered by the foregoing paragraph, the functions of the risk committee may be exercised by the supervisory body, whose members shall have the appropriate knowledge, skills and expertise necessary to carry out those functions.

3 - Where own funds requirements are based on a rating by an External Credit Assessment Institution (ECAI) or based on the fact that an exposure is unrated, this shall not exempt institutions from additionally considering other relevant information for assessing their allocation of internal capital.

4 - Credit institutions shall implement effective systems for the ongoing administration and monitoring of the various credit-risk-bearing portfolios and exposures of institutions, including for identifying and managing problem credits and for making adequate value adjustments and provisions.

5 - Credit institutions shall ensure that diversification of credit portfolios is adequate given an institution's target markets and overall credit strategy.

Article 115-P

Article 115-Q

Securitisation risk

1 - The risks arising from securitisation transactions in relation to which the credit institutions are the investor, originator or sponsor, including reputational risks, such as the ones that may arise in relation to complex structures or products, are evaluated and addressed through appropriate policies and procedures, to ensure that the economic substance of the transaction is fully reflected in the risk assessment and management decisions.

4 - Credit institutions shall also have internal capital adequate for market risks:

(a) In calculating own funds requirements for position risk in accordance with Articles 326 to 350 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, and if netting off their positions in one or more of the equities constituting a stock-index against one or more positions in the stock-index future or other stock-index product, to cover the basis risk of loss caused by the future's or other product's value not moving fully in line with that of its constituent equities;

(b) To hold opposite positions in stock-index futures which are not identical in respect of either their maturity or their composition;

(c) To hold sufficient internal capital against the risk of loss which exists between the time of the initial commitment and the following working day, in the case of the underwriting of debt and equity instruments in which, for the calculation of own funds, the credit institution implements Article 345 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013.

Article 115-S

(a) internal systems;
(b) standardised methodology; or
(c) simplified standardised methodology.

2 - Credit institutions shall adopt systems to assess and monitor the risks arising from potential changes in credit spreads that affect the economic value of equity or the net interest income of an institution's non-trading book activities.

3 - The Banco de Portugal may require:

(a) a credit institution to use the standardised methodology where the internal systems implemented for the purpose of evaluating the risks referred to in paragraph 1 are not satisfactory;
(b) a small and non-complex credit institution as defined in point (145) of Article 4(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, to use the standardised methodology where it considers that the simplified standardised methodology is not adequate to capture interest rate risk arising from non-trading book activities of that credit institution.

Article 115-T

Article 115-U
Liquidity risk

1 - Credit institutions shall have robust strategies, policies, procedures and systems for the identification, measurement, management and monitoring of liquidity risk over an appropriate set of time horizons, including intra-day, so as to ensure that institutions maintain adequate levels of liquidity buffers.

2 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the strategies, policies, procedures and systems shall:

(b) Distinguish between pledged and unencumbered assets that are available at all times, in particular during emergency situations, and also take into account the legal entity in which assets reside, the country where assets are legally recorded either in a register or in an account and their eligibility and shall monitor how assets can be mobilised in a timely manner;

(c) Have regard to existing legal, regulatory and operational limitations to potential transfers of liquidity and unencumbered assets amongst entities, both within and outside the European Economic Area;

(d) Consider different liquidity risk mitigation tools, including a system of limits and liquidity buffers in order to be able to withstand a range of different stress events;

(e) Have an adequately diversified funding structure and access to funding sources, both of which shall be reviewed regularly;

(f) Consider alternative scenarios on liquidity positions and on risk mitigants and review the assumptions underlying decisions concerning the funding position at least annually. These alternative scenarios shall address, in particular, off-balance-sheet items and other contingent liabilities, including those of Securitisation Special Purpose Entities (SSPE) or other special purpose entities, as referred to in Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, in relation to which the credit institution acts as sponsor or provides material liquidity support;

(g) Consider the potential impact of institution-specific, market-wide and combined alternative scenarios. Different time periods and varying degrees of stress conditions shall be considered;

(h) Adjust their strategies, internal policies and limits on liquidity risk, where appropriate in the light of an analysis of the alternative scenarios referred to in subparagraphs (f) and (g).

6 - Credit institutions shall draw up liquidity contingency plans, to be submitted to the management body for approval.

7 – The liquidity recovery plans shall:

(a) Set out adequate strategies and proper implementation measures in order to address possible liquidity shortfalls, including in relation to branches established in another EU Member State;

(b) Consider the alternative scenarios set out in subparagraphs 5(g) and (h);

(c) Be tested by the institutions at least annually, updated on the basis of the outcome of the alternative scenarios set out in subparagraphs 5(g) and (h).

8 - The policies and procedures set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be adjusted to the updates of the liquidity contingency plans to be implemented in accordance with subparagraph 7(c).

9 - Credit institutions shall take the necessary operational steps in advance to ensure that liquidity contingency plans can be implemented immediately, in particular:

(a) Holding collateral immediately available for central bank funding;

(b) Holding collateral where necessary in the currency of another EU Member State, or the currency of a third country to which the credit institution has exposures;

(c) Holding collateral where operationally necessary within the territory of a host Member State or of a third country to whose currency it is exposed.

10- When monitoring the liquidity risk of credit institutions, the Banco de Portugal shall:

(a) Monitor developments in relation to liquidity risk profiles, for example product design and volumes, risk management, funding policies and funding concentrations;
(b) Take effective action where developments in relation to liquidity risk profiles referred to in the foregoing subparagraph may lead to individual institution or systemic instability;
(c) Inform the European Banking Authority about any actions carried out pursuant to the foregoing subparagraph.

Article 115-V
Risk of excessive leverage

1 - Credit institutions shall have policies and procedures in place for the identification, management and monitoring of the risk of excessive leverage.

2 - Indicators for the risk of excessive leverage shall include the leverage ratio determined in accordance with applicable regulations and mismatches between assets and obligations.

3 - Credit institutions shall address the risk of excessive leverage in a precautionary manner by taking due account of potential increases in the risk of excessive leverage caused by reductions of the institution's own funds, and shall be able to withstand a range of different stress events.

Article 115-W
Supervisory benchmarking of internal approaches for calculating own funds requirements

1 - Credit institutions permitted to use internal approaches for the calculation of risk weighted exposure amounts or own funds requirements except for operational risk shall annually report to the Banco de Portugal the results of the calculations of their internal approaches for their exposures or positions that are included in the benchmark portfolios, pursuant to Article 78(8) of Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, together with an explanation of the methodologies used to produce them.

2 - The results of the calculations referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall be submitted to the European Banking Authority in accordance with the template developed by the European Banking Authority.

3 - Where the Banco de Portugal chooses to develop specific benchmark portfolios, other than those referred to in paragraph 1, it shall do so in consultation with the European Banking Authority and ensure that credit institutions report the results of the calculations separately for the benchmark portfolios under Article 78(8) of Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, and for the Banco de Portugal.

4 - On the basis of the information submitted by credit institutions in accordance with paragraph 1, The Banco de Portugal shall monitor the range of risk-weighted exposure amounts or own funds requirements, as applicable, except for operational risk, for the exposures or transactions in the benchmark portfolio resulting from the internal approaches of those institutions.

5 - At least annually, the Banco de Portugal shall make an assessment of the quality of those approaches paying particular attention to:

(a) Those approaches that exhibit significant differences in own funds requirements for the same exposure;

(b) Approaches where there is particularly high or low diversity, and also where there is a significant and systematic under-estimation of own funds requirements.

6 - Where particular credit institutions diverge significantly from the majority of their peers or where there is little commonality in approach leading to a wide variance of results, the Banco de Portugal shall investigate the reasons therefor and, if it can be clearly identified that an institution’s approach leads to an underestimation of own funds requirements which is not attributable to differences in the underlying risks of the exposures or positions, shall take corrective action.

7 – In accordance with the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall ensure that corrective actions maintain the objectives of an internal approach and therefore do not:

(a) Lead to standardisation or preferred methods;
(b) Create wrong incentives; or
(c) Cause herd behaviour.

CHAPTER II-D
System to report irregularities

Article 115-X
Internal reporting of irregularities

1 – Credit institutions shall implement the necessary specific, independent and autonomous procedures in order to receive, analyse and archive reporting of serious irregularities relating to the management and accounting procedures or internal control of the credit institution, and strong evidence of breach of the duties set out in this Legal Framework or in Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013.

2 – The procedures referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall guarantee the confidentiality of information received and the protection of the personal data of both the persons who report breaches and the accused person, in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament of the Council of 27 April 2016, and other data protection legislation.

3 – The persons who, due to the functions they perform in the credit institution, namely those who perform functions in internal audit, risk management and compliance units, take notice of any serious irregularities they may become aware of within the management and accounting procedures, or internal control of the credit institution, or evidence of breach of the duties set out in this Legal Framework or in Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 that may give rise to the credit institution’s financial distress, must communicate those irregularities to the supervisory body under the terms and in accordance with the safeguards laid down in this Article.

4 – The communications received under the terms of the foregoing paragraphs shall be analysed, and a reasoned report shall be drawn up, containing the measures adopted or justification for not having adopted any measures.

5 – The communications referred to in this Article, as well as the reports produced, shall be kept on paper or another durable medium that allows the integral and unchanged reproduction of the respective information for five years, the provisions of Article 120 being applicable.
6 – The communications under the terms of the foregoing paragraphs, per se, may not be used as grounds for disciplinary, criminal or civil liability submitted by the credit institution against the persons who report breaches, except where these are manifestly ill-founded.

7 – Credit institutions shall submit to the Banco de Portugal an annual report with the description of the mechanisms referred to in paragraph 1 and a summary account of the communications received and the way the complaint was dealt with.

8 – The Banco de Portugal shall approve the necessary regulations to ensure the implementation of the rules set out in this Article.

CHAPTER III

1 - In the performance of its supervisory functions, it shall in particular be incumbent on the Banco de Portugal to:

(a) monitor the activity of credit institutions, financial holding companies and mixed financial holding companies;

(b) oversee compliance with the rules governing the activity of credit institutions, financial holding companies and mixed financial holding companies, namely assessment of compliance with the requirements of this Legal Framework and Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

(d) [Repealed].

(e) issue recommendations;

(f) regulate the business of the entities it supervises;

(g) impose penalties on infringements.

2 - The Banco de Portugal may require the carrying out of special audits by independent entities appointed by it, at the expense of the audited institution.

Article 116-A
Supervisory review process

1 - Taking into account the technical criteria set out in the following Article, the Banco de Portugal shall review the arrangements, strategies, processes, and mechanisms implemented by credit institutions to comply with this Legal Framework and Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, and evaluate:

(a) risks to which the credit institutions are or might be exposed;

(b) [repealed].
(c) risks revealed by stress testing taking into account the nature, scale and complexity of a credit institution’s activities.

2 - On the basis of the review and evaluation referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall determine whether the arrangements, strategies, processes and mechanisms implemented by credit institutions and the own funds and liquidity held by them ensure a sound management and the coverage of their risks.

3 - The Banco de Portugal shall establish, taking into account the principle of proportionality, the frequency and intensity of the review and evaluation referred to in paragraph 1, having regard to the size, systemic importance, nature, scale and complexity of the activities of the credit institution concerned.

4 - The review and evaluation referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall be updated at least on an annual basis for credit institutions covered by the examination programme referred to in Article 116-AC.

5 - [Repealed].

6 - The Banco de Portugal shall carry out the review and evaluation referred to in paragraph 1, in accordance with the principle of proportionality and the corresponding criteria disclosed in accordance with Article 93-A(1)(c).

7 - The Banco de Portugal may adapt the methodologies applied in its review and evaluation to consider institutions with a similar risk profile, notably resulting from similar business models or geographical location of exposures.

8 - The methodologies adapted in accordance with the foregoing paragraph:

(a) may include risk-oriented benchmarks and quantitative indicators;
(b) shall allow for due consideration of the specific risks that each institution may be exposed to; and
(c) shall not affect measures of a specific nature imposed on the credit institution in accordance with Article 116-C.

9 - The Banco de Portugal shall notify the European Banking Authority when using methodologies adapted in accordance with paragraph 7.

10 - The Banco de Portugal shall inform the European Banking Authority without delay about the results of the review and evaluation referred to in this Article whenever such review and evaluation show that a credit institution may pose systemic risk within the meaning of Article 23 of Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.

11 - If, in the course of a process of review and evaluation, in particular of governance arrangements, business model or activities of a credit institution, the Banco de Portugal considers that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that, in connection with that credit institution, money laundering or terrorist financing is being or has been committed or attempted, or there is an increased risk thereof, it shall immediately notify:

(a) the European Banking Authority; and
(b) other authorities or bodies responsible for overseeing anti-money laundering and terrorist financing legislation relating to the credit institution.

12 - In the event of a potential increased risk of money laundering or terrorist financing, the Banco de Portugal shall:
(a) align its position with the authorities or bodies responsible for overseeing anti-money laundering and terrorist financing legislation relating to the credit institution; and

(b) immediately and jointly with the entities referred to in the foregoing subparagraph, notify the European Banking Authority of the common assessment.

13 - For the purposes of paragraph 11 and the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall, if necessary, take appropriate measures in accordance with this Legal Framework.

Article 116-B

Technical criteria on review and evaluation by the Banco de Portugal

1 - In addition to credit, market and operational risks, the review and evaluation performed by the Banco de Portugal pursuant to Article 116-A shall include at least:

(a) the results of the stress test carried out by the credit institutions applying an internal ratings-based (IRB) approach;

(b) the exposure to and management of concentration risk by credit institutions, including their compliance with the regulations on large exposures;

(c) the robustness, suitability and manner of application of the policies and procedures implemented by credit institutions regarding the management of the residual risk associated with the use of recognised credit risk mitigation techniques;

(d) the extent to which the own funds held by a credit institution in respect of assets which it has securitised are adequate having regard to the economic substance of the transaction, including the degree of risk transfer achieved;

(e) the exposure to, and measurement and management of liquidity risks by credit institutions, including the development of alternative scenario analyses, the management of risk mitigants, including the level, composition and quality of liquidity buffers, and effective contingency plans;

(f) the impact of diversification effects and how such effects are factored into the risk measurement system; and

(g) the results of stress tests carried out by institutions using an internal model to calculate capital requirements for market risks;

(h) the geographical location of institutions' exposures;

(i) the business model of credit institutions;

(j) [repealed].

2 - For the purposes of paragraph 1(e), the Banco de Portugal shall regularly carry out a comprehensive assessment of the overall liquidity risk management by credit institutions and promote the development of sound internal methodologies, having regard to the role played by institutions in the financial markets and the potential impact of their decisions on the stability of the financial system in all other Member States concerned.

3 - The Banco de Portugal shall monitor whether a credit institution has provided implicit support to a securitisation.

4 - If a credit institution is found to have provided implicit support on more than one occasion, the Banco de Portugal shall take appropriate measures reflective of the increased expectation that it will provide future support to its securitisation thus failing to achieve a significant transfer of risk.

5 - For the purposes of the decision to be made under Article 116-A(2), the Banco de Portugal shall consider whether the value adjustments and provisions taken for positions in the trading book, as set out in the regulations applicable on the adequacy of own funds to market risks, enable the credit institution to sell or hedge its positions within a short period without incurring material losses under normal market conditions.

6 - The review and evaluation performed by the Banco de Portugal shall include the exposure of credit institutions to the risk of excessive leverage as reflected by indicators of excessive leverage, including the leverage ratio determined in accordance with the applicable regulations.

7 - The Banco de Portugal shall take into account the business model of credit institutions in determining the adequacy of the leverage ratio of credit institutions and of the arrangements, strategies, processes and mechanisms implemented by institutions to manage the risk of excessive leverage.

8 - The review and evaluation conducted by the Banco de Portugal shall include governance arrangements of credit institutions, their corporate culture and values, and the ability of members of the management body to perform their duties.

9 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall, at least, have access to agendas and supporting documents for meetings of the management body and its committees, and the results of the internal or external evaluation of performance of the management body.

10 - The review and evaluation performed by the Banco de Portugal shall include the exposure of credit institutions to the interest rate risk arising from non-trading book activities.

11 - For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall exercise its supervisory powers in at least the following circumstances:

(a) where an institution’s economic value of equity as referred to in Article 115-S(1) declines by more than 15% of its Tier 1 capital as a result of a sudden and unexpected change in interest rates as set out in any of the six supervisory shock scenarios applied to interest rates;

(b) where an institution’s net interest income as referred to in Article 115-S(1) experiences a large decline as a result of a sudden and unexpected change in interest rates as set out in any of the two supervisory shock scenarios applied to interest rates.

12 - The provisions of the foregoing paragraph shall not apply where the Banco de Portugal considers, on the basis of the review and evaluation referred to in paragraph 10, that:

(a) the credit institution’s management of interest rate risk arising from non-trading book activities is adequate; and

(b) the credit institution is not excessively exposed to interest rate risk arising from non-trading book activities.

13 - For the purposes of paragraphs 11 and 12, the term “supervisory powers” means:

(a) the powers referred to in Article 116-C; or

(b) the power to specify modelling and parametric assumptions, other than those identified by the European Banking Authority under the relevant regulations, to be reflected by institutions in their calculation of the economic value of equity under Article 115-S(1).

Article 116-C

Corrective measures

1 - The Banco de Portugal may require any credit institution that does not meet, or, according to information available, will not meet within one year, the requirements regulating its activity, to take the necessary action or steps at an early stage to address the situation.

2 - For those purposes, the Banco de Portugal may determine the following measures, inter alia:

(a) require credit institutions to hold additional own funds in excess of the requirements laid down in Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, in accordance with the following Article;

(b) require the reinforcement of the arrangements, processes, procedures, provisions, mechanisms and strategies implemented for the purposes of corporate governance, internal control and assessment of risks;

(c) require credit institutions to submit a plan to restore compliance with supervisory requirements and set a deadline for its implementation, including improvements to the plan submitted;

(d) require credit institutions to apply a specific provisioning policy or treatment of assets in terms of own funds requirements;

(e) restrict or limit the business, operations or network of credit institutions, or to request the divestment of business that poses excessive risks to their soundness;

(f) require the reduction of the risk inherent in the business, products and systems of credit institutions, including outsourced activities;

(g) require credit institutions to limit variable remuneration as a percentage of net revenues where it is inconsistent with the maintenance of a sound capital base;

(h) require institutions to use net profits to strengthen own funds;

(i) restrict or prohibit interest and dividend payments by a credit institution to shareholders or holders of Additional Tier 1 instruments where the prohibition does not constitute an event of default of the institution;

(j) impose additional or more frequent reporting requirements, notably reporting on own funds, liquidity and leverage;

(k) impose specific liquidity requirements, including restrictions on maturity mismatches between assets and liabilities;

(l) require additional disclosures.

3 - [Repealed].

4 - [Repealed].

5 - For the purposes of paragraph 2(j), the Banco de Portugal may impose additional or more frequent reporting requirements where:

(a) the requirements are appropriate and proportionate regarding the purpose for which the information is required; and

(b) the information to be reported is not duplicative.

6 - For the purposes of Articles 116-A to 116-F and 116-AC to 116-I, any additional information shall be deemed duplicative where the same or substantially similar information has already been otherwise reported to the Banco de Portugal or may be produced by the Banco de Portugal.

7 - The Banco de Portugal shall not require any credit institution to report additional information where it has previously received it in a different format or level of granularity, unless that different format or granularity prevents the Banco de Portugal from producing information of the same quality. and reliability as the additional information to be required.

8 - The foregoing paragraphs shall also apply to financial holding companies and mixed financial holding companies in the European Union subject to the supervision of the Banco de Portugal.

Article 116-D
Additional own funds requirement

1 - The Banco de Portugal shall impose the additional own funds requirement referred to in paragraph 2(a) of the foregoing Article where, based on its review and evaluation, it determines that:

(a) the credit institution is exposed to risks or elements of risk that are not covered or not sufficiently covered, in accordance with paragraphs 3 to 7, by the own funds requirements imposed on own funds, large exposures and leverage, and to securitisation laid down in Parts Three, Four and Seven of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 and Chapter 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/2402 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2017 respectively;

(b) the credit institution does not meet the control and internal capital requirements set out in Article 14(1)(f) to (i) and Article 14(2), Article 17(2) and (3) and Article 115-J of this Legal Framework, on large exposures as laid down in Article 393 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, and it is unlikely that other supervisory measures would be sufficient to ensure that those requirements can be met within an appropriate timeframe;

(c) the adjustments to the prudent valuation taken for position in the trading book, under Article 116-B(5), are deemed to be insufficient to enable the credit institution to sell or hedge out its positions within a short period without incurring material losses under normal market conditions;

(d) the Banco Portugal’s evaluation of the use of internal approaches provided for in Article 116-AE(6) and (7) reveals that the non-compliance with the requirements for the application of the permitted internal approach will likely lead to inadequate own funds requirements;

(e) the credit institution repeatedly fails to comply with the guidelines issued to build up or maintain an adequate level of additional own funds;

(f) there are other specific situations of the credit institution that raise reasoned material supervisory concerns.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall only impose the additional own funds requirement referred to in paragraph 2(a) of the foregoing Article to cover the risks incurred by the individual credit institution due to its activities, including the risks reflecting the impact of certain economic and market developments on the risk profile of the credit institution.

3 – For the purposes of paragraph 1(a), risks or elements of risk shall be considered not covered or insufficiently covered by the aforementioned own funds requirements laid down in European Union law where the amounts, types and distribution of capital considered adequate by the Banco de Portugal, taking into account its review of the assessment carried out by credit institutions in accordance with Article 115-J(1), are higher than the own funds requirements laid down in the said EU legislation.

4 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall assess, considering the risk profile of each individual credit institution, the risks to which this institution is exposed, including:

(a) risks specific to the credit institution or elements of such risks that are explicitly excluded from or not explicitly addressed by the own funds requirements laid down in the legislation referred to in paragraph 1(a);

(b) risks specific to the credit institution or elements of such risks likely to be underestimated despite compliance with the applicable requirements laid down in the legislation referred to in paragraph 1(a).

5 – Subparagraph (b) of the foregoing paragraph shall not apply to where those risks or elements of thereof are subject to transitional arrangements or grandfathering provisions laid down in this Legal Framework or in Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013.

6 – For the purposes of paragraph 3, the capital considered adequate shall cover all risks or elements of risks identified as material, according to the assessment laid down in paragraph 4, which are not covered or not sufficiently covered by the own funds requirements referred to in paragraph 1(a).

7 – Interest rate risk arising from non-trading book positions may be considered material at least in the cases referred to in Article 116-B(11), unless the Banco de Portugal’s review and evaluation conclude that the credit institution’s management of interest rate risk arising from non-trading book activities is adequate and that the credit institution is not excessively exposed to interest rate risk arising from non-trading book activities.

8 – Where additional own funds are required to cover risks other than the risk of excessive leverage not sufficiently covered by the leverage ratio requirement laid down in Article 92(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, the Banco de Portugal shall determine the level of additional own funds required as the difference between the capital considered adequate under paragraphs 3 to 7 and the own funds requirements set out in Parts Three and Four of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 and Chapter 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/2402 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2017.

9 – Where additional own funds are required to cover the risk of excessive leverage not sufficiently covered by the leverage ratio requirement laid down in Article 92(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, the Banco de Portugal shall determine the level of additional own funds required as the difference between the capital considered adequate under paragraphs 3 to 7 and the own funds requirements set out in Parts Three and Seven of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013.

10 – The credit institution shall meet the additional own funds requirement to cover risks other than the risk of excessive leverage as follows:

(a) at least three quarters of the additional own funds requirement is met with Tier 1 capital;

(b) at least three quarters of the Tier 1 capital referred to in the foregoing subparagraph shall be composed of Common Equity Tier 1 capital.

11 – The credit institution shall meet the additional own funds requirement to cover the risk of excessive leverage with Tier 1 capital.

12 – The Banco de Portugal may require the credit institution to meet the additional own funds requirement with a higher portion of Tier 1 capital or Common Equity Tier 1 capital, where necessary, and having regard to the specific circumstances of the credit institution.

13 – Compliance with the additional own funds requirement to cover risks other than the risk of excessive leverage shall not be possible with own funds used to meet any of the following:

(a) requirements for Common Equity Tier 1, Tier 1 capital and total capital set out in Article 92(1)(a), (b) and (c) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 respectively;
(b) the combined buffer requirement;
(c) the Banco de Portugal’s guidance on additional own funds, where that guidance refers to risks other than the risk of excessive leverage.

14 – Compliance with the additional own funds requirement for the risk of excessive leverage not sufficiently covered by the leverage ratio requirement laid down in Article 92(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 shall not be possible with own funds that are used to meet any of the following:

(a) the own funds requirement for the leverage ratio set out in Article 92(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;
(b) the leverage ratio buffer requirement referred to in Article 92(1-A) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;
(c) the Banco de Portugal’s guidance on additional own funds, where that guidance refers to risks of excessive leverage.

15 – The Banco de Portugal’s decision shall be reasoned in writing to each credit institution, at least by giving a clear account of the full assessment of the elements referred to in the foregoing paragraphs, including, in the case referred to in paragraph 1(e), a specific statement of the reasons for which the imposition of guidance on additional own funds is no longer considered sufficient.

Guidance on additional own funds

1 – Pursuant to the strategies and assessment processes referred to in Article 115-J, credit institutions shall maintain their internal capital at an adequate level of own funds that is sufficient to cover all the risks that individual institutions are exposed to and to ensure the absorption of potential losses resulting from stress scenarios, including those identified under the supervisory stress test.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall regularly review the level of internal capital set by each credit institution according to the foregoing paragraph, as part of its supervisory review and evaluation, including the results of the stress tests, determining, for each credit institution, the overall level of own funds it considers appropriate.

