OCTOBER 2008

GM Privately Requests Federal Aid

Mon Oct 13 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

GM CEO Rick Wagoner met with Secretary Paulson and requested a $5 billion loan and $5 billion line of credit to stave off a bank-like run from the company's creditors and suppliers.

NOVEMBER 2008

GM Reports Liquidity Issues, $2.5 Billion Quarterly Loss

Fri Nov 07 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

GM reported a net loss of $2.5 billion for the third quarter of 2008 and revealed that it is rapidly running short on cash. The company reported that, "GM's estimated liquidity during the remainder of 2008 will approach the minimum amount necessary to operate its business [and] [l]ooking into the first two quarters of 2009 . . . the company's estimated liquidity will fall significantly short of that amount."

In an interview on CNBC, GM CEO Rick Wagoner rejected the suggestion that his company file for bankruptcy, saying, "We have no plans whatsoever to consider anything other than continue to run the business. We don't think anything positive would come out of [a bankruptcy filing] . . . You can't sell cars to people under those circumstances."

Pelosi, Reid Request TARP Aid for Automakers

Sat Nov 08 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

Speaker Pelosi and Majority Leader Reid sent a letter to Treasury Secretary Paulson requesting that he consider using TARP funds to provide support to the auto industry.

White House Rejects Using TARP Funds for Automakers

Tue Nov 11 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

White House Press Secretary Dana Perino said that Treasury doesn't have the authority to assist the Big Three automakers. According to Perino, "the Troubled Asset Relief Program was for financial institutions, and that definition doesn't translate over to individual industries."

GMAC Seeks to Convert to Bank Holding Company, Receive TARP Funds

Thu Nov 20 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

GMAC, the captive finance arm of GM, submitted an application to the Federal Reserve to become a Bank Holding Company (BHC) and initiated a debt-exchange offer for its creditors. Additionally, GMAC applied for funds under TARP's Capital Purchase Program (CPP) – which is conditional on the approval of its BHC application.

Pelosi, Reid Request Restructuring Plans from Automakers

Fri Nov 21 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

DECEMBER 2008

Big Three Automakers Request $34 Billion

Tue Dec 02 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

The Big Three automakers submitted restructuring plans to Congress requesting a combined $34 billion in loans and lines of credit – $18 billion for GM, $7 billion for Chrysler, and $9 billion for Ford. Ford stated that it does not immediately need a loan, but requested a line of credit in the event that economic and auto industry conditions deteriorate further.

House Passes Aid for Automakers

Wed Dec 10 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

The House of Representatives passed the Auto Industry Financing and Restructuring Act by a vote of 237-170. The legislation would set aside $14 billion for a bridge loan, while creating a “car czar” to oversee the restructuring of auto companies that received support.

Auto Industry Bill Dies in Senate

Thu Dec 11 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

The Auto Industry Financing and Restructuring Act failed in the Senate. Negotiations broke down over a proposal by Senator Bob Corker intended to attract Republican votes – which included sharper cuts in pay and benefits for UAW employees and stronger powers for the so-called car czar.

White House Considers Using TARP Funds to Aid Automakers

Fri Dec 12 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

Following the failure of a Senate vote to aid the auto industry, White House Press Secretary Dana Perino issued a statement before the markets opened that the Bush Administration will “consider other options if necessary – including use of the TARP program – to prevent a collapse of troubled automakers.”

Bush Administration Commits $17.4 Billion to GM and Chrysler,

Fri Dec 19 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

The Bush Administration agreed to provide $17.4 billion in loans to GM ($13.4 billion) and Chrysler ($4.0 billion) through TARP. Under the terms of the loans, the automakers are required to submit viability plans by February 17, 2009. In the event GM and Chrysler do not achieve viability by March 31, 2009, the government would have a right to demand immediate repayment of the loans – effectively putting those firms into bankruptcy.

Treasury Releases Term Sheet for Automotive Plan

Fri Dec 19 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

The U.S. Treasury Department released the term sheet and appendices for the Administration's plan for stabilizing the automotive industry.

Treasury Commits $6 Billion to GMAC through TARP

Mon Dec 29 2008 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

After the markets closed, Treasury announced that it will purchase $5 billion in preferred stock from GMAC, and loan up to $1 billion to GM to purchase additional equity in GMAC. Under this agreement, Treasury has the ability to exchange its $1 billion loan to GM for the GMAC equity GM purchased with that loan.

