Statement by Assistant Secretary Michele Davis on Emergency Economic Stabilization Act Vote

9/29/2008

HP-1167

Washington, DC -- Treasury Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs and Director of Policy Planning Michele Davis issued the following statement on the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 vote:

"The Secretary will be consulting with the President, the Chairman of the Federal Reserve, and Congressional leaders on next steps. In the meantime, we stand ready to work with fellow regulators and use all the tools at our disposal, as we have over the last several months, to protect our financial markets and our economy."