3 – The Banco de Portugal shall communicate its guidance to credit institutions on additional own funds, corresponding to own funds that, as applicable, are needed to reach the overall level of own funds that the Banco de Portugal considers appropriate under the terms of the foregoing paragraph, and that exceed the amount of own funds required under:

(a) the own funds requirement imposed on own funds, large exposures and leverage laid down in Parts Three, Four and Seven of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;
(b) the leverage ratio buffer the ratio laid down in Article 92(1-A) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;
(c) the own funds requirements for securitisation laid down in Chapter 2 of Regulation (EU) No

(d) the combined own funds requirement and the additional own funds requirement laid down in Article 138-B(2)(g) and Article 116-C(2)(a) respectively.

4 – The guidance on additional own funds:

(a) shall be specific to each credit institution; and

(b) may cover risks addressed by the additional own funds requirements imposed only to the extent that it covers aspects of those risks that are not covered under that requirement.

5 – Compliance with the Banco de Portugal’s guidance on additional own funds to cover risks other than the risk of excessive leverage shall not be possible with own funds used to meet any of the following:

(a) requirements for Common Equity Tier 1, Tier 1 capital and total capital set out in Article 92(1)(a), (b) and (c) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 respectively;

(b) the additional own funds requirement imposed by the Banco de Portugal to cover risks other than the risk of excessive leverage under the previous Article; and

(c) the combined buffer requirement laid down in Article 138-B(2)(g).

6 – Compliance with the Banco de Portugal’s guidance on additional own funds to cover the risk of excessive leverage shall not be possible with own funds used to meet any of the following:

(a) the own funds requirement for the leverage ratio set out in Article 92(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

(b) the requirement imposed by the Banco de Portugal in the context of the foregoing Article to cover the risk of excessive leverage; and

(c) the leverage ratio buffer requirement referred to in Article 92(1-A) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013.

7 – The provisions of Articles 138-AAA and 138-AB shall not apply in the event of non-compliance with the Banco de Portugal’s additional own funds guidance where the credit institution complies with:

(b) the additional own funds requirement laid down in Article 116-C(2)(a);

(c) where relevant, the combined buffer requirement or the leverage ratio buffer requirement referred to in Article 138-B(2)(g) and Article 92(1-A) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 respectively.

Article 116-F

Notification to the resolution authority

The Banco de Portugal, as the authority responsible for the supervision on an individual or consolidated basis of a credit institution, shall notify the Single Resolution Board, where the latter is, in accordance with the applicable law, the resolution authority of that credit institution, of the determination of the additional own funds requirement and of any guidance on additional own funds.

Article 116-G

Individual recovery plans

1 – Credit institutions that are not part of a group subject to consolidated supervision by a supervisory authority of an EU Member State shall prepare a recovery plan.

2 – The credit institution’s recovery plan shall be approved by its management body and submitted to the Banco de Portugal.

3 – The recovery plan shall identify the measures which could be adopted to correct a situation of a credit institution which is or is likely to be in financial distress in a timely manner, namely under any of the circumstances justifying the application of corrective measures.

4 – The recovery plan shall:

   (a) contemplate a range of scenarios of severe macroeconomic and financial stress relevant to the credit institution's specific conditions including system-wide events and stress specific to individual legal persons and to groups;

   (b) not assume access to extraordinary public financial support;

   (c) without prejudice to the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, include, where applicable, an analysis of how and when the credit institution may, in the conditions addressed by the plan, apply for the use of the Banco de Portugal facilities and identify those assets which would be expected to qualify as collateral.

5 – The content of the resolution plan shall not bind the Banco de Portugal nor grant third parties or the credit institution any right to the implementation of the measures provided for therein.

6 – The credit institution may, under a decision of its management body notified to the Banco de Portugal in timely manner:

   (a) take action under its recovery plan regardless of the failure to comply with the relevant indicators;

   (b) refrain from taking the action provided for in the recovery plan if considered inappropriate in the circumstances of the situation.

7 – If the credit institution legally obliged to submit a recovery plan to the Banco de Portugal pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 carries out any financial intermediation activity or issues financial instruments admitted to trading on a regulated market, the Banco de Portugal shall inform the Portuguese Securities Market Commission of the respective recovery plan.

8 – Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal may require any other institution subject to its supervision to submit a recovery plan, depending on its relevance to the national financial system, namely the type provided for in Article 117-B.

6 - If a credit institution has received permission to apply an approach for the calculation of own funds requirements that requires prior permission from the Banco de Portugal in accordance with the applicable regulations, but does not meet the requirements for applying that approach anymore, the Banco de Portugal shall require the institution to either demonstrate that the effect of non-compliance is immaterial, or present a plan for the timely restoration of compliance with the requirements and set a deadline for its implementation. The Bank shall require improvements to the plan if it is unlikely to result in full compliance or if the deadline is inappropriate.

Article 132-A

1 - Where a credit institution, the parent undertaking of which is a credit institution, a mixed financial holding company or a financial holding company having its head office in a third country, is not subject to supervision on a consolidated basis on terms equivalent to those provided for in this Section, it should be checked whether the credit institution is subject to equivalent supervision by a third-country supervisory authority.

(a) at the request of the parent undertaking;
(b) at the request of any of the entities subject to supervision authorised in the EU;
(c) on its own initiative.

4 - The Banco de Portugal shall consult the other supervisory authorities of the subsidiaries mentioned and the European Banking Authority.

5 - In the absence of equivalent supervision, Member States shall similarly apply the provisions of this Section.

6 - As an alternative to the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, where the Banco de Portugal is the authority responsible and after consulting the authorities referred to in paragraph 3, it may apply other appropriate methods to achieve the objectives of supervision on a consolidated basis, and in particular require the establishment of a financial holding company or a mixed financial holding company having its head office in the EU and apply to it the provisions on supervision on a consolidated basis.

7 - In the case mentioned in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall notify the supervisory authorities referred to in paragraph 3, the European Commission and the European Banking Authority about the methods applied.

(a) would be incompatible with a mandatory requirement to separate activities imposed by the rules or supervisory authorities of the third country where the ultimate parent undertaking of the third-country group has its head office; or

(b) would lead to less effective resolvability than in the case of two EU intermediate parent undertakings in accordance with a review carried out by the competent resolution authority of the EU intermediate parent undertaking.

3 - Where none of the institutions referred to in paragraph 1 is a credit institution, or the second EU intermediate parent undertaking has to be established in respect of investment activities in order to comply with a mandatory requirement referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the EU intermediate parent undertaking or the second EU intermediate parent undertaking may be an investment firm.

4 – Credit institutions shall not use Common Equity Tier 1 capital that is maintained to meet the combined buffer requirement for the purposes of meeting any of the following:

(a) the own funds requirements set out in Article 92(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

(b) the additional own funds requirements imposed pursuant to Article 116-D to address risks other than the risk of excessive leverage;

(c) the guidance communicated in accordance with Article 116-E to address risks other than the risk of excessive leverage;

(d) the requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities for G-SIIs and for own funds and eligible liabilities for non-EU G-SIIs set out in Articles 92-A and 92-B of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, where risk-based;

(e) the minimum requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities set out in Articles 138-AV to 138-AX, 138-BD, 138-BF and 138-BI(1), where risk-based.

5 – Credit institutions shall not use Common Equity Tier 1 capital that is maintained to meet one of the elements of the combined buffer requirement to meet the other applicable elements of its combined buffer requirement.
SECTION II

Article 138-D
Capital conservation buffer

1 – Credit institutions shall maintain a capital conservation buffer of Common Equity Tier 1 capital equal to 2.5% of their total risk exposure amount on an individual and consolidated basis, as applicable.

2 – [Repealed.]

3 – Credit institutions failing to meet fully the requirement under paragraph 1 shall be subject to the restrictions set out in Article 138-AA(2) to (4).

SECTION III
INSTITUTION-SPECIFIC COUNTERCYCLICAL CAPITAL BUFFER

Article 138-E
Countercyclical buffer

1 – Credit institutions shall maintain an institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer of Common Equity Tier 1 capital, equivalent to their total risk exposure amount multiplied by the countercyclical buffer rates calculated in accordance with Articles 138-L and 138-M on an individual and consolidated basis, as applicable.

2 – [Repealed.]

3 – Credit institutions failing to meet fully the requirement under paragraph 1 shall be subject to the restrictions set out in Article 138-AA(2) to (4).

Article 138-F
Buffer guide

1 – The Banco de Portugal calculates for every quarter the buffer guide as a basis for setting the countercyclical buffer rate in accordance with Article 138-G(1).

2 – In setting the buffer guide the Banco de Portugal must take into account the following principles:

(a) reflect, in a meaningful way, the credit cycle and the risks due to excess credit growth in Portugal;
(b) take into account the specificities of the national economy;
(c) be based on the deviation of the ratio of credit to gross domestic product (GDP) from its long-term trend, taking into account, inter alia:

(i) an indicator of growth of levels of credit within Portugal and, in particular, an indicator reflective of the changes in the ratio of credit granted in Portugal to GDP;
(ii) the current guidance maintained by the European Systemic Risk Board regarding the measurement and calculation of deviation from the long-term trends of the credit-to-GDP ratio and calculation of the buffer guides.

Article 138-G
Setting the countercyclical buffer rate

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall assess the intensity of cyclical systemic risk and the appropriateness of the countercyclical buffer rate for Portugal on a quarterly basis and set or adjust that percentage, if necessary, taking into account the following:

(a) the buffer guide calculated in accordance with the foregoing paragraph;
(b) the current guidance maintained by the European Systemic Risk Board in accordance with:

(i) the principles to guide designated authorities when exercising their judgment as to the appropriate countercyclical buffer rate, to ensure that they adopt a sound approach in assessing the relevant macroeconomic cycles and to promote sound and consistent decision-making across Member States;
(ii) the variables that indicate the existence of system-wide risk associated with periods of excessive credit growth in the financial system, namely the relevant credit-to-GDP ratio and its deviation from the long-term trend, and on other relevant factors, including the treatment of economic developments within individual sectors of the economy, that should inform the decisions on the appropriate countercyclical buffer rate;
(iii) the variables, including qualitative criteria, used to indicate that the countercyclical buffer should be maintained, reduced or fully released;
(c) any other elements that the Banco de Portugal considers relevant for addressing cyclical systemic risk.

2 – The countercyclical buffer rate shall be between 0% and 2.5% of the total risk exposure amount in Portugal, calibrated in steps of 0.25 percentage points or multiples thereof.

3 – Where justified on the basis of the considerations set out in paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal may set a countercyclical buffer rate higher than 2.5% of the total risk exposure amount.

Article 138-H
Deadline for applying the countercyclical buffer

1 – Where the Banco de Portugal sets the countercyclical buffer rate above zero for the first time, or where, thereafter, it increases it, that increased buffer rate shall apply for the purposes of calculating their institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer 12 months after the date of the announcement in accordance with Article 138-I, unless the Banco de Portugal determines that a shorter deadline for application shall be justified on the basis of exceptional circumstances.

2 – If the Banco de Portugal reduces the existing countercyclical buffer rate, it shall also announce an indicative period during which no increase in the buffer rate is expected.

Article 138-I
Disclosures regarding the countercyclical buffer

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall disclose on its website at least the following information on a quarterly basis:

(a) the applicable countercyclical buffer rate;
(b) the relevant credit-to-GDP ratio and its deviation from the long-term trend;
(c) the buffer guide calculated in accordance with Article 138-F;
(d) the justification for that buffer rate;
(e) where the countercyclical buffer rate is increased, the date from which the credit institutions must apply that buffer rate for the purposes of calculating their institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer;

(f) where the date referred to in the foregoing subparagraph is less than 12 months after the date of the announcement under this paragraph, a reference to the exceptional circumstances that justify that shorter deadline for application;

(g) where the countercyclical buffer rate is decreased, the indicative period during which no increase in the buffer rate is expected, together with a justification for that period.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall take all reasonable steps to coordinate the timing of the announcement referred to in the foregoing paragraph with the designated authorities of the other Member States.

3 – The Banco de Portugal shall notify the European Systemic Risk Board of any changes to the quarterly setting of the countercyclical buffer rate and the information referred to in paragraph 1.

Article 138-J
Recognition of the countercyclical buffer rate

1 – The Banco de Portugal may recognise a countercyclical buffer rate higher than of 2.5% of the total risk exposure amount, set by a designated authority in an EU Member State responsible for setting that rate or by a relevant third-country authority with that responsibility, for the purposes of calculating the institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer.

2 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall publish on its website recognition of the countercyclical buffer rate higher than 2.5% of the total risk exposure amount, including the following:

(a) the applicable countercyclical buffer rate;
(b) the Member State or third countries to which it applies;
(c) where the countercyclical buffer rate is increased, the date from which the new value applies;
(d) where the date referred to in the foregoing paragraph is less than 12 months after the date of the announcement under this paragraph, a reference to the exceptional circumstances that justify that shorter deadline for application.

Article 138-K
Decision on third-country countercyclical buffer rates

1 – The Banco de Portugal may set the countercyclical buffer rate applying to credit institutions for the purposes of calculating the specific countercyclical buffer for exposures to a third country where the relevant authority of that third country:

(a) has not set and published a countercyclical buffer rate applicable to that country;
(b) has set and published a countercyclical buffer rate applicable to that country, but the Banco de Portugal has reasonable grounds to consider that it is not sufficient to protect credit institutions appropriately from the risks of excessive credit growth in that country, in which case it shall set and publish a different buffer rate.

2 – For the purposes of (b) of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall not set a countercyclical buffer rate below the level set by the relevant third-country authority unless that buffer rate exceeds 2.5%, expressed as a percentage of the total risk exposure amount of institutions that have credit exposures in that third country.

3 – Where, pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs, the Banco de Portugal increases the counter cyclical buffer rate, that buffer rate is applicable for the purposes of calculating their institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer 12 months from the date when the buffer rate is announced in accordance with the following paragraph, unless the Banco de Portugal determines that that buffer rate is applicable with a shorter deadline, justified on the basis of exceptional circumstances.

4 – The Banco de Portugal shall publish any setting of a countercyclical buffer rate for a third country pursuant to this Article on its website, including the following information:

(a) the countercyclical buffer rate and the third country to which it applies;
(b) the justification for that countercyclical buffer rate;
(c) where the buffer rate is set above zero for the first time or thereafter is increased, the date from which the credit institutions must apply that increased buffer rate for the purposes of calculating their institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer;
(d) where the date set out in the foregoing paragraph is less than 12 months after the date of the publication under this paragraph, a reference to the exceptional circumstances that justify that shorter deadline.

Article 138-L
Calculation of institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer rate

1 – The institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer rate shall consist of the weighted average of the countercyclical buffer rates that apply in the jurisdictions where the relevant credit exposures of the credit institution are located or are applied for the purposes of this Article by virtue of Article 138-K(1) and (2).

2 – In order to calculate the weighted average referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the credit institutions shall apply to each applicable countercyclical buffer rate its total own funds requirements for credit risk, determined in accordance with Part Three, Titles II and IV of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, that relates to the relevant credit exposures in the jurisdiction in question, divided by its total own funds requirements for credit risk that relates to all of its relevant credit exposures.

3 – If a designated authority of an EU Member State or third country sets a countercyclical buffer rate higher than 2.5% of the total risk exposure amount, the buffer rate set out in the following paragraph shall apply to relevant credit exposures located in that Member State or third country for the purposes of the calculation on a consolidated basis.

4 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, if the Banco de Portugal has recognised the countercyclical buffer rate in accordance with Article 138-J, credit institutions shall apply that buffer rate set by the relevant designated authority; otherwise, a countercyclical buffer rate of 2.5% of the total risk exposure amount shall apply.

5 – Relevant credit exposures shall include all those exposure classes, other than those referred to in Article 112(a) to (f) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, that are subject to:

(a) the own funds requirements for credit risk under Part Three, Title II of that Regulation;
(b) where the exposure is held in the trading book, own funds requirements for specific risk under Part Three, Title IV, Chapter 2 of that Regulation or incremental default and migration risk under Part Three, Title IV, Chapter 5 of that Regulation;
(c) where the exposure is a securitisation, the own funds requirements under Part Three, Title II, Chapter 5 of that Regulation.
6 – Credit institutions shall identify the geographical location of relevant credit exposures.

Article 138-M

Date of application of institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer rate

1 – Where the Banco de Portugal or the designated authorities of other EU Member States determine an increase in the countercyclical buffer rate, it shall apply from the date published by the Banco de Portugal or those authorities on their respective websites.

2 – Where the buffer rate is increased, the countercyclical buffer rates for third countries shall apply 12 months after the date on which a change of that buffer rate is announced by the relevant third-country authorities, without prejudice to those authorities demanding that the changes shall apply to the credit institutions established in the respective countries within shorter period.

3 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, a change in the countercyclical buffer rate for a third country shall be considered to be announced on the date that it is published by the relevant third-country authority in accordance with the applicable national rules.

4 – Where the Banco de Portugal sets or recognises the countercyclical buffer rate for a third country pursuant to Article 138-K or Article 138-J such that that buffer rate increases, the increased buffer rate shall apply from the date specified in Article 138-K(4)(c) or Article 138-J(2)(c).

5 – If the countercyclical buffer rate is reduced, the rate shall apply immediately.

SECTION IV

BUFFERS FOR SYSTEMICALLY IMPORTANT INSTITUTIONS

Identification of the G-SIs

1 – [Repealed.]

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall identify, on a consolidated basis, G-SIs in accordance with a methodology based on the following criteria:

(a) size of the group;
(b) interconnectedness of the group with the financial system;
(c) substitutability of the services or of the financial infrastructure provided by the group;
(d) complexity of the group;
(e) cross-border activity of the group.

3 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the criteria shall receive an equal weighting and shall consist of quantifiable indicators.

4 – The methodology shall produce an overall score for each entity as referred to in Article 138-B(2)(b), which is assessed to allow G-SIs to be identified and allocated into a sub-category as described in Article 138-O.

5 – The Banco de Portugal also uses an additional methodology to identify G-SIs based on the following criteria:

(a) the criteria referred to in paragraph 2(a) to (d);
6 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the criteria shall receive an equal weighting and shall consist of quantifiable indicators.

7 – The indicators of the criteria referred to in paragraph 5(a) shall be the same as the corresponding indicators determined in accordance with paragraph 3.

8 – The methodology shall produce an additional overall score for each entity as referred to in Article 138-B(2)(b), on the basis of which the Banco de Portugal may take the measure of re-allocation of the sub-category of a G-SII referred to in paragraph (3)(c) of the following Article.

Article 138-O
G-SII sub-categories

1 – G-SIIs are allocated into at least five sub-categories under the following criteria:

(a) the lowest boundary and the boundaries between each sub-category shall be determined by the scores under the identification methodology provided for in paragraph 2 of the foregoing Article;

(b) the cut-off scores between adjacent sub-categories shall be defined clearly and be in accordance with the principle that there is a constant linear increase of systemic significance between each sub-category, resulting in a linear increase in the G-SII buffer, with the exception of sub-category five and any added higher sub-category.

2 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, systemic significance is the expected impact exerted by the G-SII’s distress on the global financial market.

3 – Taking into account the sub-categories and the cut-off scores provided for in paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal may, with justification, in the exercise of its supervisory powers, decide to:

(a) re-allocate a G-SII to a higher sub-category;

(b) allocate an entity as referred to in Article 138-B(2)(b) that has an overall score in accordance with the methodology set out in paragraph 2 of the foregoing Article that is lower than the cut-off score of the lowest sub-category to that sub-category or to a higher sub-category, and designate it as a G-SII;

(c) re-allocate a G-SII from a higher sub-category to a lower sub-category, on the basis of the additional G-SII identification score referred to in paragraphs 5 to 8 of the foregoing Article and taking into account the Single Resolution Mechanism.

4 – [Repealed.]

G-SII buffer

1 – Each G-SII shall, on a consolidated basis, maintain a G-SII buffer consisting of Common Equity Tier 1 capital which shall correspond to the sub-category to which the G-SII is allocated, according to the following:

(a) the lowest sub-category shall require a buffer of 1% of the total risk exposure amount;

(b) for subsequent sub-categories, the capital buffer requirement for each sub-category shall increase in gradients of at least 0.5% of the total risk exposure amount;

(c) [repealed.]

Article 138-Q
Identification of the O-SIs

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall be responsible for identifying O-SIs on an individual, sub-consolidated or consolidated basis, as applicable.

2 – O-SIs shall be identified according to an assessment based on at least one of the following criteria:

(a) size;
(b) importance for the economy of the European Union or of Portugal;
(c) significance of cross-border activities;
(d) interconnectedness of the credit institution or group, as applicable, with the financial system.

O-SII buffer

1 – The Banco de Portugal may require each O-SII, on a consolidated, sub-consolidated or individual basis, as applicable, to maintain an O-SII buffer consisting of Common Equity Tier 1 capital of up to 3% of the total risk exposure amount, taking into account the criteria to identify the O-SIs.

2 – When requiring an O-SII buffer to be maintained, the Banco de Portugal shall review that requirement annually and ensure that it does not entail disproportionate adverse effects on the whole or parts of the financial system of other Member States or of the Union, forming or creating an obstacle to the functioning of the internal market.

3 – [Repealed.]

4 – The Banco de Portugal may require each O-SII, on a consolidated, sub-consolidated or individual basis, as applicable, to maintain an O-SII buffer consisting of Common Equity Tier 1 capital of more than 3% of the total risk exposure amount, subject to authorisation from the European Commission.

Article 138-S
Coinciding G-SII and O-SII buffer requirements

1 – Without prejudice to the foregoing Article and the provisions on the systemic risk buffer, where an O-SII is a subsidiary of either a G-SII or an O-SII which is either a credit institution or a group headed by an EU parent credit institution, an EU parent financial holding company or an EU parent mixed financial holding company, and subject to an O-SII buffer on a consolidated basis, the buffer that applies on an individual or sub-consolidated basis to the subsidiary O-SII shall not exceed the lower of:

(a) the sum of the higher of the G-SII or the O-SII buffer rate applicable to the group on a consolidated basis and 1% of the total risk exposure; and

(b) 3% of the total risk exposure amount or the rate that the Commission has authorised to be applied to the group on a consolidated basis in accordance with paragraph 4 of the foregoing Article.

2 – Where a group, on a consolidated basis, is subject to a G-SII buffer and an O-SII buffer, the higher of the two shall apply.
Article 138-T

Notification, review and disclosure regarding G-SIIs and O-SIIs

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall notify the European Systemic Risk Board of the following:

(a) the company or business name of the G-SIIs and O-SIIs; and
(b) the sub-category to which each G-SII is allocated, including the reasons for the decision to re-allocate or not to re-allocate sub-categories.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall disclose on its website:

(a) an updated list of identified systemically important institutions; and
(b) the sub-category into which each identified G-SII is allocated.

3 – The Banco de Portugal shall notify the European Systemic Risk Board, one or three months before the publication of its decision to maintain an O-SII buffer, in accordance with Article 138-R(1) or (4) respectively, including:

(a) the reasons for the effectiveness and proportionality of the O-SII buffer to mitigate the risk;
(b) the assessment of the likely positive or negative impact of the O-SII buffer on the internal market, based on the information available;
(c) the O-SII buffer rate that it wishes to set.

4 – The Banco de Portugal shall review annually the identification of G-SIIs and O-SIIs, under Article 138-N and Article 138-Q and the G-SII allocation into the respective sub-categories, under Article 138-O.

5 – The Banco de Portugal shall report the result of the annual review mentioned in the foregoing paragraph to the G-SIIs and the O-SIIs concerned, as well as to the European Systemic Risk Board, and shall disclose the updated list under paragraph 2.

SECTION V
SYSTEMIC RISK BUFFER

Article 138-U
Systemic risk buffer

1 – The Banco de Portugal may decide to apply a systemic risk buffer of Common Equity Tier 1 capital to all exposures, or a subset of those exposures, on an individual, sub-consolidated and consolidated basis to credit institutions subject to its supervision or to one or more subsets of those institutions:

(a) to prevent or mitigate systemic or macroprudential risks not covered by Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, or by the countercyclical and G-SII or O-SII buffers; and
(b) where such risks are likely to disrupt the financial system with potential serious consequences for the financial system and the Portuguese economy.

2 – Credit institutions shall calculate the systemic risk buffer as follows:
BSR = the systemic risk buffer;
\[ B_{SR} = r_T \cdot E_T + \sum_{i} r_i \cdot E_i \]

where:
- \( B_{SR} \) = the systemic risk buffer;
- \( r_T \) = the buffer rate applicable to the total risk exposure amount of an institution;
- \( r_i \) = the buffer rate applicable to the risk exposure amount of the subset of exposures \( i \);
- \( E_i \) = the risk exposure amount of an institution for the subset of exposures.

3 – A systemic risk buffer may apply to:

(a) all exposures located in Portugal;
(b) the following sectoral exposures located in Portugal:
   (i) all exposures to natural persons that are secured by residential property;
   (ii) all exposures to natural persons excluding those specified in the foregoing subparagraph;
   (iii) all exposures to legal persons that are secured by mortgages on commercial immovable property;
   (iv) all exposures to legal persons excluding those specified in the foregoing subparagraph;
(c) all exposures located in other Member States, subject to Articles 138-V(8) and 138-W;
(d) sectoral exposures, as identified in subparagraph (b), located in other Member States only to enable recognition of a buffer rate set by another Member State in accordance with Article 138-Z;
(e) exposures located in third countries;
(f) subsets of any of the exposure categories identified in subparagraph (b).