MARCH 2009

White House Announces Auto Supplier Support Program

Thu Mar 19 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

The Obama Administration announced the Auto Supplier Support Program. This initiative is designed to provide suppliers with access to government-backed protection that money owed to them for the products they ship will be paid no matter what happens to the recipient car company. The Treasury Department is making up to $5 billion available for the program.

President Obama Rejects GM and Chrysler Viability Plans

Mon Mar 30 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

President Obama announced that his Administration has rejected GM and Chrysler's viability plans. The government will provide additional time (and working capital) for the companies to develop improved restructuring plans.

Chrysler, which the Administration has determined is not viable as a standalone company, has been given 30 days to finalize a partnership with Fiat. If Chrysler and Fiat reach an agreement, the government will consider investing an additional $6 billion to help make the partnership succeed. If not, the government will not provide any additional taxpayer funds.

GM has been given 60 days to produce a more aggressive restructuring plan – during which it will receive $6 billion in working capital. Additionally, the Administration announced that GM Chairman and CEO Rick Wagoner will step aside, and that he will be replaced as chairman by former Northrup Grumman Chairman and CEO Kent Kresa and replaced as CEO by current GM President Fritz Henderson.

The government also announced the launch of the Warrantee Commitment Program, using TARP funds to guarantee warranties on cars bought while the companies are restructuring.

APRIL 2009

GM Stock Falls on Reports of Potential Bankruptcy

Mon Apr 13 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

General Motors' share price fell 15 percent following an article in the New York Times suggesting that "The Treasury Department is directing General Motors to lay the groundwork for a bankruptcy filing by a June 1 deadline, despite G.M.'s public contention that it could still reorganize outside court."

GM Presents Revised Restructuring Plan

Mon Apr 27 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

GM presented a plan to restructure itself outside of bankruptcy by cutting debt and 21,000 additional jobs and converting $10 billion of loans into equity.

Chrysler Enters into Bankruptcy Restructuring

Thu Apr 30 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

Chrysler filed a petition for bankruptcy in New York, and President Obama held a press conference to announce that the government will provide up to an additional $8 billion in financial support ($3.3 billion in debtor in possession financing for Old Chrysler as it winds down and $4.7 billion in loans for New Chrysler).

Fiat will receive 20 percent of the equity of New Chrysler (with an opportunity to increase that share to 35 percent by meeting certain performance metrics), the UAW's VEBA will receive 55 percent of the equity and a note from New Chrysler for $4.6 billion; the U.S. Government will receive 8 percent of the equity; and the Canadian government will receive 2 percent of the equity for their $3 billion in financial support. Old Chrysler's largest secured creditors have agreed to exchange their portion of Old Chrysler $6.9 billion secured claim for their prorata share of $2 billion in cash at closing.

MAY 2009

Treasury, FDIC Provide Additional Aid to GMAC

Thu May 21 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

Treasury invested an additional $7.5 billion into GMAC, including $4 billion related to the company's agreement to provide financing to Chrysler dealers and customers, and $3.5 billion toward the funds required under the stress test. GMAC, however, still required an additional $5.6 billion in Tier I capital under the stress test.

GMAC stated that "While the U.S. Treasury has indicated that it may be willing to provide additional new capital, GMAC will evaluate other alternatives to meet its capital requirements."

Additionally, as part of the announcement, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) agreed to allow GMAC to participate in the Temporary Liquidity Guarantee Program (TLGP), and the Federal Reserve granted an expanded exemption for the company to originate GM-related assets at GMAC's bank, recently renamed Ally Bank.

JUNE 2009

GM Enters into Bankruptcy Reorganization

Mon Jun 01 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

President Obama announced that GM will enter into a bankruptcy reorganization – with the government providing $30.1 billion in additional financial support beyond the $19.4 billion that it has invested to date. In exchange for its total $49.5 billion investment, the government will receive 60.8 percent of the equity in New GM, as well as approximately $9 billion in debt and preferred stock.

The UAW's VEBA -- to which GM has a $20 billion obligation -- will be funded by a note of $2.5 billion, $6.5 billion in preferred stock, and 17.5% of the equity of New GM (with warrants to purchase an additional 2.5% of the company).