4 – The systemic risk buffer shall be set in adjustment steps of 0.5% or multiples thereof. Different requirements may be introduced for different subsets of credit institutions or exposures.

5 – The Banco de Portugal may determine the maintenance of the systemic risk buffer only under the following conditions:

(a) the systemic risk buffer must not entail disproportionate adverse effects on the whole or parts of the financial system of other Member States, or of the European Union as a whole, forming or creating an obstacle to the functioning of the internal market;
(b) the systemic risk buffer is reviewed at least every second year.
(c) the systemic risk buffer is not to be used to address risks that are covered by the countercyclical and G-SII or O-SII buffers.

6 – [Repealed.]

7 – Credit institutions failing to meet fully the requirements under paragraph 1 shall be subject to the restrictions set out in Article 138-AA(2) to (4).

8 – Where the application of the restrictions mentioned in the foregoing paragraph leads to an unsatisfactory improvement of the Common Equity Tier 1 capital of the credit institution, in the light of the relevant systemic risk, the Banco de Portugal may take additional measures, both under its supervisory powers and through administrative procedures.

9 – Where the Banco de Portugal decides to set the systemic risk buffer based on exposures in other Member States, the buffer shall be set at the same level on all exposures located within the European Union, unless the buffer is set to recognise the systemic risk buffer rate set by another Member State in accordance with Article 138-Z.

Article 138-V

Procedure for notification and obtaining an opinion on the systemic risk buffer

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall notify:

(a) the European Systemic Risk Board:

(i) before the publication of the decision to require the systemic risk buffer; and
(ii) where it applies a systemic risk buffer rate to exposures located in third countries;

(b) the authorities of the Member State in which the parent undertaking of the subsidiary institution to which one or more systemic risk buffer rates apply is established.

2 – The notification referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall contain:

(a) the macroprudential or systemic risks in Portugal;
(b) the reasons why the dimension of the systemic or macroprudential risks threatens the stability of the Portuguese financial system justifying the systemic risk buffer rate;
(c) the justification for why it considers the systemic risk buffer to be effective and proportionate to mitigate the risk;
(d) the assessment of the likely positive or negative impact of the systemic risk buffer on the internal market, based on information available to the Banco de Portugal;
(e) [repealed];
(f) the systemic risk buffer rate that it intends to impose and the exposures to which such rates shall apply and the institutions which shall be subject to such rates;
(g) where the systemic risk buffer rate applies to all exposures, a justification of why the Banco de Portugal considers that the systemic risk buffer is not duplicating the functioning of the O-SII buffer.

3 – [Repealed.]
4 – [Repealed.]
5 – [Repealed.]
6 – The setting of a systemic risk buffer rate which results in a decrease or no change from the previously set buffer rate shall be governed exclusively by the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs.

7 – Where the Banco de Portugal sets a systemic risk buffer rate or rates on any set or subset of exposures referred to in paragraph 3 of the foregoing Article that results in a combined systemic risk buffer rate equal to or less than 3%, it shall notify the European Systemic Risk Board one month before the publication of its decision.

8 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the recognition of a systemic risk buffer rate set by another Member State shall not count towards the 3% threshold.

9 – Where the Banco de Portugal sets a combined systemic risk buffer rate or rates higher than 3% and up to 5%, it shall comply with paragraphs 1 and 2 and request in the notification submitted the European Commission’s opinion.

10 – The Banco de Portugal may adopt the measure, even if the opinion of the European Commission is negative, giving reasons for not accepting that opinion.

11 – If all credit institutions subject to the percentage set under paragraph 9 have a subsidiary whose parent undertaking is established in another Member State, the Banco de Portugal shall:

(a) request a recommendation from the European Commission and the European Systemic Risk Board in the notification submitted in accordance with paragraph 1;
(b) wait for these recommendations for six weeks.

12 - In accordance with the foregoing paragraph, in the event of disagreement by the authorities of that Member State and a negative recommendation of the European Commission and the European Systemic Risk Board, the Banco de Portugal may refer the matter to the European Banking Authority and request its assistance in accordance with Article 19 of Regulation No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010. The decision to set the buffer rate or rates for those exposures shall be suspended until the European Banking Authority makes a decision.

Article 138-W

Authorisation procedure for the systemic risk buffer

1 – Where the Banco de Portugal sets a rate or rates on any set or subset of exposures that results in a combined systemic risk buffer rate higher than 5%, it shall follow the notification procedure set out in the foregoing Article and seek the authorisation of the European Commission before implementing a systemic risk buffer.

2 – [Repealed.]
3 – [Repealed.]
4 – [Repealed.]

Article 138-X

Coinciding G-SII and O-SII buffer and systemic risk buffer requirements

1 – [Repealed.]
2 – The systemic risk buffer, where applicable, shall be cumulative with the G-SII or O-SII buffer.
3 – [Repealed.]
4 – [Repealed.]
5 – Where the sum of the systemic risk buffer rate and the O-SII buffer rate or the G-SII buffer rate to which the same credit institution is subject is higher than 5%, authorisation by the European Commission shall be required in accordance with Article 138-R(4).

Article 138-Y

Announcement of the systemic risk buffer

The Banco de Portugal shall disclose the setting or resetting of one or more systemic risk buffer rates on its website, including at least the following information:

(a) the systemic risk buffer rate or rates;
(b) the credit institutions to which the systemic risk buffer applies;
(c) a justification for setting or resetting the systemic risk buffer rate or rates, unless such information were to jeopardise financial stability;
(d) the date from which the credit institutions shall apply the setting or resetting of the systemic risk buffer;
(e) the countries where exposures located in those countries are recognised in the systemic risk buffer;
(f) the exposures to which the systemic risk buffer rate or rates apply.
Article 138-Z
Recognition of a systemic risk buffer rate

1 – The Banco de Portugal may recognise the systemic risk buffer rate set by another EU Member State, considering the information contained in its notification, setting the application of the rate to credit institutions’ exposures in that Member State.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall notify the European Systemic Risk Board of such recognition under the foregoing paragraph.

3 – Where the Banco de Portugal recognises a systemic risk buffer rate for domestically authorised credit institutions, it may apply such rate cumulatively with the systemic risk buffer rate set in accordance with Article 138-U, provided that the buffers address different risks.

4 – Where the buffers address the same risks, only the higher buffer shall apply.

5 – The Banco de Portugal may ask the European Systemic Risk Board to issue a recommendation to one or more EU Member States to recognise the systemic risk buffer rate set under the terms of this section.

SECTION VI
CAPITAL CONSERVATION MEASURES

Article 138-AA
Restrictions on distributions

1 – Credit institutions that meet the combined buffer requirement shall not make distributions relating to Common Equity Tier 1 capital to an extent that would decrease that capital to a level where the combined buffer requirement is no longer met.

2 – Credit institutions that fail to meet the combined buffer requirement shall calculate the Maximum Distributable Amount in accordance with Article 138-AB and shall notify the Banco de Portugal of that amount.

3 – Until they calculate the Maximum Distributable Amount, the credit institutions covered by the foregoing paragraph shall not undertake any of the following actions:

(a) distributions relating to Common Equity Tier 1;

(b) creation of an obligation to pay variable remuneration or discretionary pension benefits or pay variable remuneration if the obligation to pay was created at a time when the credit institution failed to meet the combined buffer requirements;

(c) payments on Additional Tier 1 instruments.

4 – Where an institution fails to meet or exceed its combined buffer requirement, it shall not distribute more than the Maximum Distributable Amount calculated in accordance with Article 138-AB, through any action referred to in the foregoing paragraph.

5 – The restrictions on distributions shall only apply to payments that result in a reduction of Common Equity Tier 1 capital or in a reduction of profits, and where a suspension of payment or failure to pay does not constitute an event of default or a condition for the commencement of proceedings under the insolvency regime applicable to the credit institution.

6 – For the purposes of paragraphs 1 and 3, a distribution in connection with Common Equity Tier 1 capital shall include the following:

(a) the payment of cash dividends;

(b) the attribution of variable remuneration in the form of fully or partly paid shares or other

(c) the purchase or repurchase by a credit institution of its own shares or other capital instruments referred to in Article 26(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

(d) the repayment of amounts paid up in connection with capital instruments referred to in Article 26(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

Calculation of the Maximum Distributable Amount

1 – Credit institutions shall calculate the Maximum Distributable Amount by multiplying the sum calculated in accordance with the following paragraph by the factor determined in accordance with paragraph 3 and reducing any amount resulting from any of the actions referred to in paragraph 3 of the foregoing Article.

2 – The sum to be multiplied for the purposes of the foregoing paragraph shall consist of the following items:

(a) interim profits not included in Common Equity Tier 1 capital pursuant to Article 26(2) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, net of any distribution of profits or any payment resulting from the actions referred to in paragraph 3 of the foregoing Article;

where:
‘Qn’ = the ordinal number of the quartile concerned.
5 – For the purposes of paragraph 6 of the foregoing Article, the leverage ratio related maximum distributable amount shall be calculated in accordance with the foregoing paragraphs, with the factor referred to in paragraph 1 being determined as a percentage of the total exposure measure calculated in accordance with Article 429(4) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, taking into account the quartile of the Tier 1 capital maintained by the credit institution which is not used to meet the minimum requirements for the leverage ratio, referred to in Article 92(1)(d) of that Regulation, or to meet the additional own funds requirement to cover the risk of excessive leverage that is not sufficiently covered by that minimum requirement laid down in Article 116-C(2)(a), as follows:

(b) the factor is 0.2 if it is comprised within the second quartile of the leverage ratio buffer requirement;
(c) the factor is 0.4 if it is comprised within the third quartile of the leverage ratio buffer requirement;
(d) the factor is 0.6 if it is comprised within the last quartile of the leverage ratio buffer requirement.

6 – The lower and upper bounds of each quartile of the leverage ratio buffer requirement shall be calculated as follows:

\text{Lower bound of quartile} = \frac{\text{Leverage ratio buffer requirement}}{4} \times (Q_n - 1)

\text{Upper bound of quartile} = \frac{\text{Leverage ratio buffer requirement}}{4} \times Q_n

where:

‘Qn’ = the ordinal number of the quartile concerned.

Decision-making on addressing or removing impediments to resolvability of groups

1 – In its capacity as group-level resolution authority or resolution authority of any of the subsidiaries of the EU parent undertaking, the Banco de Portugal, together with the resolution authorities of subsidiaries within the resolution college, shall consider the resolvability assessment carried out and encourage the adoption of a joint decision on the application of measures that are proportionate to addressing or removing the identified substantive impediments for all credit institutions and investment firms dealing on own account or underwriting financial instruments and/or placing financial instruments on a firm commitment basis, as part of the group, taking into account the potential impact of the measures on all the Member States where the group operates.

2 – Before reaching the decision in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, the supervisory college of the group shall be consulted, as well as the college of supervisory authorities and resolution authorities of the EU Member States where significant branches are established, insofar as is relevant for those branches.

3 – In its capacity as group-level resolution authority, the Banco de Portugal shall prepare and submit a report to the EU parent undertaking, to the resolution authorities of subsidiaries and to the resolution authorities of the EU Member States in which significant branches are located. Such report shall:

(a) analyse the substantive impediments to the effective application of resolution tools to the group and resolution groups, where the group resolution plan identifies more than one resolution group, considering the impact on the group’s business model; and
(b) recommend any proportionate measures to address or remove those impediments.

4 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall cooperate with the European Banking Authority and shall first consult the supervisory authorities of the group.

5 – Where the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as the resolution authority of any subsidiary of the EU parent undertaking, receives a report under paragraph 3 from the group-level resolution authority, it shall share this report with the group’s subsidiaries located in Portugal.

6 – Within four months of the date of receipt of the report under paragraph 3, the EU parent undertaking may submit observations and propose alternative measures to the Banco de Portugal to address or remove the impediments identified in the report.

(b) in the cases referred to in paragraphs 7 and 9, within 15 days of the submission of the information referred to in paragraph 9.

13 – Until the adoption of a joint decision and within the time limits referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal may request the assistance of the European Banking Authority.

14 – If, before taking the joint decision referred to in paragraph 1 and within the time limits set out in paragraph 12, any of the resolution authorities has referred matters as provided for in EU law to the European Banking Authority, the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as group-level resolution authority, resolution authority of a resolution entity or resolution authority of a subsidiary of a resolution entity which has not been identified as a resolution entity, as applicable, shall defer its decision and await any decision that the European Banking Authority may take, and shall make its decision accordingly.

15 – In the absence of a joint decision within the time limits referred to in paragraph 12 or in the absence of a decision by the European Banking Authority within one month, where applicable, the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as group-level resolution authority, resolution authority of a resolution entity or resolution authority of a subsidiary of a resolution entity which has not been identified as a resolution entity, as applicable, shall make its own decision on whether to require alternative measures as referred to in Article 138-AK(6) and (7) from the entity concerned. This decision shall be fully reasoned and shall take into account the views and reservations of other resolution authorities.

16 – In the cases referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as group-level resolution authority and resolution authority of a resolution entity, as applicable, shall provide its decision to the entity concerned.

17 – In the cases referred to in paragraph 15, the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as the

the same resolution group, to the resolution authority of that resolution entity and, where different, to the group level resolution authority.

18 – The joint decision referred to in paragraph 1 and the individual decisions referred to in paragraph 15 shall be considered final for the authorities concerned.

Article 138-AM
Restrictions on distributions

1 – The Banco de Portugal may prohibit a credit institution from making distributions in excess of the Maximum Distributable Amount related to the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities, calculated in accordance with the following Article, where the credit institution meets both the combined buffer requirement referred to in Article 138-B(2) and each of the requirements referred to in Article 138-AA(7), but it fails to meet those requirements when considered in addition to the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities in accordance with Article 138-AO(2)(a).

2 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal may prohibit the credit institution from:

(a) making a distribution in connection with Common Equity Tier 1 capital;
(b) creating an obligation to pay variable remuneration or discretionary pension benefits or paying variable remuneration if the obligation to pay was created at a time when the credit institution failed to meet the combined buffer requirements;
(c) making payments on Additional Tier 1 instruments.

3 – Credit institutions in the situation referred to in paragraph 1 shall immediately notify the Banco de Portugal thereof, in its capacity as national resolution authority.

4 – Where a credit institution is in the situation referred to in paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal shall, without unnecessary delay, assess whether to exercise the power provided for in that paragraph, taking into account:
(a) the reason, duration and magnitude of the failure to comply with the combined buffer requirement when considered in addition to the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities, calculated in accordance with Article 138-AO(2)(a), as well as the impact of such failure on resolvability of the credit institution concerned;

(b) the development of the credit institution’s financial situation and the likelihood of it being failing or likely to fail;

(c) the prospect that the credit institution is able to ensure compliance with the combined buffer requirement when considered in addition to the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities, calculated in accordance with Article 138-AO(2)(a) within a reasonable timeframe;

(d) where the credit institution is unable to replace eligible liabilities that no longer meet the eligibility or maturity criteria laid down in Articles 72-B and 72-C of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, Article 138-Q, Article 138-AR(1) and Articles 138-AY to 138-BA, if that replacement inability is idiosyncratic or is due to market disruption;

(e) whether the exercise of the power referred to in paragraph 1 complies with the principles of adequacy and proportionality, taking into account its potential impact on the financing conditions and resolvability of the credit institution.

5 – For as long as the credit institution continues to be in the situation referred to in paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal shall repeat its assessment of the provisions in the foregoing paragraph at least every month.

6 – Where that non-compliance exceeds nine months from the date of notification in accordance with paragraph 3, the Banco de Portugal shall exercise the power referred to in paragraph 1, unless it finds that at least two of the following conditions are fulfilled:

(a) the failure is due to a serious disturbance to the functioning of financial markets which leads to broad-based stress across several segments of financial markets;

(b) the disturbance referred to in the previous subparagraph has led to increased price volatility of the own funds instruments and eligible liabilities of the credit institution concerned or increased costs for the credit institution, leading to a full or partial closure of markets which prevents the credit institution from issuing own funds instruments and eligible liabilities on those markets;

(c) the market closure referred to in the foregoing subparagraph is observed for the credit institution concerned and for other entities;

(d) the disturbance referred to in subparagraph (a) prevents the concerned credit institution from issuing own funds and eligible liabilities instruments sufficient to remedy that situation of failure referred to in paragraph 1;

(e) the exercise of power referred to in paragraph 1 has negative spill-over effects for part of the banking sector, potentially undermining financial stability.

7 – Every month, the Banco de Portugal shall repeat its assessment of the decision not to exercise the power referred to in paragraph 1 in accordance with the foregoing paragraph.

Article 138-AN

Maximum Distributable Amount

1 – Credit institutions shall calculate the Maximum Distributable Amount related to the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities by multiplying the sum calculated in accordance with the following paragraph by the factor determined in accordance with paragraph 3. That amount shall be reduced by any amount resulting from any of the actions referred to in paragraph 2(a) to (c) of the previous Article.

2 – The sum to be multiplied for the purposes of the foregoing paragraph shall consist of the following items:

(a) any interim profits not included in Common Equity Tier 1 capital pursuant to Article 26(2) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, net of any distribution of profits or any payment resulting from the actions referred to in paragraph (2) of the foregoing Article;
(b) any year-end profits not included in Common Equity Tier 1 capital pursuant to EU legislation referred to in the foregoing subparagraph, net of any distribution of profits or any payment resulting from the actions referred to in paragraph (2) of the foregoing Article;
(c) excluding amounts that would be payable by tax if the items specified in the foregoing subparagraphs were to be retained.

3 – The factor referred to in paragraph 1 shall be determined using the quartile of the combined buffer requirement comprising the Common Equity Tier 1 capital maintained by the credit institution and which is not used to meet the requirement under Article 92-A of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, and the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities, expressed as a percentage of the total risk exposure amount referred to in Article 138-AO(2)(a), as follows:

(a) the factor is 0 if it is comprised within the first and lowest quartile of the combined buffer requirement;
(b) the factor is 0.2 if it is comprised within the second quartile of the combined buffer requirement;
(c) the factor is 0.4 if it is comprised within the third quartile of the combined buffer requirement;
(d) the factor is 0.6 if it is comprised within the fourth and highest quartile of the combined buffer requirement.

4 – Article 138-AB(4) shall be applicable.

5 – Liabilities arising from instruments issued or contracts entered into by subsidiaries of a resolution entity which have not been identified as resolution entities, referred to in Article 138-BC, and which are part of the same resolution group shall also be eligible liabilities of that resolution entity and shall also be taken into account for the purposes of compliance with the subordination amount, where:

(v) the purchase of the instrument was not funded directly or indirectly by the entity concerned;

(vi) the terms and conditions governing the instrument do not indicate explicitly or implicitly that the liabilities are called, redeemed, repaid or repurchased early, as applicable, by the entity concerned, other than in the case of insolvency or liquidation, and that entity does not otherwise provide such an indication;

(vii) the terms and conditions governing the instrument do not give the holder the right to accelerate the future scheduled payments of interest or principal, other than in case of the insolvency or liquidation of the entity concerned;

(viii) the amount of interest or dividend payments, as applicable, due thereon is not amended on the basis of the credit standing of the entity concerned or its parent undertaking;

(i) are issued to or entered into in favour of and subscribed by entities that are part of the same resolution group; or

(ii) are issued or entered into in favour of and subscribed by entities that are not part of the same resolution group, as long as the exercise of the write-down or conversion powers provided for in Article 145-I in relation to liabilities arising from those instruments does not affect the control relationship between the entity concerned and the resolution entity.

2 – The joint decision determining the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities may provide, where consistent with the resolution strategy of the resolution group, that where the resolution entity that is part of the same resolution group has not subscribed, directly or indirectly, sufficient instruments referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of the entities referred to in Article 138-BC may be partially met with instruments issued or entered into and subscribed by entities that are not part of the same resolution group.

3 – The Banco de Portugal may allow the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of the entities referred to in Article 138-BC to be met in full or in part with a commitment undertaken by the resolution entity where:
(a) the entity concerned and the resolution entity belonging to the same resolution group are established in Portugal; and
(b) the resolution entity meets its minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities.

4 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the commitment by the resolution entity shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) it corresponds to an amount equal to or greater than the amount of the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of the entities referred to in Article 138-BC it substitutes;
(b) it is required where the entity concerned is unable to fulfil its obligations or a determination has been made that the entity meets one of the requirements referred to in Article 145-I(2), whichever is the earliest;
(c) it benefits from a financial guarantee provided by the resolution entity under a financial collateral arrangement provided for in Decree-Law No 105/2004 of 8 May 2004 for an amount equal to or greater than 50% of the amount of the commitment undertaken by the resolution entity;
(d) the collateral backing the financial guarantee provided by the resolution entity fulfils the eligibility requirements for funded credit protection in accordance with Article 197 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 and its value, following the appropriately conservative haircuts, is equal to or greater than the amount of the financial guarantee referred to in the foregoing subparagraph;
(e) the collateral backing the financial guarantee provided by the resolution entity is not encumbered by the rights of any third party and is not used as collateral to back any other guarantee;
(f) the maturity of the collateral of the financial guarantee provided by the resolution entity is longer than one year;
(g) there is no legal, regulatory or operational impediment to the enforcement of the collateral of the financial collateral provided by the resolution entity for the entity concerned, including by virtue of the taking of resolution actions in respect of the resolution entity.

5 – For the purposes of subparagraph (g) of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal may require the resolution entity to provide an independent written and reasoned legal opinion or otherwise demonstrate compliance with the provisions of that subparagraph.

SECTION II
DETERMINATION OF THE MINIMUM REQUIREMENT FOR OWN FUNDS AND ELIGIBLE LIABILITIES

Article 138-AS

General criteria for determining the minimum requirement

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities on the basis of the following criteria:

(a) the resolution group can be resolved by the application of the resolution tools to the resolution entity, including, where appropriate, the bail-in tool, in a way that meets the resolution objectives set out in Article 145-C(1);
(b) the resolution entities and their subsidiaries that have not been identified as resolution entities and are part of the same resolution group have sufficient own funds and eligible liabilities to ensure that, if the bail-in tool or write-down and conversion powers provided for in Article 145-I respectively, were to be applied, losses could be absorbed by the respective holders and that the total capital ratio and, as applicable, the leverage ratio could be restored to a level necessary to enable them to comply with the conditions for authorisation and to carry on the activity for which it is authorised;

(c) the resolution entity has sufficient own funds and other eligible liabilities to ensure that losses could be absorbed by the respective holders and that the total capital ratio and, as applicable, the leverage ratio could be restored to a level necessary to enable them to comply with the conditions for authorisation and to carry on the activity for which it is authorised, where the resolution plan anticipates the possibility for certain liabilities or classes of liabilities to be excluded from bail-in or for certain eligible liabilities or classes of eligible liabilities to be transferred under the resolution actions set out in Article 145-E(1) to (c);

(d) the size, the business model, the funding model and the risk profile of the credit institution;

(e) the effects on financial stability of the credit institution’s risk or failure, including due to the risk of contagion to other credit institutions or the financial system as a whole.

2 – Where the resolution plan provides that resolution actions are to be taken or that the write-down or conversion powers under Article 145-I are to be exercised, the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities shall equal an amount sufficient to ensure that:

(a) the losses that are expected to be incurred by the credit institution may be fully absorbed by its own funds and eligible liabilities; and

(b) the own funds of the credit institution can be recapitalised to a level necessary to enable it to continue to comply with the conditions for authorisation, and to carry on the activities for which it is authorised for a period not longer than one year.

3 – Where the resolution plan provides that the credit institution is to be wound up, the Banco de Portugal shall assess whether it is appropriate to limit the requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities, so that it does not exceed the necessary to comply with subparagraph (a) of the foregoing paragraph. The assessment shall take into account any possible impact of the winding up of the credit institution on financial stability and the risk of contagion to the financial system.

4 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall determine the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities to be complied with by the institution based on its financial position.

Article 138-AT

Decision

1 – The decision of the Banco de Portugal determining the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities to be complied with by each credit institution shall include a full assessment of the elements referred to in paragraphs 2 to 4 of the foregoing Article, as well as in Articles 138-AV, 138-AW and 138-BD.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall make the decisions provided for in this Chapter when drawing up the resolution plans and reassess them when they are updated or where deemed necessary.
3 – If the additional own funds requirements imposed on a credit institution change, the Banco de Portugal shall, without undue delay, review that institution’s minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities.

4 – For the purposes of Articles 138-AV and 138-BD, the own funds requirements shall be interpreted in accordance with the transitional provisions laid down in Chapters 1, 2 and 4 of Title I of Part Ten of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 and with the relevant provisions of national legislation exercising the options granted by that Regulation.

Article 138-AU

Minimum requirement of resolution entities

1 – Resolution entities shall comply with the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities on a consolidated basis at the level of the resolution group.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of each resolution entity at the consolidated resolution group level and shall consider whether the third-country subsidiaries of the group are to be resolved jointly or separately according to the resolution plan.

3 – For resolution groups to which credit institutions permanently affiliated to a central body and the central body itself belong, the Banco de Portugal shall determine, taking into account the applicable liability regime and the preferred resolution strategy, which entities are required to comply with the requirements referred to in the following Article and, where applicable, in Articles 138-AW and 138-AX, and how those requirements are to be met, in order to ensure that the resolution group complies in its entirety with the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs.

Article 138-AV

Determination of the minimum requirement of resolution entities

1 – The minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of a resolution entity to be determined under Article 138-AO(2)(a) shall be the sum of the following:

(a) for the purposes of Article 138-AS(2)(a), the amount corresponding to the requirement referred to in Article 92(1)(c) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 and the additional own funds requirements imposed under this Legal Framework applicable to the resolution entity at the consolidated resolution group level;

(b) for the purposes of Article 138-AS(2)(b), the amount to enable the resolution entity to continue to comply with the requirement referred to in Article 92(1)(c) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 and the additional own funds requirements imposed under this Legal Framework, at the consolidated resolution group level, following the application of the preferred resolution strategy and taking into account any changes to the resolution group arising from the application of such strategy.

2 – The minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of a resolution entity referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall be expressed in percentage terms as the amount calculated under the foregoing paragraph, divided by the total risk exposure amount of the resolution entity as calculated in accordance with Article 92(3) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013.
3 – The minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of a resolution entity to be determined under Article 138-AO(2)(b) shall be the sum of the following:

(a) for the purposes of Article 138-AS(2)(a), the amount corresponding to the own funds requirement for the leverage ratio, under Article 92(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, applicable to the resolution entity at the consolidated resolution group level;

(b) for the purposes of Article 138-AS(2)(b), the amount to enable the resolution entity to continue to comply with the own funds requirement for the leverage ratio, referred to in Article 92(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, at the consolidated resolution group level, following the application of the preferred resolution strategy and taking into account any changes to the resolution group arising from the application of such strategy.

4 – The minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of a resolution entity referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall be expressed in percentage terms as the amount calculated under the foregoing paragraph, divided by the measure of total risk exposure of the resolution entity as calculated in accordance with Articles 429 and 429-A of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013.

5 – For the purposes of determining the amount referred to in paragraphs 1(b) and 3(b), the Banco de Portugal shall:

(a) use the most recent values reported to the Banco de Portugal by the resolution entity for the total risk exposure amount and the total exposure measure, calculated respectively in accordance with Articles 92(3), 429 and 429-A of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, adjusted for any changes resulting from the implementation of the resolution strategy;

(b) adjust upwards or downwards the additional requirements for own funds imposed under this legal Framework to determine the additional requirements to be applied to the resolution entity after the implementation of the preferred resolution strategy.

6 – The Banco de Portugal shall be able increase the amount referred to in paragraph 1(b) by an appropriate amount necessary to ensure that, after the implementation of the resolution strategy, the resolution entity is able to obtain financing autonomously and on sustainable terms from financial markets for a period which shall not exceed one year.

7 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the appropriate amount shall be equal to the combined buffer requirement referred to in Article 138-B(2), less the credit institution-specific countercyclical capital buffer referred to in Article 138-B(1)(b), applicable to the resolution entity after the implementation of the resolution strategy.

8 – The amount referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall be:

(a) adjusted downwards by the Banco de Portugal if it considers feasible and credible that such an amount is sufficient to ensure that the resolution entity is able to obtain financing autonomously and on sustainable terms from the financial markets and without recourse to extraordinary public financial support, in addition to the support provided by the Resolution Fund in accordance with the provisions of Article 145-U(11) to (14), and to ensure continued provision of critical functions by the resolution entity after the implementation of the resolution strategy;
(b) adjusted upwards by the Banco de Portugal if it considers that such an amount is necessary to ensure that the resolution entity is able to obtain funding under the conditions referred to in the foregoing subparagraph and to ensure continued provision of critical functions by the resolution entity after the implementation of the resolution strategy for a period that shall not exceed one year.

9 – For the purposes of paragraph 3, the Banco de Portugal shall take into account the requirements referred to in Articles 145-U(11) to (14) and 16-C(1) of Law No 63-A/2008 of 24 November 2008.

10 – Where the Banco de Portugal anticipates in the resolution plan that certain eligible liabilities or classes of eligible liabilities are reasonably likely to be excluded from bail-in pursuant to Article 145-U(6) or might be transferred in the context of the taking of the resolution actions provided for in Article 145-E(1)(a) to (c), the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of the resolution entity shall be met using own funds or other eligible liabilities that are sufficient to:

(a) cover the amount of liabilities to be excluded from bail-in or to be transferred to a transferee;
(b) ensure that the conditions referred to in Article 138-AS(2) to (4) are fulfilled.

Article 138-AW

(a) 13.5% of the total risk exposure amount of the resolution entity, calculated in accordance with Article 92(3) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, for the purposes of Article 138-AO(2)(a);
(b) 5% of the total exposure measure of the resolution entity, calculated in accordance with Articles 429 and 429-A of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, for the purposes of Article 138-AO(2)(b).

2 – Without prejudice to Article 138-AZ, the resolution entities referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall comply with the minimum amounts set out therein with the instruments and liabilities referred to in Article 138-AY.

3 – The Banco de Portugal may apply the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs to resolution entities other than global systemically important institutions or subsidiaries of global systemically important institutions, which are part of a resolution group whose total assets do not exceed EUR 100 billion where it considers reasonably likely that such a resolution entity poses a systemic risk in the event of its failure or risk of failure.

4 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall consider:

(a) the prevalence of deposits and the absence of debt instruments, in the funding model of the resolution entity;
(b) the limitations of the resolution entity on access to capital markets to obtain funding through instruments from which eligible liabilities arise;
(c) the degree of reliance on Common Equity Tier 1 capital to meet the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities.
5 – The absence of a decision pursuant to paragraph 3 is without prejudice to the adoption of any decision under Article 138-BA.

Article 138-AX

Minimum requirement for global systemically important institutions

1 – The minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of a resolution entity that is a global systemically important institution or a subsidiary of a global systemically important institution shall be the sum of:

(a) the requirements referred to in Articles 92-A and 494 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

(b) the additional requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities determined by the Banco de Portugal.

2 – In order to comply with the requirements referred to in subparagraph (a) of the foregoing paragraph, the elements referred to in Article 72-K of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 shall be taken into account, but Article 138-AQ(1) shall not apply.

3 – For the purposes of paragraph 1(b), the Banco de Portugal shall determine an additional requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities where the requirements referred to in paragraph 1(a) are not sufficient to comply with Articles 138-AS and 138-AV, which shall be determined in the amount necessary to pursue the purposes referred to in those Articles.

4 – The decision referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall contain a full assessment of the elements referred to in the foregoing paragraph, and Article 138-AT(4) shall also apply.

Article 138-AY

(b) bail-ineligible liabilities that meet the eligibility conditions set out in Articles 72-A to 72-C of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, with the exception of Article 72-B(3) to (5);

(c) liabilities arising from Tier 2 instruments that meet the eligibility conditions set out in Article 72-A(1)(b) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

(d) the liabilities referred to in Article 138-AQ(5) and (6).

Article 138-AZ

Subordination amount of resolution entities of relevant size and global systemically important institutions

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the amount of the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities to be met with the instruments and liabilities referred to in the foregoing Article by resolution entities that are global systemically important institutions or subsidiaries of global systemically important institutions or to which the provisions of Article 138-AW apply.

2 – The amount referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall be equal to 8% of the total liabilities, including own funds, of the resolution entity.

3 – The Banco de Portugal may determine an amount lower than 8% of the total liabilities, including own funds, of the resolution entity, where:

(a) for the resolution entity, the requirements provided for in Article 72-B(3) of Regulation (EU)
No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 are met;

(b) the amount determined by the Banco de Portugal is greater than the amount resulting from the application the following formula:

\[(1-A/B) \times 8\% \text{ of the total liabilities, including own funds}\]

where:

“A” = 3.5% of the total risk exposure amount of the resolution entity, calculated in accordance with Article 92(3) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

“B” = the sum of 18% of the total risk exposure amount of the resolution entity, calculated in accordance with Article 92(3) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013, and the amount of the combined buffer requirement.

4 – Where the application of paragraphs 2 and 3 leads to a requirement greater than 27% of the total risk exposure amount, for the resolution entity concerned, calculated in accordance with Article
92(3) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June
2013, the Banco de Portugal shall determine an amount equal to 27% of the total risk exposure amount where, taking into account the risk of disproportionate impact on the business model of the resolution entity concerned:

(a) the resolution plan of the resolution entity concerned does not provide for recourse to the Resolution Fund; or

(b) the Banco de Portugal considers that the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities of the resolution entity would allow compliance with Article 145-U(11) or (13) in case resolution actions are taken.

5 – The foregoing paragraph shall not apply to resolution entities to which the Banco de Portugal has applied the provisions of Article 138-AW(3).

6 – The Banco de Portugal may determine an amount of the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities greater than that provided for in paragraph 2 where:

(a) substantive impediments to resolvability are identified as part of the resolvability assessment and:

(i) the resolution entity has not taken any specific alternative measures required by the Banco de Portugal in accordance with Article 138-AK(6) and (7); or

(ii) the measures set out in Article 138-AK(7) are unlikely to reduce or remove the substantive impediments to resolvability that have been identified and the determination of an amount exceeding 8% of the total liabilities, including own funds, of the resolution entity would partially or fully compensate for the negative impact of those significative constraints;
(b) the Banco de Portugal considers that the feasibility and credibility of the resolution entity’s preferred resolution strategy are limited, taking into account its size, its interconnectedness with other credit institutions or with the financial system in general, the nature, scope, risk and complexity of its activities, its legal status and its shareholding structure;

(c) the additional own funds requirements imposed on the resolution entity shall be within the 20% of the highest additional requirements of resolution entities referred to in paragraph 1, rounded up to the closest whole number.

7 – The Banco de Portugal may make the decision provided for in the foregoing paragraph only for a total number of entities not exceeding 30% of the resolution entities referred to in paragraph 1, rounded up to the closest whole number.

8 – The amount of instruments and liabilities referred to in the foregoing Article necessary to meet all the combined buffer requirement, the minimum amounts referred to in Article 138-AW(2), the requirements referred to in Articles 92-A and 494 of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 and the amounts determined by the Banco de Portugal under paragraph 6 shall not exceed the greater of:

(a) 8% of total liabilities, including own funds, of the resolution entity;
(b) the amount resulting from the application of the following formula:

\[ C \times 2 + D \times 2 + E \]

where:

“C” = the amount resulting from the requirement referred to in Article 92(1)(c) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013;

“D” = the amount resulting from the additional own funds requirements imposed on the resolution entity;

Article 138-BA

Subordination amount of the minimum requirement of other resolution entities

1 – The Banco de Portugal may determine an amount of the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities to be met with the liabilities referred to in Article 138-AY by resolution entities not covered by the provisions of the foregoing Article where:

(a) eligible liabilities referred to in Article 138-AQ(1)(a) and Article 138-AQ(2) to (4), which do not rank as subordinated claims in the event of failure, have the same priority ranking as liabilities excluded from bail-in pursuant to Article 145-U(6) or for which there is a reasonable likelihood of exclusion under paragraph 9 of that Article, in accordance with the resolution plan of the resolution entity;

(b) there is a risk that the application of the bail-in tool to eligible liabilities referred to in Article 138-AQ(1)(a) and Article 138-AQ(2) to (4), which do not rank as subordinated liabilities in the event of failure, would not lead to compliance with Article 145-D(1)(c); and

(c) the amount does not exceed what is necessary to ensure compliance with Article 145-D(1)(c).

2 – The amount determined in accordance with the foregoing paragraph may not exceed the greater of the values referred to in paragraph 8 of the foregoing Article.
3 – For the purposes of paragraph 1(b), the Banco de Portugal shall take into account whether the amount of liabilities excluded from bail-in pursuant to Article 145-U(6) or for which there is a reasonable likelihood of exclusion under Article 145-U(9), in accordance with the resolution plan of the resolution entity, represents more than 10% of the total liabilities of that resolution entity with the same ranking in case of failure.

Article 138-BB

Common provisions

1 – For the purposes of Article 138-AZ(6) and the foregoing Article, the Banco de Portugal shall take into account:

(a) the depth of the market for the resolution entity’s instruments and liabilities referred to in Article 138-AY, the pricing of such instruments, where they exist, and the time necessary for the resolution entity to comply with those decisions;

(b) the amount of the resolution entity’s liabilities that meet the eligibility conditions referred to in Articles 72-A to 72-C of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 that have a maturity below one year, with a view to making quantitative adjustments to the amounts referred to in Article 138-AZ(6) and Article 138-BA;

(c) the amount of own funds and eligible liabilities of the resolution entities;

(d) whether the amount of liabilities that are excluded from bail-in pursuant to Article 145-U(6), or in respect of which there is a reasonable likelihood of exclusion under paragraph 9 of that Article, in accordance with the resolution plan of the resolution entity, and which in the event of failure, rank equally with or below any of the eligible liabilities of the institution, is significant in comparison to the amount of own funds and eligible liabilities;

(e) the resolution entity’s business model, funding model, and risk profile, as well as its stability and ability to contribute to the economy;

(f) the impact of possible restructuring costs on the own funds of the resolution entity after the taking of resolution actions.

2 – For the purposes of subparagraph (d) of the foregoing paragraph:

(a) an amount that does not exceed 5% of the amount of own funds and eligible liabilities of the resolution entity shall be considered as not being significant;

(b) the Banco de Portugal shall assess whether an amount exceeding 5% of the amount of own funds and eligible liabilities of the resolution entity is significant.

3 – Own funds maintained by the resolution entity to meet the amounts determined under Articles 138-AZ and 138-BA may be used to meet the combined buffer requirement and Article 138-AA shall not apply.

4 – For the purposes of this Section, derivative liabilities shall be included in the total liabilities on the basis that full recognition is given to counterparty netting rights.

Article 138-BC

5 – For the purposes of determining the amount referred to in paragraphs 1(b) and 3(b), the Banco de Portugal shall:

Article 145-D
Guiding principles

1 – For the purposes of resolution, in the application of resolution actions, and in the exercise of the powers provided for in this Chapter:

(a) the shareholders of the credit institution under resolution bear first losses;

(b) the creditors of the credit institution under resolution bear losses after the shareholders in an equitable manner, in accordance with the order of priority of their claims in case of failure;

(c) no shareholder or creditor of the credit institution under resolution shall incur greater losses than would have been incurred if the institution had been wound up;

(d) depositors shall not bear losses from deposits guaranteed by the Deposit Guarantee Fund in accordance with Article 166.

2 – The costs incurred from the application of resolution actions and the required financial support shall be proportionate and appropriate to the objectives of these measures. The Banco de Portugal shall endeavour to minimise that support in order to avoid loss of value other than that deemed necessary.

3 – The decisions adopted and action taken by the Banco de Portugal under the present Chapter shall be applied in a timely manner and with due urgency when required. Where these may have an adverse impact on any EU Member State, they must:

(a) be taken in a transparent, efficient and coordinated manner among the different intervening authorities;

(c) ensure the equitable treatment of the interests across the different EU Member States in question, avoiding unfair burden allocation.
4 – The Banco de Portugal shall apply resolution actions to credit institutions that are part of a group in a way that minimises the impact on other group entities and on the group as a whole, and minimises the adverse effects on financial stability in the European Union and its Member States, in particular, in the countries where the group operates.

Article 145-E

1 – The Banco de Portugal may apply the following resolution actions:

(a) partial or total sale of the business;
(b) partial or total transfer of the business to bridge institutions;
(c) separation and partial or total transfer of the business to asset management vehicles;
(d) bail-in.

2 – The resolution actions provided for in the foregoing paragraph may be applied if the following requirements are met:

(a) the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as supervisory or resolution authority, has determined that the credit institution is failing or likely to fail;
(b) there is no reasonable prospect that the failure of the credit institution can be prevented within a reasonable time frame through recourse to alternative private sector measures, corrective measures or the exercise of powers to write down or convert own funds instruments and eligible liabilities set out in Article 145-I;
(c) the resolution action is necessary and in proportion to serve any of the purposes of resolution; and
(d) the winding up of the credit institution, by virtue of the withdrawal of authorisation for the pursuit of its business, does serve the purposes of resolution as effectively as the application of resolution actions.

3 – For the purposes of subparagraph (a) above, a credit institution shall be deemed to be failing or likely to fail in one or more of the following circumstances:

(a) the credit institution infringes or there are objective elements to support a determination that the institutions will, in the near future, infringe the requirements for continuing authorisation in a way that would justify the withdrawal of authorisation, including because the institution has incurred or is likely to incur losses that will deplete all or a significant amount of its own funds;
(b) the assets of the credit institution total or there are objective elements to support a determination that the assets of the institution will total, in the near future, less than its liabilities;
(c) the credit institution is or there are objective elements to support a determination that the institution will, in the near future, be unable to meet its obligations;

(i) a State guarantee to back liquidity facilities assumed in financing contracts, including credit operations with the Banco de Portugal and newly issued liabilities;
(ii) capitalisation operations with recourse to public investment, provided that, at the time the extraordinary public financial support is granted, neither the circumstances referred to in subparagraphs (a) to (c) nor in Article 145-I(2) are present.

4 – The application of resolution action is not conditional on prior application of corrective measures nor does it hinder their application at any time.

5 – The Banco de Portugal may take a resolution action in relation to a central body and the credit institutions permanently affiliated to it that are part of the same resolution group when that resolution group complies as a whole with the requirements laid down in paragraph 2.

6 – If the Banco de Portugal considers that the requirements laid down in paragraph 2(a) and (b) are met but that the requirement laid down in subparagraph (c) is not met, this shall constitute grounds for withdrawal of the institution’s authorisation.

7 – In the case referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall initiate the process for the withdrawal of the institution’s authorisation within an appropriate period, in accordance with the applicable legislation, followed by the winding-up and liquidation of the institution following the decision to withdraw its authorisation.

5 – Without prejudice to other types of responsibility, the members of the management body, the auditing commission or the single auditor and the holders of senior management positions appointed under paragraphs 2 and 3 are made liable only to the shareholders and creditors of the credit institution for damages resulting from illegal acts and omissions committed with fraudulent intention or with gross negligence.

2 – The members of the management board shall be equipped with the powers entrusted by the law and by the statutes to the general meeting and the management bodies, and may only exercise them under the guidance of the Banco de Portugal.

3 – The members of the management board shall take all the measures necessary to achieve the objectives referred to in Article 145-C(1) and implement resolution actions in accordance with the decision of the Banco de Portugal, in particular the decision to reorganise the ownership structure of the credit institution under resolution, including an increase in capital or the sale of share ownership or equivalent instruments of ownership to persons or institutions with a solid asset and financial position and a clear organisation structure, appropriate to the development of their business.

4 – The duty in the foregoing paragraph shall override, in case of conflict, any other duty in accordance with the law or the statutes.

5 – The Banco de Portugal may require that certain acts of the members of the management board be subject to its prior consent and may set limits to their powers.

Article 145-H
Valuation for the purposes of resolution

1 – Before taking resolution action or exercising the powers under Article 145-I, the Banco de Portugal shall appoint an independent entity, at the expense of the credit institution under resolution, in order to ensure that, within a deadline set by the latter, a fair, prudent and realistic valuation of the assets and liabilities and off-balance-sheet items of the institution in question is carried out.

2 – The objectives of the valuation under the foregoing paragraph shall be:

(a) to ensure that any losses on the assets of the institution in question, including those resulting from the valuation mentioned in the foregoing paragraph, are fully recognised at the moment the resolution tools are applied or the powers under Article 145-I are exercised;

(b) to support the reasoned decision of the Banco de Portugal regarding the aspects below, depending on the action taken:

(i) to decide whether the conditions for resolution or the conditions for the exercise of the powers under Article 145-I are met;

(ii) to decide on the appropriate resolution action to be taken in respect of the credit institution;

(iii) cancellation or dilution of the holdings of shares or other instruments of ownership, in case of the write-down or conversion of own funds instruments, in accordance with Article 145-J(2), as well as the write-down of the nominal value of liabilities resulting from the ownership of the other own funds instruments and eligible liabilities referred to in Article 145-I(7) or from the conversion of those liabilities into share capital;

(iv) to decide on the rights and obligations which are assets, liabilities, off-balance-sheet items and assets under management, to be transferred within the scope of the resolution action taken, as well as the value of any consideration to be paid to the credit institution under resolution or to the owners of the shares or other instruments of ownership, in accordance with Article 145-Q(2) and Article 145-T(4);

(v) to decide on the conditions that constitute commercial terms, for the purposes of Article 145-N(1);

(vi) write-down of the nominal value of bail-inable liabilities or the conversion of those liabilities into share capital in accordance with Article 145-U.

3 – The valuation in paragraph 1 shall make use of generally accepted methodologies and shall be based on prudent and transparent assumptions that are as realistic as possible, based on appropriate and detailed reasoning, including rates of default and severity of losses. The valuation shall not assume any potential provision of extraordinary public financial support or central bank emergency liquidity assistance or liquidity assistance provided under non-standard collateralisation, tenor and interest rate terms.

4 – The valuation shall take account of the following:

(a) the Banco de Portugal and the Resolution Fund may recover any reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the resolution action taken, in accordance with Article 145-L(4);
(b) the Resolution Fund may charge interest or fees in respect of any loans or guarantees provided to the credit institution under resolution.

5 – The valuation shall be supplemented by:

(a) an updated balance sheet and a report on the financial position of the credit institution;
(b) an analysis and an estimate of the accounting value of the assets, which may be complemented, where appropriate to inform the decisions referred to in subparagraphs 2(b)(iv) and (v), by an analysis and estimate of the value of the assets and liabilities of the credit institution;
(c) the list of on-balance-sheet and off-balance-sheet liabilities shown in the books and records of the credit institution, with an indication of the respective claims and priority levels.

6 – The valuation referred to in paragraph 1 shall indicate the subdivision of the shareholders and creditors in classes in accordance with their priority levels under the applicable law and the terms and conditions of the respective instruments and contracts, and estimate the treatment that each class of shareholders and creditors would have been expected to receive, if the credit institution were wound up under normal insolvency proceedings, without prejudice to the valuation in paragraph 14.

7 – Where all the requirements laid down in the foregoing paragraphs are met, the valuation shall be considered to be definitive.

8 – Where due to the urgency in the circumstances of the case it is not possible to carry out the valuation referred to in paragraph 1, or to comply with the requirements of paragraphs 5 and 6, the Banco de Portugal shall carry out a provisional valuation of the assets, liabilities and off-balance-sheet items of the credit institutions, taking account of the requirements in paragraphs 1, 5 and 6. This valuation shall include a buffer for additional losses, with appropriate justification, and, where possible and if applicable, shall be complemented by a sensitivity analysis considering different levels of additional losses, granting probability levels to the range of scenarios in question.

9 – Where the valuation referred to in paragraph 1 does not comply with all the requirements laid down in this Article, it shall be considered to be provisional until an independent person has carried out a definitive valuation that is fully compliant with all the requirements.

10 – The definitive valuation mentioned in the foregoing paragraph shall be carried out as soon as practicable to ensure that any losses are fully recognised in the books of accounts of the institution in question and to inform a decision to write back creditors’ claims or to increase the value of the consideration paid, in accordance with paragraph 11.

11 – In the event that the equity value of the credit institution or the value of the difference, if positive, between transferred assets and liabilities, assessed in accordance with the valuation mentioned in the last part of paragraph 9, is higher than the provisional valuation’s estimate of that value of the institution, the Banco de Portugal may:

Increase the value of the liabilities which have been written down under the powers provided for in Article 145-I and the application of the measure mentioned in Article 145-U;
Instruct a bridge institution or asset management vehicle to make a payment of consideration in respect of the assets to the credit institution under resolution, or to the owners of the shares or other instruments of ownership, in accordance with Article 145-Q(2) and Article 145-T(4).

12 – Notwithstanding paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal may take resolution actions or exercise the powers provided for in Article 145-I, based on the provisional valuation referred to in paragraph 8.

13 – The valuations made in accordance with the foregoing paragraphs shall include the decision to take a resolution action or to exercise the powers provided for in Article 145-I. The valuation itself shall not be subject to a separate right of appeal.

14 – For the purposes of Article 145-D(1)(c), immediately after the effects of the resolution action taken, the Banco de Portugal shall appoint an independent entity, at the expense of the credit institution under resolution, and set a reasonable deadline to evaluate whether, in case no resolution action had been taken and the credit institution under resolution had been wound up at that time, the shareholders and creditors of the credit institution under resolution, as well as the Fund, in the cases where the Banco de Portugal decides on its intervention, in accordance with Article 167-B(1), have incurred fewer losses than they would have incurred as a result of the resolution action taken. That valuation shall determine:

(a) the losses that the shareholders and creditors, as well as the Fund, would have incurred if the credit institution under resolution had been wound up;

(b) the losses that the shareholders and creditors, as well as the Fund, have actually incurred as a result of the resolution action applied to the credit institution under resolution; and

(c) the difference between the losses referred to in subparagraph (a) and the losses incurred in subparagraph (b).

15 – The valuation in the foregoing paragraph shall assume that the resolution action would not have been taken nor have produced effects and that the credit institution under resolution would be wound up at the time the resolution action was taken, not taking into account, where applicable, the provision of extraordinary public financial support to the credit institution under resolution.

16 – Should the valuation in paragraph 14 determine that the shareholders, creditors or the Fund have incurred greater losses than those which they would have incurred if the resolution action had not been taken and the credit institution under resolution had been wound up at the time that the resolution was taken, they shall have the same right to receive that difference from the Resolution Fund, in accordance with Article 145-AA(1)(f).

17 – The valuation referred to in paragraph 1 or the definitive valuation mentioned in the last part of paragraph 9 may be carried out by the same independent entity carrying out the valuation referred to in paragraph 14, either separately or jointly.

18 – The entity carrying the valuations referred to in paragraph 1, the last part of paragraph 9 and paragraph 14 shall be independent from the institution in question, the Banco de Portugal and any other public authority.