Bondholders representing at least 54 percent of GM's unsecured bonds have agreed to exchange their portion of the Company's $27.1 billion unsecured debt for their prorata share of 10% of the equity of new GM, plus warrants for an additional 15 percent of the new Company.

Additionally, the Administration has outlined a set of "shareholder principles," which include "managing its stake in a hands-off, commercial manner," and seeking to exit its investment "as soon as practicable."

New Chrysler Emerges from Bankruptcy

Wed Jun 10 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

The U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York, approved Chrysler LLC's request to sell substantially all of its operations to Chrysler Group LLC, the new company formed in alliance with Fiat S.p.A. As a result, New Chrysler emerges from bankruptcy -- 42 days after filing.

JULY 2009

Court Approves GM Bankruptcy Reorganization

Sun Jul 05 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

The U.S. Bankruptcy Court of the Southern District of New York approved GM's reorganization plan. Judge Gerber wrote: "As nobody can seriously dispute, the only alternative to an immediate sale is liquidation—a disastrous result for GM's creditors, its employees, the suppliers who depend on GM for their own existence, and the communities in which GM operates. In the event of a liquidation, creditors now trying to increase their incremental recoveries would get nothing . . . Bankruptcy courts have the power to authorize sales of assets at a time when there still is value to preserve—to prevent the death of the patient on the operating table."

Ron Bloom, Senior Advisor at the U.S. Treasury Department Statement before the Congressional Oversight Panel Regarding Treasury's Automotive Industry Financing Program (AIFP)

Mon Jul 27 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

The New GM and the New Chrysler have recently completed the purchase of assets through bankruptcy processes and are now operating as independent companies. During the bankruptcy proceedings, every affected stakeholder had a full opportunity to have his or her claim heard and every creditor will almost certainly receive more than they would have had the government not stepped in. While this has been exceedingly difficult and painful, it has resulted in two great American companies being given a new lease on life and has kept literally hundreds of thousands of Americans working.

DECEMBER 2009

New GM Repays TARP Loan in Full

Tue Dec 01 2009 00:00:00 GMT-0500 (Eastern Standard Time)

The third trading plan will allow us to continue exiting the investment in accordance with our previously announced timetable while maximizing the taxpayer's return."

Reflecting on the Auto Rescue Five Years Later

Thu Sep 26 2013 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

While the auto industry rescue may end up as a net cost to the government, the cost of a disorderly liquidation to the families and businesses across the country that rely on the auto industry would have been far higher.

FY 2013 Update Automotive Industry Financing Program

Mon Sep 30 2013 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

OFS made substantial progress in the wind-down of the AIFP during fiscal year 2013. In total, OFS disbursed $79.7 billion in loans and equity investments to the auto industry through AIFP. As of September 30, 2013, OFS has collected $53.5 billion through sales, repayments, dividends and interest under this program.

FY 2013 Update AIFP-GM

Mon Sep 30 2013 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

In December 2012, OFS announced its intent to fully exit its investment in GM within the next 12-15 months. Concurrently with that announcement, GM purchased 200 million shares of GM common stock from OFS for proceeds of $5.5 billion.

In early 2013 OFS commenced the disposition of its remaining 300 million common shares of GM common stock through a series of pre-arranged written trading plans.

In June 2013 OFS sold an additional 30 million shares of GM common stock in an underwritten sale in connection with the inclusion of GM stock in the S&P 500 index for proceeds of $1.0 billion. The total amount collected for fiscal year 2013 was $12.0 billion. As of September 30, 2013, 101 million common shares remained outstanding valued at $3.6 billion.

FY2013 Update AIFP-Ally

Mon Sep 30 2013 00:00:00 GMT-0400 (Eastern Daylight Time)

OFS invested $17.2 billion in Ally Financial (Ally) under TARP. This includes the $884 million invested through GM. As of September 30, 2013, OFS's outstanding investment in Ally stood at $14.6 billion.

Ally made substantial progress in completing the two strategic initiatives OFS thought critical to maximize recovery of the investment - the Chapter 11 proceeding of Ally's mortgage subsidiary, Residential Capital LLC ("ResCap"), to address Ally's legacy mortgage liabilities and the sale of its international auto finance operations.