19 - The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall also apply mutatis mutandis to the exercise of the write-down or conversion powers provided for in Article 145-I when exercised separately.

SECTION II

(d) convert, in part or in full, liabilities to a credit institution arising from the other own funds instruments and eligible liabilities referred to in paragraph 7 into share capital through the issue of ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall exercise the power to write down or convert own funds instruments and eligible liabilities where any of the following requirements are met:

(a) the Banco de Portugal, in the exercise of its functions as supervisory authority or resolution entity, has determined that the conditions for resolution specified in Article 145-E(2) have been met, before any resolution action is taken;
(b) the Banco de Portugal has determined that, unless the powers set out in paragraph 1 are exercised, the credit institution will no longer be viable;
(c) in the case of financial instruments or contracts issued by a credit institution that is a subsidiary of a credit institution, an investment firm dealing on own account or underwriting financial instruments and/or placing financial instruments on a firm commitment basis, or an entity as referred to in Article 152(2)(a) to (c) that are comprised or have been comprised of own funds on a consolidated basis of the group in which it is included, the Banco de Portugal and the relevant authority of the EU Member State of the supervisory authority on a consolidated basis of the group in which that subsidiary is included have determined, through a joint decision, in accordance with Article 145-AI(4), (5) and (7), that, unless the powers under the foregoing paragraph are exercised, the group will no longer be valid;
(d) in the case of financial instruments or contracts issued by a parent undertaking having its head office in Portugal, a credit institution, an investment firm dealing on own account or underwriting financial instruments and/or placing financial instruments on a firm commitment basis, or an entity as referred to in Article 152(2)(a) to (c), whose supervisory authority on a consolidated basis is the Banco de Portugal, and which are comprised or have been comprised in own funds on an individual basis at the level of the parent undertaking, or on a consolidated basis of the group in which it is included, the Banco de Portugal has determined that, unless the powers under the foregoing paragraph are exercised in relation to those instruments, the group will no longer be viable;
(e) extraordinary public finance support is required, except in any of the circumstances set out in Article 145-E(3)(d)(ii).

3 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, a credit institution or group shall be deemed to be no longer viable when the credit institution or the group is failing or likely to fail and there is no reasonable prospect that recourse to measures implemented by the credit institution itself or the implementation of corrective measures would prevent the failure.

4 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the credit institution shall be deemed to be failing or likely to fail, only where one or more of the circumstances set out in Article 145-E(3) occurs.

5 – For the purposes of paragraph 3, a group is deemed to be failing or likely to fail where it infringes or there are objective elements to support a determination that the group, in the near future, will infringe its consolidated prudential requirements, in particular because the group has incurred or is likely to incur losses that will deplete all or a significant amount of its own funds.

6 – For the purposes of subparagraph 2(c), the exercise of the powers set out in paragraph 1 in relation to a group, or equivalent powers in accordance with the applicable law in the EU Member State where the parent undertaking has its head office, cannot produce a more unfavourable treatment of the holders of capital instruments issued by a subsidiary, compared with the treatment of the holders of capital instruments issued by the parent undertaking with the same order of priority in case of failure.

7 – The powers provided for in paragraph 1(c) and (d) may be exercised in relation to eligible liabilities of an entity referred to in Article 138-BC which comply with the eligibility requirements of Article 138-AR(1)(a), except the residual maturity requirement laid down in Article 72-C(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013.

8 – The Banco de Portugal may also carry out the conversion provided for in paragraph 1(d) by transferring the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership from the credit institution to creditors that are subject to exercising the conversion powers.

9 – The Banco de Portugal may also convert liabilities arising from a credit institution’s own funds instruments into ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership of its parent undertaking.

10 – If the own funds instruments and the instruments from which eligible liabilities of a credit institution arise, as referred to in paragraph 7, have been subscribed by a resolution entity in the same resolution group indirectly through other entities in the same resolution group established in Portugal, the Banco de Portugal shall simultaneously and jointly exercise the write-down or conversion powers in relation to own funds instruments and eligible liabilities in respect of the various entities, in order to ensure that the resolution entity bears the losses of the credit institution concerned and reinforces its own funds.

11 – In its capacity as resolution authority of a credit institution whose own funds instruments and instruments from which eligible liabilities of a credit institution arise, as referred to in paragraph 7, and which have been subscribed by a resolution entity in the same resolution group indirectly through other entities in the same resolution group established, the Banco de Portugal shall request the resolution authorities of those entities to exercise the write-down or conversion powers in relation to their own funds instruments and eligible liabilities together with the exercising, by the Banco de Portugal, of the write-down and conversion powers in relation to own funds instruments and eligible liabilities of the credit institution concerned, in order to ensure that the resolution entity bears the losses of the credit institution concerned and reinforces its own funds.

12 – In the exercise of the powers to write down or convert own funds instruments and eligible liabilities as referred to in paragraph 7, no shareholder or creditor of the credit institution shall incur greater losses than would have been incurred if the institution had been wound up.

13 – Where the powers provided for in paragraph 1 are exercised prior to or in combination with a resolution action or with a mandatory capitalisation operation with recourse to public investment, in accordance with the provisions of Law No 63-A/2008 of 24 November 2008, on a resolution entity or, exceptionally, on a credit institution that has not been identified as a resolution entity in the resolution plan, the amount by which the share capital or the nominal value of the liabilities arising from the other own funds instruments has been written down or converted into share capital pursuant to the exercise of those powers is relevant for meeting the requirements referred to in Article 145-U(12)(a) and Article 145-U(13)(a), as well as in Article 16-C(1) of Law No 63-A/2008 of 24 November 2008 respectively.

14 – The Banco de Portugal shall notify the Portuguese Securities Market Commission if any of the requirements laid down in paragraph 1 are met, if the institution subject to this measure is engaged in financial intermediation, is the issuer of financial instruments admitted to trading on a regulated market, a multilateral trading facility or an organised trading facility, is a participant in a central counterparty or a centralised securities system or is otherwise of significant importance in the securities market.

15 – When it exercises the powers referred to in paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal shall notify the Portuguese Insurance and Pension Funds Supervisory Authority as soon as possible where the institution subject to this measure is the parent undertaking or belongs to the same group as an insurance undertaking or is otherwise of significant importance in the insurance market.

Article 145-J

General procedure

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall exercise the write-down or conversion powers referred to in the foregoing Article in accordance with the order of priority of claims in case of failure. The nominal value of a class of liabilities shall not be written down or a class of liabilities be converted into share capital while those powers are not exercised in relation to another lower ranking class, according to that order of priority.

2 – In the exercise of powers under Article 145-I(1), the Banco de Portugal ensures that, as regards shareholders or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution, one of the following effects may occur:

   (a) where the valuation carried out in accordance with Article 145-H concludes that the credit institution has a negative value, the cancellation, in part or in full, of the holding of shares or other instruments of the credit institution’s ownership, or the transfer, in whole or in part, of ownership of the shares or other instruments of ownership from those holders to holders of the other own funds instruments or eligible liabilities of the credit institution concerned that are subject to the exercise of the conversion powers;

   (b) where the valuation carried out in accordance with Article 145-H concludes that the credit institution has a positive value, the significant dilution of the holdings of shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution, as a result of the conversion into share capital of liabilities arising from the other own funds instruments or eligible liabilities.

3 – The provisions of the foregoing paragraph also apply to shareholders and other instruments of ownership of the credit institution, where the shares or other instruments of ownership were issued or conferred pursuant to the conversion of liabilities resulting from the ownership of other capital instruments, in accordance with the applicable contractual conditions, on the occurrence of an event that preceded or occurred at the same time as the assessment that the credit institution met the conditions for the implementation of the resolution action provided for in Article 145-E(2).
4 – The provisions of paragraph 2 shall also apply to owners of the shares and other instruments of ownership of the credit institution whose shares or other instruments of ownership are the result of a conversion of liabilities resulting from the ownership of other capital instruments into shares, through the issue of ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution.

5 – In the exercise of the powers in paragraph (1)(d) of the foregoing Article, the applicable conversion rate is determined by the Banco de Portugal, taking into account the objective, if necessary based on the result of the estimate provided for in 145-H(6), to appropriately compensate the holders of the affected own funds instruments or eligible liabilities.

6 – The Banco de Portugal may determine different conversion rates for each category of liabilities arising from own funds instruments and eligible liabilities. The conversion rate applicable to higher-ranking liabilities, in accordance with the order of priority of the claims in case of failure, shall be higher than the conversion rate applicable to lower-ranking liabilities.

7 – The Banco de Portugal evaluates the suitability of the new shareholders who come to own a qualifying holding, in accordance with Article 103 mutatis mutandis. The following shall also apply:

(a) conferring ownership of the shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution shall take effect after the decision on the exercise of powers, in accordance with Article 145-I(1);

(b) during the suitability assessment period, the voting rights attached to the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution in question can only be exercised by the Banco de Portugal, which shall have no liability for exercising any such rights, except when committed with intent or serious negligence;

(c) upon completion of its assessment, the Banco de Portugal shall notify the new shareholders or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution of its decision;

(d) where the Banco de Portugal is satisfied that the owner of the shares or instruments of ownership of the credit institution with a qualifying holding is in a position to ensure the sound and prudent management of the credit institution, the voting rights attached to the ownership of such shares or instruments shall be exercised by the respective owners of the shares or instruments of ownership upon receipt of notification of the decision in question;

(e) where the Banco de Portugal is not satisfied that the owner of the shares or instruments of ownership of the credit institution that holds a qualifying holding is in a position to ensure the sound and prudent management of the credit institution, it will determine a period during which that owner is requested to divest such shares or instruments, taking into account prevailing market conditions.

8 – In the situation under subparagraph 7(e), the voting rights attached to the ownership of such shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution can only be exercised by the Banco de Portugal, in accordance with subparagraph 7(b).

9 – The exercise by the Banco de Portugal of the voting rights referred to in the foregoing paragraph is irrelevant for the purpose of implementing the rules of allocation of voting rights, communication and dissemination of qualifying holdings and the obligation to launch a mandatory takeover bid or other similar obligations deriving from legislation on securities.

10 – The write-down of share capital or nominal value of liabilities deriving from other own funds instruments and eligible liabilities:

(a) shall be permanent, without prejudice to the provisions of the following paragraph;

(b) shall not result in the payment of compensation to any holder, other than that resulting from the conversion of those liabilities, in accordance with Article 145-I(1);
(c) shall terminate any obligation to the holder of the own funds instruments or eligible liability in connection with the nominal value of that amount of the instrument or liability that has been written down.

11 – Where the exercise of the powers in paragraph 1 of the foregoing Article is based on the provisional valuation carried out in accordance with Article 145-H(8) and the nominal value of the amount of the liabilities resulting from the ownership of own funds instruments and eligible liabilities which has been written down is found to exceed requirements when assessed against the definitive valuation according to the final part of Article 145-H(9), the Banco de Portugal may reimburse the value of those liabilities to the extent necessary.

12 – Ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership arising from the conversion of liabilities resulting from the ownership of own funds instruments or eligible liabilities shall be issued as follows:

(a) ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership shall be issued by the credit institution or, with the agreement of the group-level resolution authority, by its parent undertaking;

(b) the credit institution’s ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership shall be issued prior to any issuance of special shares or equivalent instruments of ownership of the credit institution for the purposes of provision of own funds by the State;

(c) ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution shall be issued and awarded without delay following the decision of the Banco de Portugal, with no need for approval by the general meeting.

13 – For the purposes of the exercise of the powers provided for in Article 145-I(1), the Banco de Portugal shall carry out the tasks necessary for such exercise, and may, in particular, instruct the Portuguese Securities Market Commission to order the relevant entity:

(a) to amend all relevant registers;

(b) to delist or remove shares, other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution or debt instruments from trading on a regulated market or multilateral trading system;

(c) to list or admit new shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution to trading on a regulated market or multilateral trading system;

(d) to relist or readmit to trading on a regulated market or on a multilateral trading system or an organised trading system of any debt instruments which have been written down, without the requirement for issuing a prospectus approved in accordance with the applicable legislation.

14 – The powers under Article 145-I(1) may be exercised irrespective of the consent of capital instrument holders, counterparties in contracts related to the rights and obligations of the credit institution or any other third parties, and cannot be grounds for the exercise of the right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose, renew or amend the conditions set out in any terms and conditions applicable to the credit institution or to an entity in a group relationship, or for enforcing security interests provided by the latter, relating to compliance with any obligation provided for in those terms and conditions.

15 – The exercise of the powers under Article 145-I(1) shall take effect irrespective of any legal or contractual provision expressing otherwise, especially the possible existence of preferential rights for shareholders, and provides a sufficient basis for compliance with any legal formality related to the exercise of such powers.

16 – The exercise of the powers under Article 145-I(1):
(a) is not subject to prior decision by the general meeting, nor other legal or statutory proceeding;

(b) is not conditional on prior compliance with the legal requirements related to the commercial register and other procedures provided for in the law, without prejudice to their subsequent compliance as soon as possible.

Article 145-K

Decision-making process for groups

1 – Before making a determination referred to in Article 145-I(2)(b) to (e) in relation to own funds instruments or eligible liabilities referred to in Article 145-I(7) issued by a credit institution that is a subsidiary of a credit institution, an investment firm dealing on own account or underwriting financial instruments and/or placing financial instruments on a firm commitment basis, or an entity referred to in Article 152(2)(a) to (c), which is relevant for the purposes of compliance with the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible credits referred to in Article 138-BC, or in relation to issued own funds instruments that are comprised or have been comprised of own funds on an individual basis or on a consolidated basis of the group in which it is included, the Banco de Portugal, after consulting the resolution authority of the relevant resolution entity belonging to the same resolution group, where different, shall notify, within 24 hours of such consulting:

- (a) the consolidating supervisor of the group that includes the subsidiary concerned is included and the relevant authority for the exercise of the write-down or conversion powers set out in Article 145-I, or equivalent powers in accordance with the applicable law in the EU Member State of the consolidating supervisor;

- (b) the resolution authority of other entities within the same resolution group that have, directly or indirectly, subscribed instruments from which eligible liabilities arise and issued by the credit institution concerned to which a minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities has been determined in accordance with Article 138-BC(1).

2 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, and in the case of the determinations provided for in Article 145-I(2)(c), the Banco de Portugal shall also notify the supervisory authority of the subsidiary and the relevant authority for the exercise of the write-down or conversion powers provided for in Article 145-I, or equivalent powers according to the applicable law in the EU Member State of the consolidating supervisor of the group in which that subsidiary is included.

3 – When making a determination referred to in Article 145-I(2)(c) to (e) in the case of a credit institution with cross-border activity or included in a group with cross-border activity, the Banco de Portugal shall take into account the potential impact of the resolution in all the EU Member States where the credit institution or group operates.

4 – Following the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2, and after consulting the authorities notified in accordance with paragraphs 1(a) and 2, the Banco de Portugal shall assess whether an alternative and viable measure is available, in particular any of the measures provided for in Article 116-C(1) and (2) and in Article 141, or a transfer of funds or capital from the parent undertaking of the group in eligible liabilities referred to in Article 145-I(7), as well as the likelihood of such a measure addressing, within an adequate time frame, the circumstances provided for in Article 145-I(2).
5 – Where the Banco de Portugal concludes that no alternative measures are available that would deliver, in an appropriate time frame, the outcome referred to in Article 145-I(2), it shall exercise the powers set out in paragraph 1 of the same Article.

6 – The determination referred to in Article 145-I(2)(c) shall only be made under the form of a joint decision.

7 – As the relevant authority for the exercise of the powers to write down or convert own funds instruments and eligible liabilities referred to in Article 145-I(7) in relation to a parent undertaking having its head office in Portugal which has a subsidiary in another EU Member State and which issues own funds instruments that are comprised or have been comprised in own funds on an individual basis or on a consolidated basis of the group in which it is included, the Banco de Portugal shall participate in the joint decision process to determine that the group is no longer viable where the powers to write down or convert own funds instruments and eligible liabilities referred to in Article 145-I(7) or the equivalent powers according to the applicable law in the EU Member State are not exercised in relation to the own funds instruments issued by that subsidiary.

SECTION III

Article 145-L
General principles

1 – The Banco de Portugal may apply any resolution actions individually or in any combination, except the action referred to in Article 145-E(1)(c), which can only be applied together with another resolution action, at the same time or subsequently.

2 – Where the Banco de Portugal applies the resolution actions referred to in Article 145-E(1)(a) or (b) individually and transfers only part of the rights and obligations which are assets, liabilities, off-balance-sheet items and assets under management, it shall revoke the authorisation of the credit institution under resolution in an adequate time frame, taking into account the provisions of Article 145-AP, in accordance with the settlement system provided for in the applicable law.

3 – Where the application of a resolution action results in losses being borne by creditors or their claims being converted, the Banco de Portugal shall exercise the power provided for in Article 145-I immediately before or together with the application of the resolution action.

4 – The Banco de Portugal and the Resolution Fund may recover any reasonable expenses properly incurred in connection with the use of the resolution action or the exercise of the resolution powers or the powers provided for in Article 145-L, in the following ways:

(a) as a deduction from any consideration paid by a recipient, to which rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution have been transferred, to the credit institution under resolution or, as applicable, to the owners of the shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution;

(b) from the credit institution under resolution;

(c) from any proceeds generated as a result of the termination of the operation of the bridge institution or the asset management vehicle.
5 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal and the Resolution Fund, as applicable, are holders of a credit claim over the credit institution under resolution, the bridge institution, the asset management vehicle or the purchasing institution, as applicable, to an amount corresponding to such resources, which benefit from preference in accordance with Article 166-A(1) and (2).

6 – The provisions of Articles 120 and following of the Insolvency and Corporate Recovery Code (Código da Insolvência e Recuperação de Empresas) shall not apply to the decisions adopted under the present Chapter.

7 – Where in the cases provided for in paragraph 2 the authorisation of the institution under resolution is not repealed simultaneously with or immediately after the application of the resolution action referred to therein, compliance with obligations that have not been transferred to a purchaser or a bridge institution, by virtue of the application of the resolution action provided for in Article 145-E(1)(a) and (b), is not required of the institution under resolution, save for those whose compliance has been deemed by the Banco de Portugal indispensable to preserve and maintain the value of the respective assets.

Article 145-M
Partial or total sale of business

1 – The Banco de Portugal may determine the partial or total sale of the rights and obligations of a credit institution under resolution which are assets, liabilities, off-balance-sheet items, and assets under management of the institution, and the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership.

2 – The Banco de Portugal shall ensure that the process is transparent and that the persons concerned are treated fairly, as appropriate given the timeliness imposed by the circumstances.

3 – For the purposes of paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal shall promote the transfer to a purchaser of the rights and obligations and the ownership of the shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution, ensuring the transparency and accuracy of the information provided, having regard to the circumstances of the case and the need to maintain financial stability, to be free from any conflict of interest, to effect rapid resolution action, not to unduly discriminate between potential purchasers, and to maximise, as far as possible, the same price for the rights and obligations or the shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution.

4 – The provisions of the foregoing paragraph shall not prevent the Banco de Portugal from inviting certain potential purchasers to submit applications for acquisition.

5 – Where necessary to ensure the pursuit of the objectives set out in Article 145-C(1), the Banco de Portugal may promote the sale of rights and obligations and the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution, without the observance of paragraph 3.

6 – The Banco de Portugal may market pools of rights and obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution to more than one purchaser.

7 – The application for acquisition of rights and obligations of the credit institution under resolution can only be submitted by credit institutions authorised to pursue the business in question or entities that have applied to the Banco de Portugal for authorisation to exercise such business.
The decision referred to in paragraph 1 shall be conditional on the decision relating to the application for authorisation.

8 – When selecting the purchaser, the Banco de Portugal shall take into account the objectives set out in Article 145-C(1).

9 – Potential purchasers shall be immediately granted conditions of access to relevant information on the financial position of the credit institution under resolution, for the purpose of evaluating the rights, obligations and shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution. For the purpose, the duty of professional secrecy under Article 78 may not be invoked against them, without prejudice to the fact that they may themselves be subject to said secrecy in respect of the information in question.

Article 145-N

Application of the partial or total sale of business tool

1 – The sale shall be made on commercial terms, having regard to the circumstances of the case, the valuation conducted under Article 145-H, and the principles, rules and guidelines of the European Union on State aid.

2 – Where the sale of ownership of the shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution would result in the acquisition of or increase in a qualifying holding by the purchaser, the Banco de Portugal shall carry out the assessment required under Article 103 in a timely manner, jointly with the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of the foregoing Article, so as not to delay the sale of business and jeopardise the objectives set out in Article 145-C(1).

3 – Following the sale referred to in Article 145-M(1), the Banco de Portugal may, at all times:

   (a) sell other rights and obligations and the ownership of other shares or instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution;

   (b) transfer back to the credit institution under resolution the rights and obligations transferred to the purchaser, with the appropriate authorisation, or transfer back the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution to the respective holders at the time of the decision under Article 145-M(1). The credit institution under resolution or original holders shall be obliged to take them back and, where relevant, correct the consideration set at the time of the sale.

4 – Subject to paragraph 7, it shall not be possible to sell any credit claims on the credit institution under resolution held by persons or entities who, in the two years prior to the date of application of the resolution action, have had a direct or indirect shareholding equal to or exceeding 2% of the capital of the credit institution or have been members of the management body of the credit institution, unless it is shown that they were not, by act or omission, responsible for the financial difficulties of the credit institution and have not contributed, by act or omission, to that situation.

5 – Subject to Article 145-L(4), the proceeds of the sale shall accrue to:

   (a) the shareholders or holders of other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution, where the sale has been made through the sale of ownership of the shares or other instruments of ownership;

   (b) the credit institution under resolution, where the sale has been made through the sale of part of or all rights and obligations.
6 – The decision in favour of the sale referred to in Article 145-M(1) shall, per se, have the effect of a transfer of ownership of the transferred rights and obligations of the credit institution under resolution to the purchaser, the latter being considered, for all legal and contractual purposes, the successor of the rights and obligations being sold.

7 – Any possible partial sale of the rights and obligations shall not hinder the full sale of the contractual positions of the credit institution under resolution, where the transfer of liabilities is associated with the asset items being transferred, particularly in the case of financial collateral arrangements, securitisation operations or other close-out netting arrangements.

8 – The decision in favour of the sale referred to in Article 145-M(1) shall take effect, irrespective of any legal or contractual provision expressing otherwise, and provides a sufficient basis for compliance with any legal formality related to the sale.

9 – The sale referred to in Article 145-M(1) shall take place without obtaining the consent of the shareholders or holders of other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution, counterparties in contracts related to the rights and obligations being sold or any other third parties, and cannot be grounds for the exercise of the right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose, renew or amend the conditions set out in the contracts in question.

10 – The purchaser, which shall be considered to be a continuation of the credit institution under resolution, may continue to exercise the rights of membership and access to payment, clearing and settlement systems, stock exchanges, investor compensation schemes and deposit guarantee schemes, as well as participation and membership in other public or private systems or associations, as required for the development of the transferred activity. The exercise of such rights shall not be denied on the ground that the purchaser does not possess a rating from a credit rating agency, or that rating is not commensurate.

11 – The exercise of the rights referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall cover all services, functions and operations that the credit institution under resolution had in place at the time of application of the resolution action referred to in Article 145-M(1).

12 – Where the purchaser does not meet the membership or participation criteria for any of the systems mentioned in paragraph 10, the respective rights shall be exercised by the purchaser for a period of time specified by the Banco de Portugal, not exceeding 24 months, renewable on application by the purchaser to the Banco de Portugal.

13 – Without prejudice to Section V of this Chapter, shareholders and creditors of the credit institution under resolution, and other parties whose rights and obligations are not sold, shall not have any right over the rights and obligations transferred.

14 – Where as a result of the sale in Article 145-M(1) a concentration operation occurs, under the applicable competition legislation, this operation may be carried out before it is the object of a decision of opposition by the Competition Authority, without prejudice to the measures subsequently stipulated by this Authority.

Article 145-O

Partial or total transfer of the business to bridge institutions

1 – The Banco de Portugal has the power to transfer all or any rights and obligations of a credit institution, which are assets, liabilities, off-balance-sheet items and assets under management, and to transfer the ownership of the shares or other instruments of ownership to bridge institutions set up for that purpose, with a view to their subsequent sale.

2 – The Banco de Portugal also has the power to transfer all or any rights and obligations of two or more credit institutions included in the same group and transfer the ownership of the shares or other instruments of ownership of credit institutions included in the same group to bridge institutions, with the same objective as that referred to in the foregoing paragraph.

3 – The bridge institution shall be a legal person authorised to pursue its business related to the rights and obligations transferred.

4 – The bridge institution shall ensure the continued provision of financial services inherent to the business transferred, as well as the management of assets, liabilities, off-balance-sheet items, assets under management and shares or other instruments of ownership transferred, pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2, with a view to maintaining value in the business, aiming at its sale, as soon as circumstances are favourable, under terms that maximise the value of the assets in question.

5 – The transfer decision under paragraphs 1 and 2 shall, per se, have the effect of a transfer of ownership of the rights and obligations of the credit institution under resolution to the bridge institution, the latter being considered, for all legal and contractual purposes, the successor of the rights and obligations being sold.

6 – The partial transfer of the rights and obligations to the bridge institution shall not hinder the total sale of the contractual positions of the credit institution under resolution, where the transfer of liabilities is associated with the asset items being transferred, particularly in the case of financial collateral arrangements, securitisation operations or other close-out netting arrangements.

7 – The decision in favour of the transfer referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall take effect irrespective of any legal or contractual provision expressing otherwise, and provides a sufficient basis for compliance with any legal formality related to the transfer.

8 – The transfer referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall take place without obtaining the consent of the shareholders or holders of other instruments of ownership of the credit institution, counterparties in contracts related to the rights and obligations being transferred or any third parties, and cannot be grounds for the exercise of the right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose, renew or amend the conditions set out in the contracts in question.

9 – Without prejudice to Section V of this Chapter, shareholders and creditors of the credit institution under resolution, and other parties whose rights and obligations are not transferred, shall not have any right over the rights and obligations transferred to a bridge institution.

10 – The Commercial Companies Code shall apply to bridge institutions, with the necessary adjustment to the purposes and nature of these institutions.

11 – The bridge institution, in the pursuit of its business, shall comply with management criteria ensuring low risk levels.

12 – The bridge institution, which shall be considered to be a continuation of the credit institution under resolution, shall continue to exercise the rights of membership and access to payment, clearing and settlement systems, stock exchanges, investor compensation schemes and deposit guarantee schemes, as well as participation and membership in other public or private systems or associations, as required for the development of the transferred activity. The exercise of such rights shall not be denied on the ground that the bridge institution does not possess a rating from a credit rating agency, or that rating is not commensurate.

13 – The exercise of the rights referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall cover all services, functions and operations that the credit institution under resolution had in place at the time of application of the resolution action referred to in paragraph 1.

14 – Where the bridge institution does not meet the membership or participation criteria for any of the systems mentioned in paragraph 12, the respective rights shall be exercised by the bridge institution for a period of time specified by the Banco de Portugal, not exceeding 24 months, renewable on application by the purchaser to the Banco de Portugal.
Article 145-P
Setting up of the bridge institution

1 – The bridge institution shall be set up by a decision of the Banco de Portugal, which shall approve the respective statutes. The provisions of Chapter II of Title II shall not apply.

2 – The bridge institution shall meet the rules applicable to credit institutions or investment firms, as applicable.

3 – The bridge institution’s share capital shall be fully or partially subscribed and paid up by the funds of the Resolution Fund and, if necessary, through the exercise of power in Article 145-U(2)(a), without prejudice to the powers of the Banco de Portugal over the bridge institution.

4 – Notwithstanding the provisions of the following paragraph, and where necessary to meet the objectives of Article 145-C(1), the Banco de Portugal may temporarily waive the bridge institution, after the beginning of its operation, from complying with the applicable prudential requirements.

5 – The Banco de Portugal may require the European Central Bank to waive the bridge institution from complying with the applicable prudential requirements, in the cases where, under the law, it is the supervisory authority of the bridge institution.

6 – The bridge institution may be established and authorised without complying with the legal requirements related to the commercial register and other procedures provided for in the law, without prejudice to their subsequent compliance as soon as possible.

7 – The Banco de Portugal, on a proposal from the general meeting of the bridge institution, shall appoint and set the remuneration of the members of its management and supervisory bodies, which shall comply with all the guidelines and recommendations conveyed by the Banco de Portugal, particularly as regards management decisions and the strategy and risk profile of the bridge institution.

8 – At the time of the transfer decision referred to in Article 145-O(1), the Banco de Portugal may, as an alternative to the foregoing paragraph, appoint the members of the management and supervisory bodies of the bridge institution, without the need for a proposal by the general meeting.

9 – Without prejudice to other type of responsibility, the members of the management and supervisory bodies or the holders of senior management positions of the bridge institution shall have no liability to shareholders and creditors of the credit institution under resolution unless the act or omission committed by them in the exercise of their functions implies gross negligence or serious misconduct.

10 – The bridge institution shall be set up for a maximum period of two years, counting from the date on which the last transfer of rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution was made to the bridge institution.

11 – The Banco de Portugal may extend the period referred to in the foregoing paragraph for one or more additional one-year periods, where:

(a) there are reasonable grounds of public interest, particularly risks for financial stability;
(b) it is necessary to ensure the continuity of essential banking; or
(c) it is necessary to enable or facilitate the merger of the bridge institution with another entity or the sale of the rights and obligations.

12 – Any decision of the Banco de Portugal to extend the period referred to in paragraph 11 shall contain, where possible, an assessment of the market conditions and outlook that justifies the extension.
13 – The Banco de Portugal shall establish, by means of a Notice, the rules applicable to bridge institutions.

14 – The transfer decision referred to in Article 145-O(1) and (2), as well as the possible decision to extend the period referred to in paragraph 11, shall be reported to the Competition Authority, but considering its transitional nature, it shall not constitute a concentration between undertakings for the purposes of the applicable law concerning competition.

Article 145-Q
Assets and funding of the bridge institution

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall select the rights, obligations, shares and other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution to be transferred to the bridge institution at the time of its establishment.

2 – Subject to Article 145-L(4), if there is payment of a consideration by the bridge institution, resulting from the transfer determined by the Banco de Portugal pursuant to Article 145-O(1) and (2), it shall accrue to:

   (a) the shareholders or holders of other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution, where the transfer to the bridge institution has been made through a transfer to the bridge institution of the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution, to the extent of the value, if positive, of the equity of the institution under resolution, at the time of the transfer referred to in 145-O(1) and (2), assessed in accordance with Article 145-H; or

   (b) the credit institution under resolution, where the transfer to the bridge institution has been made through a transfer of all or part of the rights and obligations of the credit institution under resolution to the bridge institution, to the extent of the difference, if positive, between the assets and liabilities of the institution under resolution being transferred to the bridge institution, assessed in accordance with Article 145-H.

3 – Subject to Article 145-O(6), it shall not be possible to transfer to the bridge institution any credit claims on the credit institution under resolution held by persons or entities who, in the two years prior to the date of application of the resolution action, have had a direct or indirect shareholding equal to or exceeding 2% of the capital of the credit institution or have been members of the management body of the credit institution, unless it is shown that they were not, for act or omission, responsible for the financial difficulties of the credit institution and have not contributed, for act or omission, to that situation.

4 – After the transfer referred to in Article 145-O(1) and (2), the Banco de Portugal may, at any time:

   (a) transfer the rights and obligations from the bridge institution to an asset management vehicle set up for the purpose, in accordance with Articles 145-S and 145-T, where necessary to ensure the objectives set out in Article 145-C(1) or to facilitate the termination of business of the bridge institution, pursuant to Article 145-R(1);

   (b) transfer other rights and obligations and the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution to the bridge institution;

   (c) transfer the rights and obligations transferred to the bridge institution back to the credit institution under resolution, or transfer the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution back to the respective holders at the time of the decision.
under Article 145-P(1). The credit institution under resolution or original holders shall be obliged to take back this transfer, provided that the conditions in the following paragraphs are met.

5 – The transfer referred to in the foregoing subparagraph shall only be made where expressly provided for in a decision of the Banco de Portugal, in accordance with Article 145-O(1) and (2), where the conditions for the transfer of the rights, obligations, shares and other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution provided for therein are not met or when such rights, obligations, shares and other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution do not fall within the transfer criteria set out therein.

6 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the amount of financial support to be granted by the Resolution Fund, if necessary, to create and develop the activity of the asset management vehicle, pursuant to Article 145-AA, while taking into account the intervention of the Fund, under the terms and conditions laid down in Article 167-B, in the framework of the application of resolution action as defined in Article 145-O(1) and (2).

7 – The total value of liabilities and off-balance-sheet items to be transferred to the bridge institution should not exceed the total value of the assets transferred from the credit institution under resolution, plus, where appropriate, the funds from the Resolution Fund or the Fund, in accordance with Articles 145-AA and 167-B.

Article 145-R

Termination of the operation of the bridge institution

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall take a decision to terminate the operation of a bridge institution as soon as possible and, in any case, once it considers that the objectives set out in Article 145-C(1) are ensured, or in the following cases:

(a) the sale to a third party of all rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution which were transferred to the bridge institution, pursuant to paragraphs 3, 4 and 6;

(b) the sale to a third party of all shares or other instruments of ownership of the bridge institution, pursuant to paragraphs 3, 4 and 6;

(c) the bridge institution merging with another entity, without prejudice to paragraph 8;

(d) the bridge institution ceasing to meet the requirements of Article 145-O(3) and (4) and Article 145-P(3);

(e) the expiry of the period specified in Article 145-P(10), where the bridge institution in such a case shall enter into winding up proceedings;

(f) when it considers that, after the sale of most of the rights and obligations transferred to the bridge institution, its continuation is not justified, deciding that the bridge institution in question shall enter into winding up proceedings.

2 – Where a bridge institution is used for the purpose of transferring the rights and obligations of more than one credit institution under resolution, the winding up proceedings referred to in paragraph 1(e) and (f) shall refer to the rights and obligations and not to the bridge institution itself.

3 – Where it considers that the conditions have been met to sell some or all of the rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution which were transferred to the bridge institution or to transfer the shares or other instruments of ownership of the bridge institution, the Banco de Portugal or the bridge institution, if authorised in accordance with the following paragraph, may, while ensuring that the process is transparent and the persons concerned are treated fairly, promote their sale by whatever means are considered more appropriate in the light of the conditions existing at the time, the facts of the case and the principles, rules and guidelines of the European Union on State aid.

4 – The sale by the bridge institution referred to in the foregoing paragraph, and the terms and conditions shall be subject to authorisation by the Banco de Portugal.

5 – Subject to Article 145-L(4), any proceeds generated as a result of the termination of the operation of the bridge institution shall benefit its shareholders.

6 – After the sale of all rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution transferred to the bridge institution and the allocation of the proceeds from the sale referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the bridge institution shall be wound up by the Banco de Portugal.

7 – In the cases of sale of the full ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership, and merger of the bridge institution with another entity, the framework applicable to bridge institutions shall be terminated.

8 – At the time of the merger referred to in paragraph 1(c), the Resolution Fund shall not hold shares or other instruments of ownership of the bridge institution.

Article 145-S
Asset separation

1 – The Banco de Portugal may decide to transfer rights and obligations from a credit institution or a bridge institution which are assets, liabilities and off-balance-sheet items and assets under management of the institution to asset management vehicles created for the purpose, with a view to maximising their value through eventual sale or wind down.

2 – The Banco de Portugal may also decide to transfer rights and obligations from two or more credit institutions which are included in the same group to asset management vehicles, with the same objective as specified in the foregoing paragraph.

3 – The asset management vehicle shall be a legal person created for the purpose of receiving and administering some or all of the rights and obligations of credit institutions under resolution or a bridge institution.

4 – The share capital of the asset management vehicle shall be subscribed and paid up in whole or in part by the Resolution Fund using its own funds, without prejudice to the powers of the Banco de Portugal over the asset management vehicle.

5 – The asset management vehicle is created by decision of the Banco de Portugal approving its statutes, and is under no obligation to meet the legal requirements that would otherwise be required for the management of the rights and obligations being transferred.

6 – The asset management vehicle may start its operation without complying with any legal requirements in relation to the commercial register and other procedural requirements under the law, without prejudice to subsequent compliance as soon as possible.

7 – The Banco de Portugal’s decision referred to in paragraph 1, per se, shall provide for the transfer of ownership of the rights and obligations from the credit institution under resolution or bridge institution to the asset management vehicle, the latter being regarded for all legal and contractual purposes the successor entity in the rights and obligations being transferred.

8 – The partial transfer of rights and obligations to the asset separation tool shall not prejudice the complete sale of contractual positions of the credit institution under resolution or bridge institution, with transmission of responsibilities relating to the assets being transferred, including in the case of financial guarantee contracts, securitisation transactions or other contracts containing netting provisions.

9 – The transfer decision referred to in paragraph 1 shall take effect irrespective of any legal or contractual provision expressing otherwise, and provides a sufficient basis for compliance with any legal formality related to the transfer.

10 – The transfer decision referred to in paragraph 1 shall not require the consent of the shareholders or holders of other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution or the bridge institution, counterparties in contracts related to rights and obligations being sold or any other third parties, and cannot be grounds for the exercise of the right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose, renew or amend the conditions set out in the contracts in question.

11 – Without prejudice to Section V of this Chapter, shareholders and creditors of the credit institution under resolution or bridge institution, and other creditors whose rights and obligations are not transferred shall not have any rights over or in relation to the rights and obligations transferred.

12 – The Commercial Companies Code applies to asset management vehicles, duly adjusted to the objectives and nature of these entities.

13 – The Banco de Portugal, on a proposal of the general meeting of the bridge institution, shall appoint and approve the remuneration of the members of its management and supervisory bodies, who shall comply with all guidelines and recommendations transmitted by the Banco de Portugal, in particular on management, strategy and risk profile of the asset management vehicle.

14 – At the time of the transfer decision referred to in paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal, as an alternative to the foregoing paragraph, may appoint the members of the management and supervisory bodies of the bridge institution without a proposal from the general meeting.

15 – Without prejudice to other types of liabilities, the members of the management and supervisory bodies or the holders of senior management positions of the asset management vehicle shall have no liability to the shareholders and creditors of the credit institution under resolution unless the act or omission committed by them in the exercise of their functions implies gross negligence or serious misconduct.

16 – In carrying out its activity, the asset management vehicle shall comply with management criteria ensuring the maintenance of low levels of risk.

17 – The partial or total transfer of rights and obligations of a credit institution under resolution or a bridge institution to asset management vehicles created for the purpose shall be notified to the Competition Authority, but in view of its transitional nature it does not constitute a concentration for the purposes of the applicable legislation on competition.

18 – The members of the management and supervisory bodies of the asset separation tool, its employees, legal representatives, commissioners and other persons that provide permanent or occasional services are subject to the duty of professional secrecy laid down in Article 78.

Article 145-T

Assets, financing and termination of the activity of the asset management vehicle

1 – The Banco de Portugal shall select the rights and obligations of the credit institution under resolution or bridge institution to be transferred to the asset management vehicle at the time of its establishment.

2 – The rights and obligations of the credit institution under resolution or bridge institution may only be transferred to an asset management vehicle if any of the following conditions are met:
(a) their sale in a winding up proceeding has adverse effects on the financial markets;
(b) their transfer is necessary to ensure the proper functioning of the credit institution under resolution or bridge institution;
(c) their transfer is necessary to maximise the revenue from their sale.

3 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the consideration for which the rights and obligations are transferred to the asset management vehicle, which may have nominal or negative value. This should take into account the valuation referred to in Article 145-H and the principles, rules and guidelines of the European Union on State aid.

4 – Subject to Article 145-L(4), any consideration paid by the asset management vehicle in respect of the transfer referred to in Article 145-S(1) shall benefit the credit institution under resolution or the bridge institution, where the rights and obligations have been directly acquired, to the extent of the difference, if positive, between the assets and liabilities of the institution under resolution or bridge institution transferred to an asset management vehicle, calculated in accordance with the valuation referred to in Article 145-H.

5 – The consideration referred to in the foregoing paragraph may be paid in the form of debt bonds issued by the asset management vehicle, in which case Article 349 of the Commercial Companies Code shall not apply.

6 – Subject to Article 145-S(8), any claims on the credit institution under resolution shall not be transferred to the asset separation tool, where they are held by persons and entities who, during the two years preceding the date of application of resolution action, have been holding, directly or indirectly, 2% or more of the share capital of the credit institution or who have been members of the management bodies of the credit institution, unless it is established that they were not, by act or omission, responsible for the financial difficulties of the credit institution and have not contributed, by act or omission, to that situation.

7 – After the transfer referred to in Article 145-S(1), the Banco de Portugal may at any time:

(a) transfer other rights and obligations from the credit institution under resolution or the bridge institution to asset management vehicles;
(b) transfer the rights and obligations transferred to the asset management vehicle back to the credit institution under resolution or the bridge institution and, if necessary, adjust the consideration set at the time of the transfer, in which case the credit institution under resolution or the bridge institution shall be obliged to take back this transfer, under the conditions provided for in the following paragraph.

8 – The transfer referred to in subparagraph 7(b) shall only be made where expressly provided for in a decision of the Banco de Portugal, in accordance with Article 145-S(1), where the conditions for the transfer of rights, obligations, shares and other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution provided for therein are not met or when such rights, obligations, shares and other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution do not fall within the categories set out therein.

9 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the amount of financial support to be granted by the Resolution Fund, if necessary, to create and develop the activity of the asset management vehicle, pursuant to Article 145-AA, while taking into account the intervention of the Fund, under the terms and conditions laid down in Article 167-B, in the framework of the application of resolution action as defined in Article 145-S(1).
10 – The total value of liabilities and off-balance-sheet items to be transferred to the asset management vehicle shall not exceed the total value of the assets transferred from the credit institution under resolution or the bridge institution, plus, where appropriate, the funds from the Resolution Fund or the Fund under the terms and conditions set out in the foregoing paragraph.

11 – The provisions of Article 145-R shall apply mutatis mutandis to the termination of the operation of the asset management vehicle.

Article 145-U
Bail-in

1 – The Banco de Portugal may apply the bail-in tool to recapitalise a credit institution to the extent sufficient to restore its ability to comply with the conditions for authorisation and to continue to carry out its activities and to raise finance independently and under sustainable conditions from the financial markets if there is a reasonable prospect that the application of that tool together with other relevant measures will achieve the objectives set out in Article 145-C(1) and restore the financial soundness and long-term viability of the credit institution, by applying the following powers:

(a) write down, in part or in full, the nominal value of liabilities of the credit institution under resolution that do not result from the ownership of own funds instruments and that are included in the scope of application of the bail-in tool;

(b) raise the capital of the credit institution under resolution or its parent undertaking by converting, in part or in full, the bail-inable liabilities of the credit institution under resolution by issuing ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution or its parent undertaking.

2 – Where the requirements laid down in the foregoing paragraph are not fulfilled, the Banco de Portugal may also:

(a) convert the eligible liabilities of the credit institution under resolution into share capital of the bridge institution by issuing ordinary shares and write down the nominal value of the eligible liabilities of the credit institution under resolution to be transferred to the bridge institution;

(b) write down the nominal value of the eligible liabilities of the credit institution under resolution to be transferred in accordance with Articles 145-M and 145-S.

3 – Where strictly necessary, the Banco de Portugal may change the type of association of the credit institution under resolution in order to apply the powers referred to in the foregoing paragraphs.

4 – The application of the powers referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be preceded by the exercise of the write-down or conversion powers under Article 145-I.

5 – The Banco de Portugal shall select the bail-inable liabilities to which the powers referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall apply.

6 – The powers referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply to:

(a) deposits that are guaranteed by the Deposit Guarantee Fund, within the limits laid down in Article 166;

(b) liabilities covered by collateral;
(c) liabilities to credit institutions and investment firms dealing on own account or underwriting financial instruments and/or placing financial instruments on a firm commitment basis, with an original maturity of less than seven days, excluding entities that are part of the same group;

(d) liabilities with a maturity of less than seven days, owed to payment and securities settlement systems, designated or recognised under Decree-Law No 221/2000 of 9 September 2000 or the Securities Code, or to their operators or participants and arising from the participation in such a system, to central counterparties established in an EU Member State and to central counterparties recognised under Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 4 July 2012;

(e) liabilities to employees in relation to accrued salary, pension benefits or other fixed remuneration, except for the variable component of remuneration that is not regulated by a collective bargaining agreement and except for the variable component of the remuneration of material risk takers as identified in Article 115-C;

(f) liabilities related to the provision of goods and services that are critical to the daily functioning of the credit institution, including IT services, utilities and the rental, servicing and upkeep of premises;

(g) liabilities to tax and local authorities, provided that those liabilities are preferred under the applicable law;

(h) liabilities to the Deposit Guarantee Fund arising from contributions due;

(i) liabilities to credit institutions, investment firms dealing on own account or underwriting financial instruments and/or placing financial instruments on a firm commitment basis and entities referred to in Article 152(2) which have not been identified as resolution entities and belonging to the same resolution group, regardless of their maturity, except where those liabilities are ranked in accordance with Article 8-A of Decree-Law No 199/2006 of 25 October or as subordinated claims in the event of failure.

7 – The provisions of subparagraph 6(b) shall not prevent the Banco de Portugal from implementing the powers referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 to the liabilities covered by collateral in the amount exceeding the guarantee.

8 – The following liabilities shall not be considered bail-inable liabilities:

(a) liabilities arising from the holding by the credit institution of customers’ assets or money held on their behalf shall not be considered eligible liabilities, including customers’ assets or money held on behalf of undertakings for collective investment;

(b) liabilities arising from a trustee relationship between the credit institution in a trustee capacity and a third party as beneficiary where the third party is protected under applicable civil and insolvency law.

9 – The Banco de Portugal may exceptionally exclude, in part or in full, certain bail-inable liabilities or classes of bail-inable liabilities from the application of the bail-in tool where any of the following applies:

(a) it is not operationally possible to apply those powers within a reasonable time frame;

(b) the exclusion is strictly necessary and is proportionate to achieve the continuity of critical functions and core business lines of the credit institution under resolution, in a manner that maintains the ability of the institution under resolution to continue key operations, services and transactions;
(c) the exclusion is strictly necessary and is proportionate to avoid severely disrupting the functioning of financial markets, with impact on the national or European Union economy, in particular as regards the deposits held by natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises for the portion that exceeds the limit laid down in Article 166;

(d) the application of the powers provided for in paragraphs 1 and 2 to those liabilities would cause a destruction in value of the assets of the credit institution under resolution, such that the losses borne by other creditors not excluded in accordance with this paragraph or paragraph 6 would be higher than if those liabilities were excluded from the application of such powers.

10 – For the purposes of the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal shall:

(a) assess whether liabilities of entities referred to in paragraph 6(i) that have not been identified as resolution entities and belong to the same resolution group not excluded from the application of the bail-in tool under that provision should be fully or partially excluded from the application of that tool under the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, in order to ensure the effective implementation of the resolution strategy; and

(b) give due consideration, for the purposes referred to in Article 145-D(1)(a) and (b), to the amount of bail-inable liabilities that would remain in the credit institution after the exercise of that power, as well as the amount of financial resources of the Resolution Fund.

11 – Where the Banco de Portugal decides to exclude certain bail-inable liabilities or classes of bail-inable liabilities from the application of the bail-in tool and it is not possible to pass on the losses that would have been borne by those liabilities to the remaining creditors in accordance with Article 145-D(1)(c), the Banco de Portugal may order the Resolution Fund to provide the credit institution under resolution with the financial support necessary to:

(a) cover any losses which have not been borne by those liabilities, taking into account Article 145-V(1)(a);

(b) purchase shares or other capital instruments of the credit institution under resolution or the bridge institution, taking into account Article 145-V(1)(b).

12 – The Resolution Fund may provide the financial support referred to in the foregoing paragraph only where the following conditions are met:

(a) a contribution to loss absorption and recapitalisation equal to an amount not less than 8% of the total liabilities including own funds of the credit institution under resolution, in accordance with the valuation referred to in Article 145-H, has been made by the holders of own funds instruments and bail-inable liabilities of the credit institution under resolution, by exercising the write-down or conversion powers under Article 145-I and by applying the bail-in tool;

(b) the contribution of the Resolution Fund does not exceed 5% of the total liabilities including own funds of the credit institution under resolution.

13 – The resolution fund may make a contribution under paragraph 11 without complying with the conditions referred to in paragraph 12(a), provided that all of the following situations occur:
(a) the contribution to loss absorption borne by the holders of own funds instruments and bail-inable liabilities of the credit institution under resolution is equal to an amount not less than 20% of the total risk exposure amount;

(b) the resolution fund has at its disposal, by way of the contributions referred to in Articles 153-G and 153-H, an amount which is at least equal to 3% of the deposits of all the participating credit institutions covered by the Deposit Guarantee Fund, within the limit set out in Article 166; and

(c) the credit institution concerned has assets below EUR 900,000,000,000 on a consolidated basis.

14 – In exceptional circumstances the Banco de Portugal may seek further funding from alternative financing sources where financial support provided by the Resolution Fund has reached the 5% limit specified in paragraph 12(b), and all claims, other than deposits guaranteed by the Deposit Guarantee Fund that are not preferred under Article 166-A, have been written down or converted in full, in compliance with paragraphs 1 and 2.

15 – The Banco de Portugal shall notify the European Commission before excluding a bail-inable liability or a class of bail-inable liabilities from the application of the bail-in tool in accordance with paragraph 9.

16 – If the decision provided for in the foregoing paragraph determines the intervention of the Resolution Fund or the acquisition of alternative financing resources, the Banco de Portugal shall await the decision of the European Commission for 24 hours, or for a longer period agreed with that entity, and shall make its decision accordingly.

Article 145-V

Application and effects of the bail-in tool

1 – For the purposes of the application of the powers set out in Article 145-U(1) and (2), the Banco de Portugal shall determine, in aggregate form, on the basis of the valuation referred to in Article 145-H:

(a) the amount of the bail-inable liabilities to be written down in order to ensure that the capital of the credit institution under resolution is equal to zero;

(b) the amount of bail-inable liabilities to be converted into share capital, through the issue of shares or other instruments of ownership, in order to reach a Common Equity Tier 1 capital ratio of either the credit institution under resolution or the bridge institution and enable it to continue to meet, for at least one year, the conditions for authorisation and raise finance independently and under sustainable conditions on the financial markets.

2 – The write-down referred to in paragraph 1(a) shall take into account the provisions of Article 145-Q(7) and Article 145-T(10).

3 – The Banco de Portugal shall apply the bail-in tool in accordance with the order of claims in case of failure. The nominal value of a class of liabilities shall not be written down or a class of liabilities be converted into share capital while those powers are not exercised in relation to other lower ranking classes, according to that order of priority.

4 – In application of the powers laid down in Article 145-U(1) and (2), the provisions of Article 145-J shall apply mutatis mutandis.

5 – The Banco de Portugal may exercise the powers referred to in Article 145-U(1) and (2) in relation to a liability to the credit institution arising from a financial derivative only after closing out the derivative.
6 – The Banco de Portugal may determine the maturity and winding up of any financial derivative with a view to the application of the powers referred to in Article 145-U(1) and (2).

7 – Where financial derivatives are subject to a netting agreement, the Banco de Portugal or an independent entity in accordance with Article 145-H shall determine the liability arising from the write down of those instruments in accordance with the terms of the agreement.

8 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the value of liabilities arising from financial derivatives in accordance with the following:

(a) appropriate methodologies for determining the value of classes of financial derivatives, including transactions that are subject to netting agreements;

(b) principles for establishing the relevant point in time at which the value of a financial derivative position should be established; and

(c) appropriate methodologies for comparing the destruction in value that would arise from the write down of financial derivatives and application of the powers under Article 145-U(1) and (2) with the amount of losses that would be borne by those derivatives in a bail-in.

9 – After the application of the powers referred to in Article 145-U(1) and (2), the part of the bail-in able liabilities that have been written down under such powers is cancelled, and their payment or any other obligations arising in relation to it that are not accrued cease to be required.

10 – The amount of bail-in able liabilities that has not been written down under Article 145-U(1) and (2) remains outstanding in accordance with the applicable contractual terms, subject to any modification of the amount of interest payable and any further modification of the terms that the Banco de Portugal might make in accordance with Article 145-AB(1)(j).

Article 145-W

Business reorganisation plan

1 – Within 30 days of the application of the bail-in tool referred to in Article 145-U, the management body of the credit institution under resolution shall draw up and submit to the Banco de Portugal a business reorganisation plan including the following elements:

(a) a detailed diagnosis of the factors, circumstances and problems that caused the credit institution under resolution to fail or to be likely to fail;

(b) a description of the measures aiming to restore the long-term viability or part of the activity of the credit institution under resolution within an appropriate time frame, which may include:

(i) the reorganisation of its activities;

(ii) changes to the operational systems and infrastructure within the institution;

(iii) the withdrawal from loss-making activities;

(iv) the restructuring of existing activities that can be made competitive;

(v) the sale of assets or of business lines;

(c) the time frame for the implementation of those measures.

2 – The business reorganisation plan shall be based on realistic assumptions as to the economic and financial market conditions under which the credit institution will operate. It shall take account, inter alia, of the current state and future prospects of the financial markets, reflecting best-case and worst-case assumptions, including a combination of events allowing the identification of the main vulnerabilities, which shall be compared with appropriate sector-wide benchmarks.
3 – Where the principles, rules and guidelines of the European Union on State aid are applicable, the business reorganisation plan shall be compatible with the restructuring plan which must be submitted to the Commission under those principles, rules and guidelines.

4 – When the powers referred to in Article 145-U(1) are applied to group entities, whose parent undertaking has its head office in Portugal and is subject to consolidated supervision by the Banco de Portugal, the business reorganisation plan shall be prepared by the body and cover all of the credit institutions and investment firms dealing on own account or underwriting financial instruments and/or placing financial instruments on a firm commitment basis, within the group, and are submitted to the Banco de Portugal, which shall communicate the plan to the relevant resolution authorities and the European Banking Authority.

5 – In exceptional circumstances, if it is necessary for achieving the resolution objectives set out in Article 145-C(1), the resolution authority may extend the period in paragraph 1 up to a maximum of two months since the application of the bail-in tool referred to in Article 145-U(1), or, where the business reorganisation plan is required to be notified to the competent European authorities in terms of State aid, up to the deadline set out in the respective principles, rules and guidelines, whichever occurs earlier.

6 – Within one month of the date of submission of the business reorganisation plan, the Banco de Portugal, in agreement with the European Central Bank, where, under the law, this is the supervisory authority of the credit institution, shall assess the likelihood that the plan, if implemented, will restore the long-term viability of the credit institution.

7 – Where the Banco de Portugal, in agreement with the European Central Bank in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, is not satisfied that the reorganisation plan would achieve the long-term viability of the credit institution, it shall notify the respective management body of its concerns and require the amendment of the plan within 15 days in a way that addresses those concerns.

8 – The Banco de Portugal shall decide, within one week, whether it is satisfied that the plan, as amended, addresses the concerns notified.

9 – The management body of the credit institution shall implement the reorganisation plan as agreed and shall submit a report to the Banco de Portugal at least every six months on progress in the implementation of the plan.

10 – The management body of the credit institution shall revise the reorganisation plan if, in the opinion of the Banco de Portugal with the agreement of the European Central Bank, where, under the law, this is the supervisory authority of the credit institution, it is necessary to achieve the long-term viability of the credit institution, pursuant to paragraphs 8 and 9.

11 – In the case of a credit institution engaged in financial intermediation, the Banco de Portugal shall communicate to the Portuguese Securities Market Commission the elements of the business reorganisation plan which could have an impact on the development of such activities.

1 – [Repealed.]

2 – [Repealed.]

3 – Credit institutions shall include in their instruments and agreements a clause whereby creditors recognise that their liability may be subject to the write-down or conversion powers provided for in Article 145-I or the bail-in tool and accepts their effects where such instruments and agreements:
(a) are not excluded from the scope of the bail-in tool;
(b) are not a deposit;
(c) are governed by the law of a third country; and
(d) are concluded after 31 March 2015.

4 – The foregoing paragraph shall not apply where the Banco de Portugal determines that the mentioned liabilities may be subject to the write-down or conversion powers referred to in Article 145-I or to the bail-in tool referred to in Article 145-U, pursuant to the law of the third country or to a binding agreement concluded with that third country.

5 – The Banco de Portugal may require credit institutions to provide a legal opinion relating to the legal enforceability and effectiveness of a term included in the instruments and agreements referred to in paragraph 3.

6 – Where an instrument or agreement constituting a liability is governed by the law of a third country, the Banco de Portugal may require the credit institution to demonstrate that any decision to apply the powers referred to in Article 145-I(1) and (2) would be effective under the law of that third country, having regard to the terms of the contract governing the liability and international agreements on the recognition of resolution proceedings in that third country. Where the Banco de Portugal is not satisfied, the liability shall not be counted towards the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities.

7 – The Banco de Portugal may exempt a credit institution from compliance with paragraph 3 where:

(a) the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities does not exceed what is necessary to ensure the provisions of Article 138-AS (2)(a); and
(b) the liabilities covered by paragraph 3, which do not include the clause referred to in that paragraph, are not used by the credit institution to meet that minimum requirement.

8 – The credit institution shall notify the Banco de Portugal if, by virtue of the relevant applicable legislation or otherwise, it concludes that it is not feasible to comply with paragraph 3, stating the reasons for such a conclusion and the type of instrument or agreement concerned.

9 – The foregoing paragraph shall not apply to:

(a) additional Tier 1 instruments;
(b) Tier 2 instruments;
(c) debt instruments from which liabilities covered by collateral are not arising;
(d) contractual instruments from which liabilities arise whose ranking in case of failure is equal to or lower than the ranking of the claims referred to in Article 8-A of Decree-Law No 199/2006 of 25 October 2006.

10 – For the purposes of subparagraph (c) of the foregoing paragraph, “debt instruments” are bonds, other debt securities and any instruments creating or recognising a claim.

11 – Following the notification referred to in paragraph 8, the Banco de Portugal may request the credit institution to provide, within a reasonable time frame, any information necessary to assess the impact of the non-inclusion referred to in paragraph 3 on the resolvability of the institution concerned.
12 – The application of paragraph 3 shall be suspended upon receipt by the Banco de Portugal of the notification referred to in paragraph 8.

13 – If the Banco de Portugal considers that the inclusion of paragraph 3 is feasible, it shall require the credit institution, taking into account the need to ensure the resolvability of the credit institution concerned, to include the clause referred to in paragraph 3 within a reasonable time frame after the notification referred to in paragraph 8.

14 – In the cases referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the Banco de Portugal may also require the credit institution to change its practices relating to the application of paragraph 8.

15 – The Banco de Portugal may specify the categories of contractual instruments to which paragraph 8 may be applied.

16 – If, in the context of the assessment of resolvability, or at any time, the Banco de Portugal concludes that, in a given class of liabilities with the same ranking in case of failure which includes eligible liabilities referred to in Article 138-AQ(1), Article 138-AR(1)(a) and Article 138-AV(2), the amount of liabilities covered by paragraph 8 is greater than 10% of the total liabilities within such class of liabilities, together with the amount of liabilities excluded from the scope of the bail-in tool or for which there is a reasonable likelihood of exclusion under Article 145-U(9), in accordance with the resolution plan of the credit institution, the Banco de Portugal shall assess the impact of this situation on the resolvability of the institution concerned, especially taking into account the need to ensure the provisions of Article 145-D(1)(c).

17 – If it concludes, in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, that the non-inclusion of the clause in paragraph 3 constitutes a substantive impediment to resolvability, the Banco de Portugal shall apply the provisions of Articles 138-AK and 138-AL.

18 – Liabilities arising from instruments or agreements which do not include the clause referred to in paragraph 3 shall not be relevant to the amount of the credit institution’s own funds and eligible liabilities, except where the provisions of paragraph 4 apply.

19 – The non-inclusion of paragraph 3 shall not prevent the Banco de Portugal from exercising the write-down or conversion powers provided for in Article 145-I or from applying the bail-in tool provided for in Article 145-U to liabilities arising from these instruments or agreements.

3 – Subject to paragraph 1(e), the resources of the Resolution Fund shall not be used directly to recapitalise or to absorb the losses of the credit institution under resolution.

4 – In the event that the use of the Resolution Fund’s resources for the purposes in paragraphs 1 and 2 indirectly results in part of the losses of the credit institution under resolution being passed on to the Resolution Fund, the provisions of Article 145-U(11) to (13) shall apply.

SECTION IV
RESOLUTION POWERS

Article 145-AB
Resolution powers

1 – In order to ensure the efficient application of resolution action, and to guarantee the pursuit of the objectives set out in Article 145-C(1), the Banco de Portugal shall have, in particular, the following resolution powers:

(i) the obligations under that contract are guaranteed or are otherwise supported by the credit institution under resolution;

(ii) the rights of close-out netting agreements, resolution, termination, opposition to the renewal or amendment of conditions under that contract are based solely on the financial condition or, in the case of contracts under foreign law, on the insolvency of the credit institution under resolution; and

(iii) in the case of a transfer of rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution, all the rights and obligations of the subsidiary relating to that contract have been or may be transferred to and assumed by the recipient, or the Banco de Portugal provides in any other way adequate protection for such obligations;

(f) to temporarily close offices and other premises of the credit institution under resolution where transactions are carried out with the public for a maximum period of one year, extendable for a maximum period of two years;

(g) to require, at any time, any persons or entities to provide, in a reasonable time frame set by the Banco de Portugal, all the information and documents, regardless of the nature of their support, and to carry out on-site inspections to the establishments of a credit institution under resolution, examine the books and take copies of all relevant documentation;

(h) to exercise, directly or through persons appointed for that purpose by the Banco de Portugal, the rights and powers conferred upon the holders of shares or other instruments of ownership and their management bodies and administer or sell the assets and property of the credit institution under resolution;

(i) to require a credit institution under resolution or a relevant parent institution to issue new shares, other instruments of ownership or other securities, including preferential shares and contingent convertible instruments;

(j) to amend:

(i) the maturity date of debt instruments and other bail-inable liabilities issued by the credit institution under resolution;

(l) subject to Article 145-AD and any right of compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, to provide for a transfer to take effect free from any liability or encumbrance, of rights and obligations which are assets, liabilities, off-balance-sheet items and assets under management, and the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership;
(m) to remove rights to acquire further shares or other instruments of ownership;
(n) to require the relevant authority to discontinue or suspend the admission to trading on a regulated market or the official listing of financial instruments;
(o) to cancel or modify the terms and conditions of a contract to which the credit institution under resolution is a party or to substitute a recipient as a party, to which rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution have been transferred, without the consent of the other party;
(p) to require the resolution authorities of the EU Member States in which entities of the group of the credit institution under resolution are established to assist in obtaining the information, documents or access to services and facilities provided for in Article 145-AP(1);
(q) to require the resolution authorities of EU Member States owning the assets, liabilities, off-balance-sheet items, assets under management and shares or other instruments of ownership which are the object of the Banco de Portugal’s transfer decision to provide all necessary assistance for the purposes of that transfer;
(r) to require the transferee receiving the transferred rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution to provide all the assistance, data, information and documents, regardless of the nature of the medium, related to the transferred business.

2 – The provisions of paragraph 1(b) shall not apply to:

(a) [repealed.]
(b) payment and delivery obligations to:

(i) systems or operators of payment and settlement systems for financial instruments designated or recognised under Decree-Law No 221/2000 of 9 September 2000 or the Securities Code;
(ii) central counterparties authorised in the European Union or third-country central counterparties recognised by the European Securities and Markets Authority under Article 25 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 4 July 2012; and
(iii) central banks;

(c) [repealed.]

3 – In view of the specific circumstances, the Banco de Portugal shall determine the set of payment and delivery obligations subject to the provisions of paragraph 1(b), in particular considering the appropriateness of including deposits covered by the Deposit Guarantee Fund, in particular for natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises.

4 – If paragraph 1(b) applies to deposits covered by the Deposit Guarantee Fund, the credit institution shall ensure that depositors have access to an appropriate daily amount as determined by the Banco de Portugal.

5 – In the exercise of the power referred to in paragraph 1(c), and where the provisions of Article 145-AF apply, the Banco de Portugal shall take into account their impact on all entities of the group subject to resolution action. 3

6 – The provisions of paragraph 1(c), (d) and (e) shall not apply to:
(a) systems or operators of payment and securities settlement systems for financial instruments designated or recognised under Decree-Law No 221/2000 of 9 September 2000 or the Securities Code;

(b) central counterparties authorised in the European Union or third-country central counterparties recognised by the European Securities and Markets Authority under Article 25 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 4 July 2012; or

(c) central banks.

7 – For the purposes of subparagraphs 1(d) and (e), a party to a contract may exercise the right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose, renew or amend the conditions before the end of the period referred to in the mentioned subparagraphs where the Banco de Portugal informs them that the rights and obligations covered by the contract shall not be transferred to another entity or shall not be subject to write down or conversion in accordance with Article 145-U(1). 5

8 – For the purposes of paragraph 1(d) and (e), subject to Article 145-AV, where the rights and obligations covered by the contract have been transferred to another entity, and the notification provided for in the foregoing paragraph has not been made, the right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose the renewal or amend the conditions shall only be exercised if any enforcement event occurs, in accordance with that contract.

9 – For the purposes of subparagraphs 1(d) and (e), subject to Article 145-AV, where the rights and obligations covered by the contract have not been transferred to another entity, the Banco de Portugal has not applied the measure referred to in Article 145-U(1) to credit claims resulting from that contract, and the notification provided for in paragraph 7 has not been made, the right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose the renewal or amend the conditions, under that contract, shall only be exercised upon expiry of the suspension period.

10 – The voting rights of shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution shall not be exercised during the period of resolution. 8

11 – The exercise of resolution powers by the Banco de Portugal shall not require the consent of the shareholders or holders of other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution, the parties to contracts relating to their rights and obligations or any third parties, and shall not be the basis for the exercise of the right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose, renew or amend the conditions stipulated in the contracts in question. 9

12 – Subject to the foregoing paragraphs, the exercise of resolution powers shall be without prejudice to the exercise of the rights of parties to a contract concluded with the credit institution under resolution on the basis of an act or omission at a date prior to the transfer, or of the transferee for which the rights, obligations, shares or other instruments of ownership of the credit institution under resolution were transferred.

13 – Subject to Article 145-AT and to the notification requirements under the rules and guidelines of the European Union on State aid, before the exercise of resolution powers, the Banco de Portugal is not subject to compliance with the notification procedures of any persons who would otherwise be determined by law or by contractual provision, or requirements to disclose announcements, or to file or register any document with any other public bodies. 11

14 – Subject to Section V of this Chapter, where none of the powers listed in paragraph 1 is applicable to an institution, as a result of the legal form of the company, the Banco de Portugal may apply similar powers, in particular with regard to their effects. 12

15 – In cases in which resolution action or the powers set out in Article 145-I take effect in respect of rights and obligations or the ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership located in a third country or governed by the law of a third country, the Banco de Portugal may determine that:

(a) the administrator, liquidator or other person or entity exercising control over the assets of the credit institution under resolution and the recipient take all necessary steps to ensure that the application of resolution action or the exercise of powers under Article 145-I becomes effective;

(b) the administrator, liquidator or other person or entity exercising control over the property of the credit institution under resolution take the necessary steps to maintain and preserve the assets, liabilities, off-balance-sheet items, assets under management, shares or other instruments of ownership, or comply with the obligations on behalf of the recipient until the resolution action or the exercise of powers under Article 145-I becomes effective;

(c) the reasonable expenses of the recipient duly incurred in carrying out any measures or powers under the foregoing subparagraphs are paid in any of the forms referred to in Article 145-L(4).

16 – Where the Banco de Portugal considers that, in spite of all the necessary steps taken by the administrator, liquidator or other person or entity in accordance with paragraph 13(a), it is highly unlikely that the application of resolution action or the exercise of powers referred to in Article 145-I will become effective in relation to the rights, obligations, ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership located in a third country or governed by the law of a third country, it shall not proceed with the application of the resolution action or the exercise of the powers referred to in Article 145-I.

17 – Where the Banco de Portugal has already taken the decision to apply a resolution action or the exercise of the powers referred to in Article 145-I, and verifies that it is highly unlikely that the application of that resolution action or the exercise of that power will become effective in relation to the rights, obligations, ownership of shares or other instruments of ownership located in a third country or governed by the law of a third country, that decision shall not have effect in regard to those.

18 - The Banco de Portugal may, after consulting the European Central Bank where the latter is, under the applicable legislation, the supervisory authority of the credit institution concerned, suspend payment or delivery obligations arising from a legal transaction to which a credit institution is a party, where:

(a) the credit institution has been declared by the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as supervisory or resolution authority, to be failing or likely to fail in accordance with Article 145-E(2)(a);

(b) it is not possible to implement any measure in the short term preventing failure in accordance with Article 145-E(2)(b);

(c) the exercise of the power to suspend is deemed necessary to avoid the further deterioration of the financial conditions of the credit institution; and

(d) the exercise of the power to suspend is necessary to:

(i) assess whether the requirements of Article 145-E(2)(c) and (d) are met; or

(ii) determine the resolution actions to be taken against the credit institution or ensure the effective application of resolution actions.

19 – The foregoing paragraph shall not apply to payment and delivery obligations to:

(a) systems or operators of payment and securities settlement systems for financial instruments designated or recognised under Decree-Law No 221/2000 of 9 September 2000 or the Securities
Code;

(b) central counterparties established in an EU Member State and central counterparties recognised by the European Securities and Markets Authority under Article 25 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 4 July 2012;

(c) central banks.

20 – Where paragraph 18 applies, the payment and delivery obligations of the counterparties shall be suspended for the same period of time.

21 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the set of payment and delivery obligations included in the exercise of the power provided for in paragraph 18, in view of the specific circumstances, in particular considering the appropriateness of including deposits covered by the Deposit Guarantee Fund, in particular for natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises.

22 – If paragraph 18 applies to deposits covered by the Deposit Guarantee Fund, the credit institution shall ensure that depositors have access to an appropriate daily amount as determined by the Banco de Portugal.

23 – The Banco de Portugal shall determine the duration of the suspension referred to in paragraph 18, which:

(a) shall be as short as possible, taking into account the purposes referred to in paragraph 18(d); and

(b) shall last no longer than the period from the publication provided for in paragraph 27 to the end of the working day following the day of the publication.

24 – For the purposes of paragraph 18, the Banco de Portugal shall take into account:

(a) the impact on the orderly functioning of financial markets;

(b) the provisions on safeguarding creditors’ rights in insolvency proceedings, in particular the principle of equal treatment of creditors, and the possibility for the credit institution, following the assessment of the requirements set out in Article 145-E(2)(c) and (d), to be wound up.

25 – If the power provided for in paragraph 18 is exercised before a resolution action is taken, the Banco de Portugal shall immediately notify the credit institution concerned and the authorities referred to in Article 145-AT(2)/(b) to (g) thereof.

26 – Insofar as the exercise of the power provided for in paragraph 18 relates to instruments issued by the credit institution admitted to trading on a regulated market, a multilateral trading facility or an organised trading facility, a participant of a central counterparty or a centralised securities system, the Banco de Portugal shall inform the Portuguese Securities Market Commission in advance, in order to assess the potential effects on the development of that activity or on the trading of financial instruments.

27 – The Banco de Portugal shall publish the decision on the exercise of the power provided for in paragraph 18, as well as the terms and period of suspension by the means provided for in Article 145-AT(5).

28 – During the suspension period, the Banco de Portugal may also exercise the following powers, which shall take effect until the end of that period:
(a) to restrict, taking into account the respective impact on the orderly functioning of financial markets, secured creditors of a credit institution from enforcing the relevant collateral, and paragraphs 5 and 6 shall apply;

(b) to suspend, with regard to the respective impact on the orderly functioning of financial markets, the rights to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose the renewal or amend conditions of any party to a contract with a credit institution and paragraphs 1(e) and 6 to 9 shall apply.

29 – Where the Banco de Portugal exercises the power provided for in paragraph 18 in relation to a credit institution in accordance with the provisions of this Article, and subsequently takes resolution action with respect to that institution, it shall not exercise the resolution powers provided for in paragraph 1(b) to (d) with respect to that institution.

30 – Credit institutions shall include, in financial contracts governed by a third-country law, a clause in which the counterparty recognises and accepts:

(a) that such a financial contract may be the subject of the exercise of the powers referred to in paragraph 1(b) to (d) and in paragraph 18; and

(b) its effectiveness and that it is bound to the provisions of Article 145-AV.

31 – The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall apply to financial contracts that:

(a) create new obligations or materially amend existing obligations; and

(b) provide for rights to close out or the possibility of enforcing collateral to which the provisions of paragraphs 1(b) to (d) and 18, as well as the provisions of Article 145-AV, would apply if the financial contract were governed by the law of an EU Member State.

32 – Non-compliance with paragraph 30 shall not prevent the Banco de Portugal from exercising the powers referred to in paragraphs 1(b) to (d) and 18, or the application of the provisions of Article 145-AV to the relevant financial contract.

33 – The Banco de Portugal may require EU parent undertakings to ensure that their subsidiaries established in third countries which are credit institutions, financial institutions or investment firms, or which would be investment firms if they were established in Portugal, include in financial contracts a clause according to which the exercise by the Banco de Portugal of the powers referred to in paragraphs 1(b) to (d) and 18 in relation to the parent undertaking shall not constitute grounds to:

(a) invoke or exercise any termination, suspension, modification, netting or set-off rights; or

(b) enforce collateral under such financial contracts.

European resolution colleges

1 – Where a third-country credit institution or third-country parent undertaking has subsidiaries, parent undertakings or at least two significant branches established in two or more EU Member States, including Portugal, the Banco de Portugal, together with the resolution authorities of the other Member States, shall establish a European resolution college in order for resolution authorities to adequately carry out the tasks provided for in paragraph 4 of the foregoing Article and, where applicable, by the supervisory authorities involved, with respect to the referred entities and, insofar as those tasks are relevant, to the branches concerned.

Article 145-AI
Taking of resolution actions in relation to a subsidiary in a group or withdrawal of its authorisation

1 - Where the Banco de Portugal considers that the requirements of Article 145-E(2) are met in relation to a credit institution established in Portugal that is a subsidiary in a group, it shall notify the group-level resolution authority, the consolidating supervisor and the resolution college members of the group in question of this fact and of the resolution actions that it intends to take.

2 - Where the Banco de Portugal considers that there are grounds to withdraw the authorisation of a credit institution established in Portugal that is a subsidiary in a group, pursuant to Article 22, but that the requirements of Article 145-E(2) are not met, it shall notify the group-level resolution authority, the consolidating supervisor and the resolution college members of the group in question of this fact and the effects of its decision.

3 - The Banco de Portugal may take the actions notified pursuant to paragraph 1 or decide on the withdrawal of the authorisation of a credit institution that is a subsidiary in a group notified pursuant to paragraph 2 only if the group-level resolution authority, after consulting the other members of the resolution college, considers that the resolution actions or the withdrawal of authorisation would not make it likely that the requirements of Article 145-E(2) would be satisfied in relation to a group credit institution in another EU Member State.

4 – In the absence of an assessment by the group-level resolution authority within 24 hours after receiving the notification under paragraphs 1 or 2, or a longer period that has been agreed, the Banco de Portugal may take the resolution actions referred to in paragraph 1 or withdraw the authorisation of a credit institution that is a subsidiary in a group notified in accordance with paragraph 2.

5 – On receiving a notification that the requirements of Article 145-E(2) are met or that there are grounds to withdraw the authorisation of a credit institution that is a subsidiary in a group, the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as group-level resolution authority, after consulting the other members of the resolution college, shall assess the likely impact of such measures or the withdrawal of authorisation on the group and group entities in other EU Member States and, in particular, whether such actions would make it likely that the requirements of Article 145-E(2) would be satisfied in relation to a group credit institution in another EU Member State.

6 - Where the Banco de Portugal, as the group-level resolution authority, after consulting the other members of the resolution college pursuant to the foregoing paragraph, considers that:

(a) the actions notified would make it likely that the requirements laid down in Article 145-E(2) would be satisfied in relation to a group credit institution in another EU Member State, it shall, no later than 24 hours after receiving the notification, propose a group resolution scheme and submit it to the resolution college. That 24-hour period may be extended with the consent of the resolution authority which made the notification;

(b) the actions notified would not make it likely that the requirements laid down in Article 145-E(2) would be satisfied in relation to a group credit institution in another EU Member State, it shall notify the authority responsible for that institution or entity.

7 - The group resolution scheme, required under subparagraph 6(a), shall take the form of a joint decision of the group-level resolution authority and the resolution authorities responsible for the subsidiaries that are covered by the group resolution scheme. It shall:

(a) take into account and follow the resolution plans as referred to in Article 138-AF unless resolution authorities conclude, taking into account the circumstances of the case, that resolution objectives will be achieved more effectively by taking actions that are not provided for in the resolution plans;

(b) outline the resolution actions that should be taken by the relevant resolution authorities in relation to the Union parent undertaking or particular group entities with the aim of meeting the resolution objectives and principles referred to in Article 145-C(1) and Article 145-D(1);

(d) establish a financing plan which considers the group resolution plan and principles for sharing responsibility among sources of financing in the various EU Member States as established in accordance with Article 138-AG(2)(g) and Article 145-AK.

8 - The Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as resolution authority responsible for the credit institutions that are covered by the group resolution scheme, may request the European Banking Authority to assist the resolution authorities in reaching a joint decision in accordance with the foregoing paragraph.
9 - Where the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as resolution authority, member of a resolution college of a group, disagrees with the group resolution scheme proposed by the competent resolution authority or considers that, for reasons of financial stability, it needs to take actions other than those proposed in the scheme, it shall notify the group-level resolution authority and the other resolution authorities that are covered by the group resolution scheme of the reasons for the disagreement and, where applicable, inform them of the actions it intends to take, giving consideration to the resolution plans as referred to in Article 138-AF and the potential impact on financial stability in the EU Member States concerned or on other group entities.

10 - Where the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as resolution authority member of a resolution college of a group, does not disagree with the group resolution scheme proposed by the group-level resolution scheme, it may, together with other resolution authorities of the group that did not disagree with the scheme, reach a joint decision on a group resolution scheme covering entities in their EU Member States.

11 - The joint decisions referred to in paragraphs 7 and 10 and the individual decision referred to in paragraph 9, when taken by other resolution authorities that are members of a resolution college of a group, shall be recognised as conclusive by the Banco de Portugal.

12 - Where a group resolution scheme is not implemented and the Banco de Portugal takes resolution action in relation to any subsidiary in a group, it shall inform the members of the resolution college regularly and fully about those actions or other measures and their ongoing progress. It shall cooperate closely within the resolution college with a view to achieving a coordinated resolution strategy for all the group entities that are failing or likely to fail.

13 - For the purposes of this Article, the Banco de Portugal acts without delay, and with due regard to the urgency of the situation.

Article 145-AJ

2 - Where the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as group-level resolution authority, considers that there are grounds to withdraw the authorisation of a credit institution that is the parent undertaking of a group, pursuant to Article 22, but that the requirements of Article 145-E(2) are not met, it shall notify the consolidating supervisor and the other resolution college members of the group in question of this fact and the effects of its decision.

3 - The resolution actions notified for the purposes of paragraph 1 may include the implementation of a group resolution scheme drawn up in accordance with Article 145-I(7) in any of the following circumstances:

(a) the taking of resolution actions at parent level or the withdrawal of its authorisation make it likely that the requirements laid down in Article 145-E(2) would be fulfilled in relation to a group entity in another EU Member State;

(b) the taking of resolution actions at parent level or the withdrawal of its authorisation are not sufficient to restore the group's financial balance or solvency;

6 - Where the resolution scheme referred to in paragraph 3 is not implemented, the Banco de Portugal, after consulting the other resolution college members of the group, shall take the resolution action notified pursuant to paragraph 1, considering the financial stability in the EU Member States concerned and the resolution plans established in Article 138-AF, except in the cases where resolution authorities consider that the actions laid down in such plans are not those best suited to achieve the resolution objectives, and inform the resolution college members of the group about the ongoing progress, cooperating closely within the resolution college with a view to achieving a coordinated resolution strategy for all the group entities that are failing or likely to fail.

7 - Where the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as resolution authority member of a resolution college of a group, disagrees with the group resolution scheme proposed by the group-level resolution authority or considers that, for reasons of financial stability, it needs to take actions other than those proposed in the scheme, it shall notify the group-level resolution authority and the other resolution authorities covered by the group resolution scheme of the reasons for the disagreement and, where applicable, shall inform them of the actions it intends to take, giving consideration to the resolution plans as referred to in Article 138-AF and the potential impact on financial stability in the EU Member States concerned or on other group entities.

8 - Where the Banco de Portugal, in its capacity as resolution authority member of a resolution college of a group, does not disagree with the group resolution scheme proposed by the group-level resolution authority, it may, together with other resolution authorities of the group that did not disagree with the scheme, reach a joint decision on a group resolution scheme covering entities in their EU Member States.

SECTION VII
RELATIONS WITH THIRD COUNTRIES

Article 145-AL

Recognition and enforcement of third-country resolution proceedings

1 - In the absence of a joint decision between the resolution authorities participating in the European resolution college pursuant to Article 145-AH(8), or in the absence of a European resolution college, the Banco de Portugal, notwithstanding the following paragraph, shall make its own decision on whether to recognise and enforce third-country resolution proceedings relating to a third-country credit institution or parent undertaking, giving due consideration to the interest of each individual Member State where a third-country credit institution or parent undertaking operates, and in particular to the potential impact of the recognition and enforcement on the other parts of the group and the financial stability in those Member States.

2 - The Banco de Portugal, after consulting other resolution authorities, where a European resolution college is established under Article 145-AH, may refuse to recognise or to enforce third-country resolution proceedings if it considers that:

(a) the third-country resolution proceedings would have adverse effects on financial stability in Portugal or in another EU Member State;

(b) the resolution action in relation to a branch in Portugal of credit institutions authorised in an EU Member State would be necessary to achieve a resolution objective;

(c) creditors, in particular depositors, would not receive the same treatment as third-country creditors and depositors with similar legal form under the third-country home resolution proceedings;

(d) the recognition or enforcement of the third-country resolution proceedings would have fiscal implications for Portugal; or

(e) the effects of such recognition or enforcement would be contrary to national law.

3 - With regard to decisions taken on the recognition and enforcement of third-country resolution proceedings referred to in Article 145-AH(8) and paragraph 1, the Banco de Portugal may:

(a) exercise the resolution powers in relation to the following:

(i) assets of a third-country credit institution or parent undertaking that are located in Portugal or governed by national law;

(ii) rights or liabilities of a third-country credit institution that are booked by the branch located in Portugal or governed by national law, or where claims in relation to such rights and obligations are enforceable in Portugal;

(b) transfer, or request another entity to take action to transfer, shares or other instruments of ownership in a subsidiary of a third-country credit institution or a parent mixed financial holding company established in an EU Member State;
(c) exercise the powers in Article 145-AB in relation to the contracts with an entity referred to in Article 145-AH(8), where such powers are necessary in order to enforce third-country resolution proceedings;

(d) suspend any right to close out, resolve, terminate, oppose the renewal or amend the terms and conditions, as well as any right to affect the contractual rights, of entities referred to in Article 145-AH(8) and other group entities, where such a right arises from resolution action taken in respect of such entities or other group entities, whether by the third-country resolution authority itself pursuant to legal or regulatory requirements as to resolution arrangements in that country, provided that the substantive obligations under the contract, including payment and delivery obligations, and provision of collateral, continue to be fulfilled.

4 - The Banco de Portugal may take, where necessary in the public interest, resolution action with respect to a parent undertaking where the relevant third-country authority determines that a credit institution that is incorporated in that third country meets the conditions for resolution under the law of that third country. For that purpose, Article 145-AV shall apply.

5 - The recognition and enforcement of third-country resolution proceedings shall be without prejudice to any normal insolvency proceedings under national law applicable, where appropriate.

Article 145-AM

Resolution of branches located in Portugal of credit institutions authorised in a third country

1 - When the conditions laid down in paragraph 2 are met, the Banco de Portugal may take resolution actions or exercise resolution powers in relation to a branch located in Portugal of a credit institution authorised in a third country that is not subject to any third-country resolution proceedings or that is subject to third-country resolution proceedings that have been refused pursuant to Article 145-AJ(2). For that purpose, Article 145-AV and the principles and requirements laid down in Articles 145-D, 145-E and 145-H shall apply.

2 - The Banco de Portugal may take resolution actions or exercise resolution powers pursuant to paragraph 1, where it considers that action is necessary in the public interest and one or more of the following conditions are met:

(a) the branch no longer meets or is highly likely not to meet the requirements for its authorisation and operation and there is no prospect that any action by the credit institution itself, implementation of corrective measures or the exercise of powers pursuant to Article 145-I would restore the branch to compliance or prevent failure, in a reasonable time frame;

(b) the Banco de Portugal considers that the third-country credit institution is unable, or is likely to be unable, to pay its obligations to creditors, including obligations that have been created through the branch, as they fall due, and that no third-country resolution or insolvency proceedings have been or will be initiated, in relation to that third-country credit institution, in a reasonable time frame;

(c) the relevant third-country authority has initiated third-country resolution proceedings in relation to the third-country credit institution, or has notified to the Banco de Portugal its intention to initiate such a proceeding.

Article 145-AN

1 - Until an international agreement as referred to in Article 93(1) of Directive 2014/59/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 enters into force, this Article shall apply in respect of cooperation between the Banco de Portugal and relevant third-country authorities.

2 - The Banco de Portugal shall conclude framework cooperation arrangements, in line with the framework cooperation arrangements signed by the European Banking Authority pursuant to Article 97(2) and (3) of Directive 2014/59/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014, with the following relevant third-country authorities:

3 – Cooperation arrangements concluded between the Banco de Portugal and relevant third-country authorities in accordance with this Article may include provisions on the following matters:

(a) the exchange of information necessary for the preparation, revision and update of resolution plans;

(b) consultation and cooperation in the development of resolution plans, including principles for the exercise of powers under Article 145-AH(8) and (9), Articles 145-AL and 145-AM and similar powers under the law of the relevant third countries;

(c) the exchange of information necessary for the application of resolution tools and exercise of resolution powers and similar powers under the law of the relevant third countries;

(d) notification or consultation of parties to the cooperation arrangement before taking any measure under Title VIII or similar measures under relevant third-country law affecting the credit institution or group to which the arrangement relates;

(e) the coordination of public communication in the case of joint resolution actions;

(f) procedures and arrangements for the exchange of information and cooperation under the foregoing subparagraphs, including, where appropriate, through the establishment and operation of crisis management groups.

4 - The cooperation arrangements under this Article shall not establish rules or provisions in relation to specific credit institutions, and shall not prevent the Banco de Portugal from concluding bilateral or multilateral arrangements with third countries, in accordance with Article 33 of Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.

5 - The Banco de Portugal shall notify the European Banking Authority of any cooperation arrangements that it has concluded in accordance with this Article.

following conditions are met:

(a) those third-country authorities are covered, in the opinion of all the authorities concerned, by guarantees of secrecy equivalent to those provided for in this Legal Framework;

(b) insofar as the exchange of information relates to personal data, the handling and transmission of such data to third-country authorities shall be governed by the applicable Union and national data protection law;

(c) the information is necessary for the performance by the relevant third-country authorities of their resolution functions that are comparable to those under this Legal Framework, and is not used for any other purposes.

2 - Where confidential information originates in another EU Member State, the Banco de Portugal shall not disclose that information to relevant third-country authorities unless the following conditions are met:

(a) the relevant authority of the EU Member State where the information originated agrees to that disclosure;

(b) the information is disclosed only for the purposes permitted by that EU Member State.

8 – The Fund, as deposit guarantee scheme of the home Member State, shall share with the deposit guarantee schemes of the host Member States the information received from the Banco de Portugal under Article 167(9) and the results of the tests performed under Article 167(12).

9 – If a credit institution ceases to be a member of the Fund and joins another deposit guarantee scheme officially recognised in another EU Member State, the Fund shall transfer to this scheme the contributions paid by the credit institution during the 12 months preceding the end of the membership in the Fund, with the exception of the special contributions under Article 162(1)(a), in proportion to the amount of transferred deposits covered by the Fund within the limit provided for in Article 166.

10 – The Fund shall have written cooperation agreements in place with other deposit guarantee schemes of EU Member States with which it has a relationship and shall notify the European Banking Authority of the existence and the content of such agreements.

11 – If, pursuant to the establishment or implementation of the cooperation agreements referred to in the foregoing paragraph, there is a disagreement between the Fund and the other deposit guarantee schemes of EU Member States, the Fund may request assistance from the European Banking Authority to settle the disagreement under Article 19 of Regulation (EU) 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.

Financial assistance for the implementation of resolution action

1 – Where resolution action is applied in relation to a credit institution, the Banco de Portugal may determine that the Fund provides financial assistance for the implementation of resolution action up to the maximum:

(a) amount by which the claims in respect of deposits covered by the Fund, within the limit provided for in Article 166, would have been written down in order to absorb the losses in the institution, under the bail-in tool, had these deposits not been excluded from the scope of this tool pursuant to Article 145-U(6)(a) and had they been written down to the same extent as the nominal value of claims with the same level of priority, according to the seniority of the claim in insolvency; or

(b) amount of losses that the depositors holding deposits covered by the Fund, within the limit provided for in Article 166, would have suffered as a result of the application of resolution action, with the exception of the bail-in tool, had they suffered losses in proportion to the losses incurred by the rest of the creditors with the same level of priority, according to the seniority of the claim in insolvency.

2 – Without prejudice to the foregoing paragraph, the Fund’s financial assistance for the implementation of resolution action may not result in its financial means being reduced to an amount equal to or less than their minimum level.

3 – The financial assistance under paragraph 1 grants the Fund a credit claim against the member institution under resolution, for an amount equal to that financial assistance, under the provisions of Article 166-A(3).

4 – Where deposits covered by the Fund, within the limit provided for in Article 166, at a credit institution under resolution are transferred to another entity through the sale of business tool or the bridge institution tool, the holders of the deposits in question have no claim against the Fund in relation to any part of their deposits at the credit institution under resolution that are not transferred, provided that the amount of funds transferred is equal to or more than the limit provided for in Article 166.

2 – Not complying with, hindering or obstructing the application of additional penalties or precautionary measures applied in administrative offence proceedings shall incur the same penalty.
CHAPTER II
Administrative offences

SECTION I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 201
Areas of application

The provisions of this Title shall apply, regardless of the agent’s nationality, to the following acts constituting breaches under Portuguese law:

(a) acts committed within the Portuguese territory;
(b) acts committed on foreign territory by credit institutions or financial companies having their head office in Portugal and operating there through branches or by providing services, as well as by individuals who, in relation to such entities, fall into any of the situations provided for in Article 203(1), or are shareholders of those institutions;
(c) acts committed on board Portuguese ships or aircrafts, except as otherwise provided for by treaty or convention.

Article 202
Responsibility for administrative offences

1 – Natural or legal persons, even if irregularly constituted, and associations without legal personality may be held responsible, jointly or not, for the administrative offences referred to in this Legal Framework.

2 – Anyone who, by act or omission, causally contributes to the administrative offences set out in this Legal Framework shall be punishable as the agent of said offences.

Article 203
Responsibility of collective bodies

1 – Legal persons and similar entities referred to in the foregoing Article shall be responsible for administrative offences committed by members of their bodies and by their top-, mid- or lower-level managers in the exercise of their functions, as well as for the administrative offences committed by legal representatives, representatives or workers of the collective body acting in its name and on its behalf.

2 – The responsibility of the legal person shall be excluded when the agent acts against its orders or instructions expressly given.

3 – The legal invalidity or ineffectiveness of the deeds on which the relationship between the individual agent and the collective body is founded do not preclude their responsibility.

Article 204
Responsibility of individual agents

1 – The responsibility of the legal persons and similar entities does not preclude the individual responsibility of their agents.

2 – When the legal definition of the breach requires the existence of certain personal elements which are only found in the legal person, the similar entity or one of the agents involved, or requires the act to have been committed in the agents’ own interest, while the agent acted for the interest of the represented entity, these circumstances do not preclude the individual responsibility of the agents acting on behalf of the represented entity.

3 – The responsibility of the members of the board or the management of legal persons and similar entities may be particularly mitigated where these are not directly responsible, cumulatively, for the domain or the area where the breach was committed, and their responsibility resides only in the fact that, considering they should be or were aware of the breach, they did not take appropriate measures to remedy that situation.

Article 205

Attempted offences and negligence

1 – Attempted offences and negligence shall always be punishable.

2 – In the event of negligence, the upper limit of the administrative fine set out for the offence shall be reduced by half.

3 – In the event of an attempt, the applicable administrative fine shall be that laid down for the committed offence, with due mitigation.

4 – [Repealed].

Article 206

Degree of penalty

1 – The administrative fine and additional penalties shall be determined according to the illicit nature of the breach, the agent’s guilt and the prevention requirements, also taking into account whether the agent is a natural or legal person.

2 – The illicit nature of the breach, the agent’s guilt and the prevention requirements shall be evaluated taking into account, inter alia, the following circumstances:

(a) danger or harm caused to the financial system or to the national economy;
(b) occasional or repeated nature of the breach;
(c) [Repealed];
(d) [Repealed];
(e) degree of the defendant’s participation in the breach;
(f) intensity of the fraudulent intent or negligence;
(g) benefit or intended benefit for the person concerned or third parties;
(h) the losses for third parties caused by the breach and their importance, insofar as they can be determined;
(i) the duration of the breach;
(j) where the administrative offence corresponds to the omission of an act, the time that has elapsed since the date on which the act should have been carried out.

3 – As regards natural persons, the illicit nature of the breach, the agent’s guilt and the prevention requirements shall be evaluated also taking into consideration the following circumstances:

(a) level of responsibility, scope of functions and sphere of action within the legal person in question;
(b) [Repealed];
(c) special duty not to commit the breach.
4 – In determining the penalty to be applied, the following shall also be taken into consideration:

(a) the economic standing of the defendant;
(b) the previous conduct of the defendant.
(c) acts of concealment to obstruct the discovery of the breach;
(d) acts on the agent’s own initiative to repair the damage or obviate the danger caused by the breach;
(e) the level of cooperation of the defendant.

5 – [Repealed].

6 – The administrative fine should, wherever possible, exceed any economic benefit that the defendant or any person whom the defendant intended may have gained as a result of the breach.

Article 207

Injunctions and fulfilment of breached duties

1 – Whenever the breach is a result of failure to perform a duty, the application of the penalty and the payment of the administrative fine do not exempt the offender from performing the said duty, if this is still possible.

2 – The Banco de Portugal may impose on the offender an injunction to fulfil the breached duty, bring the infringing conduct to an end and avoid the consequences thereof.

3 – Should the offender fail to comply with the injunctions referred to in the foregoing paragraph within the time limit set by the Banco de Portugal, it shall incur the penalty prescribed for particularly serious breaches.

Article 208

Concurrent offences

1 – Where, for the practice of the same facts, a person is answerable for both criminal and administrative offences, the administrative offence proceedings under the remit of the Banco de Portugal and the corresponding decision are always the responsibility of this authority.

2 – Where a person is answerable for a criminal offence, although the relevant facts are also punishable as an administrative offence, the criminal court may apply the additional penalties set out for the administrative offence in question.

Article 209

Period of limitation

1 – Administrative offence proceedings provided for in this Legal Framework shall reach the period of limitation within five years.

2 – In case of concealment of the facts which are the object of administrative offence proceedings, the period of limitation shall only begin from the date on which the Banco de Portugal becomes aware of these facts.

3 – The period of limitation of penalties is five years as of the date on which the decision to impose the penalty becomes final.

4 – Without prejudice to other causes for suspending or interrupting the period of limitation, the limitation of administrative offence proceedings shall be suspended from the date of notification of the order initiating the preliminary study of the appeal against the decision applying the penalty until the date of notification of the final decision on the appeal.

5 – In the case of serious breaches, the suspension provided for in the foregoing paragraph shall not exceed 30 months.

6 – In the case of particularly serious breaches, the suspension provided for in paragraph 4 shall not exceed five years.

7 – The time period set out in paragraphs 5 and 6 shall be doubled if there has been an appeal to the Constitutional Court.

Article 209-A
Decision not to initiate proceedings

1 – Without prejudice to the exercise of other administrative powers, the Banco de Portugal may inform the institutions of the possibility of correcting irregularities of minor seriousness, or the causes of such irregularities, within a period and under conditions to be laid down for that purpose, including, if it considers it appropriate, the specific measures to be taken, where the following requirements are cumulatively met:

(a) the interests that are protected by law are not seriously and irreversibly harmed;
(b) the harm of protected rights or interests has ceased;
(c) any damage caused by such harm is reparable;
(d) the correction of the irregularities or their causes adequately achieves the legal purposes or reasonably prevents the risk of future non-compliance; and
(e) the general or special prevention purposes are not jeopardised by the non-application of sanctions.

2 – The institution shall inform the Banco de Portugal, within the set time frame, of the measures actually taken to correct the irregularities identified and the actual date on which they were remedied.

3 – The Banco de Portugal may decide not to initiate any administrative offence proceedings where it considers that the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs have been met.

4 – The Banco de Portugal shall disclose an annual summary of the irregularities by type and the grounds for the decisions not to initiate proceedings as referred to in the foregoing paragraph.

2 – The case shall also be closed where sufficient evidence that the administrative offence was committed or that identifies its agent has not been obtained.

3 – The proceedings shall only be reopened where new evidence comes to light invalidating the reasons given in the decision to close the case.

4 – The decision to close the case shall be communicated to the agent, if it takes place after the notification of the procedural document which formally attributes to the agent an administrative offence, or, where it takes place before said notification, if the agent has already been involved in the proceedings.

4 – The limits laid down in the foregoing paragraph may be exceeded, where the defendant makes a fully reasoned request, provided this is necessary to discover the truth, particularly due to the exceptional complexity of the case.
5 – The Banco de Portugal shall notify the defendant or the defendant’s defence counsel, if there is one, of additional evidence it has obtained, on its own initiative, after the defence has been produced, setting a deadline for the defendant to respond to the evidence obtained, if the defendant so wishes.

1 – The Board of Directors of the Banco de Portugal may suspend, in whole or in part, the execution of the penalty, where it concludes that the general prevention strategies are still carried out in an appropriate and sufficient manner.
2 – The suspension may be conditional on the fulfilment of certain obligations, in particular those considered necessary to remedy illegal situations, to compensate for damages or to prevent risks.
3 – The period of suspension shall range between two and five years, as of the day when the decision becomes final.
4 – The suspension does not include costs.

2 – The penalty applicable consists of a warning or an administrative fine, whose maximum amount shall not exceed five times the minimum limit set out for the breach or, in the event of several breaches, a single administrative fine not exceeding 20 times the highest minimum limit for the concurrent administrative offences; in any case, the adoption of a specific behaviour and an additional penalty consisting of the publication of the decision may also be established.

3 – The decision provided for in paragraph 1 shall contain the identification of the defendant, a summary description of the relevant facts, a reference to the rules infringed and the rules on penalties and the warning or an indication of the administrative fine or additional penalty specifically applied, or, where applicable, the behaviour to be adopted and the deadline for its adoption, as well as the elements taken into account to determine the penalty.

4 – The notification of the decision shall refer to the provisions of paragraph 7 and shall be accompanied by a template for the declaration of acceptance of the decision and, where the penalty applied is an administrative fine, a payment form.

5 – Upon receipt of the notification, the defendant shall send to the Banco de Portugal within 10 working days:

7 – The decision shall become null and void and the administrative offence proceedings will follow the usual course, in which case the Banco de Portugal shall conduct the inquiry it considers appropriate and, where applicable, formally attribute to the defendant an administrative offence, without being bound by the contents of the said decision, if the defendant:

2 – The disclosure of the judicial decision that confirms, amends or repeals a conviction handed down by the Banco de Portugal or by a court of first instance shall be mandatory pursuant to the foregoing paragraph.

3 – The Banco de Portugal may disclose the decision on an anonymous basis, delay its disclosure or not disclose it at all, where:

(b) the disclosure might jeopardise the stability of financial markets or the success of an ongoing investigation;

(c) the disclosure would cause, insofar as can be determined, actual damage to the agent, clearly disproportionate considering the seriousness of the breach.

4 – Where the circumstances referred to in the foregoing paragraph are likely to cease within a reasonable period of time, the disclosure of the identity of the legal persons or the personal data of the natural persons may be postponed for such a period of time.

5 – Information disclosed under the foregoing paragraphs shall remain available on the website of the Banco de Portugal for five years as of the moment the decision becomes final or res judicata, except where a penalty with a duration exceeding such term has been applied, in which case the information shall remain available on the website until the expiry of the longer term of duration, and shall never be indexed by search engines.

3 – Where there are several defendants, the deadline referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall start from the expiry of whichever deadline comes last.

Article 228-A
Effect of the appeal

The appeal against decisions reached by the Banco de Portugal shall only have a suspensive effect if the person lodging the appeal provides collateral, within 20 days, to an amount corresponding to half of the administrative fine applied, except if such person proves, within the same time period, being unable to provide the collateral, in whole or in part, due to lack of means.
